Dear Verna,

Please forgive me for not answering your letter sooner. I had entered 12 ancestor names in the "Root Cellar" and received a tremendous response. I was delighted to get so many letters and am hoping to get all of them answered soon.

My descent from Tunis Quick is as follows:

Tunis Quick (b. no later than 1774 – d. 1809, Estill Co., Ky.
He m. Mary ___?___ (b. no later than 1775 – d. after 1820, Estill Co.

I have found Quicks in N.J., N.Y., Pa., Md., Ohio, and Ky. There were several named Tunis, but I can't identify my Tunis among them. Much of my data came from the Genealogical Magazine of N. J. Somerset and Hunterdon counties seem to be where most of the Quicks lived. Many of the families beloinged to the Reformed Dutch Church.

I can't identify the husband of your Jean (Rose) Quick. The only Tunis, whom I know to be a Jr., was son of Tunis and Catherine (Philips) Quick. He was b. 27 Nov. 1763 and his wife was Rhoda (Proll) Quick.

Have you seen the book A Genealogy of the Quick Family in America, 1625-1942, by Arthur Craig Quick? It has recently been reprinted. I have ordered a copy, and if it contains your Rose-Quick connection, I'll send you the record.

My Tunis came to Ky. from Rowan Co., N.C. He may have been the Tunis listed as a Va. tax payer on the 1782-1787 lists for Brunswick County.

I'm sorry I can't be more helpful.

Sincerely,

Allie Ruth Spurlin

Mrs. Verna Rosacrans
P.O. Box 324
Moxee City, Washington 98936

Dear Mrs. Rosacrans:

Thank you for your nice letter of February 19, 1982. I try not to delay too long before answering correspondence concerning family genealogy. This time, simply too many things to attend to.

Today is a sunny day here in southern California. Two-three inches of rain over the past two days. But we are still less than normal. I don't suppose that's the case where you live in Washington.

Now to reply directly:

The ROSE family of Braxton County, West Virginia, as far as my research has gone, is unrelated to my ancestral line.
However, I have a first cousin, twice removed, who is a direct descendent of the Rose family. Here is her name and address:

Mrs. Marie (or Ralph) Stoneman 400 South Second Street, Clinton, Missouri, 64735. I would suggest that you enclose at least a four generation family chart that would show at least one ROSE if you have this. Also the usal SASE for her reply. I believe that in a recent letter of mine to her, I let her know that you might wish to write concerning your Braxton County connections. So mention my name.

I have enclosed a recent NEW MEMBERS of the Society of the Descendents of Washington's Army at Valley Forge. Note that one, Sgt. Isaac Rose, has been used to document this new member's descendency. He is also one of Marie Stoneman's DAR supplementary ancestors. You don't have to return this. It's a photocopy for your use. And glad to oblige and be of help.

Thanks for the notation on a query by a Virginia Patton. This is really something that you would come across this.

She and I are newly-found third cousins, once removed. We have been corresponding since last September when she met a lawyer cousin of mine in Morgantown, W.Va., when she and her husband were attenting a legal convention. We communicate both by telephone and by letters. I had nearly given up hope and lost my spirits over not locating my elusive third gr.grandfather's birthplace. Then Virginia came along. And everything has perked up for me again.

This could be the case for you, too. I do hope so.

If I can be of further help, don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

W.H.Hopkins Sr

Michigan Resident Writes About Some Early Hunterdon Residents

By Arthur C. Quick

Believe it or not, a hobby is something everyone should have. No matter what line of work or business a person is engaged in he or she should have a hobby—something to take his mind and attention for a little time off his regular vocations—really a sort of holiday or vacation that refreshes the mind, the thoughts, the body.

Someone will ask what sort of hobby it should be. Well, take your pick. There are collectors of almost everything under the sun: stamps, coins, fancy quilt block patterns, geological specimens, dress and hat designs. This reminds me of one girl who asked her father, just returned from the city, "What was the nicest thing in hats that you saw today, father?" "Why, the ladies' faces, my dear." And this was the only tip she got.

Others are collecting Indian curios, fossils, insects and mounting them, antique furniture, dishes and pewter, old books, popular songs of the old days, wild flower specimens, mounting and naming them, cuts of dwelling house exteriors that appeal to one as being "something different." Others take to music, believing that it is soothing to the nerves, at least to those who are producing it. One busy man decided to study a foreign language. For what reason no one knows, he chose Portuguese. He asked me one day if I could talk Portuguese. I told him I didn't know—I never tried.

Author's Hobby Genealogy

Now my hobby is really a sensible one, patriotic and constructive. It is GENEALOGY—tracing one's family history back for many generations. As a rule you will find it a good clean record. Even if one of them should have made a misstep and landed in the penitentiary, why put him down in your record as "in the government service"; or if he was hung, put it down as "sentence held in suspension."

Going thru old records one cannot help being impressed with the oddity of some of the names that parents in the old days sometimes inflicted upon their children. For instance, among the girls I have found such names as Ache, Amity, Barberry, Desire, Exercise, Holiday, Lettuce, Mourning, Mindwell, Melody, Maybe, Obedience, Remember, Tedius, Submit, Spedy.

In one old record book I found the marriage data of the Makepeace family in Boston. Ester in 1655, Mary in 1656, and on the 13th of September, 1661, Wayte-a-while Makepeace was wedded to Josiah Cooper. Being married last, we presume she was the youngest.

"Finis" a Boy's Name

Among the boys we found such names as Abolish, Birilic, Billius, Freegift, Finis (who happened to be the 13th and last child of that family), Grizzle, Money, Preserve, Pardon, Waddle, and Worthy. Another book states that Trim Hedges, born in Kentucky, died 1900 in the Philippine Islands. Another old record mentions a gentleman by the name of Preserved Fish. Fondness for Old Testament names is seen everywhere in these old records. In one instance it resulted in William Dyer, of Newport, R. I., naming his son, born in 1661, "MAHERSHALELHASHBAZ." He claimed no originality for the name, but said it could be verified by consulting Isaiah 8:1. We also found the name "Beelzebub" used at least once.

The early part of my life having been spent in the Neshanic neighborhood, close to the line between Somerset and Hunterdon, and knowing a great many of the Amwell people, I was much interested in some recent articles in this paper by Mr. Egbert Bush, relative to the Ringoes community, and also the interesting story of the "Old York Road," and the people mentioned in it. Being interested in genealogy, I have spent some time poring over various old books in our historical library relative to the earliest settlers in northern New Jersey and have made some interesting "finds."

The early settlements of the Townships of Piscataway and Woodbridge, in the vicinity of Elizabeth and Rahway, really included most of northern Jersey—practically all of Somerset and most of Hunterdon. Later Hunterdon was organized and in 1714 included Morris, Sussex, Warren, most of Mercer, and all of the present Hunterdon, and the county seat was at Trenton.

Early Amwell Names

Among the earliest names mentioned in the early 1700s in the Amwell district I found among the LARISONS, Andrew, Abigail, David, Elizabeth, George, James, John and several others.

The PRALLS included Abraham, Benjamin, George, Isaac, James, John, Lewis, Mary, and Sarah.

More than thirty SCHENCK names appeared, and the VAN LIEWS, around Van Liew's Corner, were Cornelius, Dennis, Fred, Garret, Hendrik, Jacques, Jeremiah and Johannes (Dutch for John).

The WEART family were not so numerous, these being all of one family: Christen, John, Lenor, Cathy, wife of George Himrod, and Mary, wife of Peter Cool.

The will of Robert Blackwell, November 1, 1770, names Frances Blackwell, son John and brother Jacob. Will of Thomas Blackwell, July 6, 1773, of Hopewell, names wife Susannah, sons John, Andrew, Jacob and Benjamin, daughters Jerusha, Amy and Susannah.

The MANNERS family evidently came after 1780 for John Manners is the only one found. Names of thirty-two WILLIAMSONS are found in these early records, and thirty-four PHILLIPS. The REAS—Anne, George, Isaac, John, Mary, Sara and William. Reaville was named after Runkle Rea, of a later generation.

John and Samuel HOLCOMBE are found in will records as having made inventories of estates in 1775 and 1779. In the TITUS family Samuel, John, Johnson, Joseph, Philip and Timothy inventoried estates from 1766 to 1779.

Sheriff Barefoot Brunson

Among scores of oddities in names that attracted my attention was that of Barefoot Brunson, son of Daniel and Frances Greenland Brunson. They lived at Kingston, near Princeton, and son Barefoot was Sheriff of Somerset, dying in that office in 1749. Further research revealed the reason for this unusual name. Captain William Barefoote, originally from England, came to America in 1658, settling in New Hampshire. Some of the family later drifted into Nova Caesarea, as New Jersey was originally called, and this Mr. Brunson was evidently one of them. Judge Walter Barefoote was Deputy Governor of New Hampshire in 1685. He was born in 1620.

Speaking of Nova Caesarea reminds me of how I used to wonder as a small boy, what the words meant. For in the garden around the old colonial house that my great-grandfather built I found quite a number of those big old copper coins with King George's head on one side of the coin, and other big copper cents with Nova Caesarea on one side, bearing dates around 1787, if I remember rightly. Consequently, in the belief that the end of the rainbow was somewhere in that garden I never considered it any great hardship to be asked to help weed the garden, tho my parents never ceased wondering at my willingness. I still have every one of those old mementos.

Again quoting from "First Settlers of Piscataway,"—The little village of Ringoes, in East Amwell, Hunterdon County, in the first 50 years, (1725 to the Revolutionary War,) was of considerable local importance. Its foundation and first settlers—John Ringo, 1720, and Philip Ringo, 1722, were no doubt responsible for the name of the village. There was also a Cornelius Ringo in Hopewell, just over the mountain. Yet Aaron S. Lanning claimed, under date of 1878, that the first real settler was the first occupant of the large 3,000-acre tract, sold in 1702, to Benjamin Field, wife Experience, who sold to Nathan Allen, wife Sarah, from whom the titles of 1720 were obtained.

This first occupant was Rudolph Harley. According to that authority, the list of first settlers of the big Field tract in 1720 were: Philip Peters, Ichabod Lee, Henry Landis, William Schenck, Jacob Sutphin, James Hoppock, Jacob Moore, John Bealsmon, Obediah Howell, Justis Ransel, Rudolph Harley, John Housel, Gershom Mott, John Ringo, James Baird, Anna Lequear, George Thompson, Jeremiah Trout, Hontiel Barrack, George Trout, John Hoagland, Derick Hoagland, John Williamson.

A chart was prepared from Bible records showing Philip Ringo and descendants. Philip, (1682-1757), married Jane Cook in 1721. His second marriage was to a Catrina who survived him. Philip had brothers: Peter, who died in 1730, and Cornelius Ringo, who was a member of the Common Council of Trenton in 1746, and died in 1768 at Maidenhead, N. J. This chart shows five sons of this first Philip Ringo: Albertes, born 1722, married first Kathleine Godown December 29, 1799; second marriage was to Mary Rittenhouse; Henry Ringo (1724-1803), married in 1751 Margaret Major, (1732-1795), settled in Montgomery County, Kentucky, in 1795; Peter Ringo, (1730-1750); John Ringo, (1736-1779), married Martha ——; Cornelius Ringo, born 1739.

I found the name of Robert Blackwell mentioned in 1710; John Titus in 1710; Philip Ringo in 1717, John in 1720, Peter in 1723. Philip Ringo owned Stony Brook Mill in 1709.

The Quick Family

Compiling a history of the QUICK family has really been a more or less complete history of nearly a hundred of the old-time American families in Hunterdon and Somerset counties from 75 to 160 years ago, their intermarriages making them all "cousins" in a greater or lesser degree.

Among these cousins of the Quicks I find these names oft repeated: Amerman, Alpaugh, Alleger, Blackwell, Brokaw, Beekman, Cortelyou, Case, Cornell, Carkhuff, Cronce, Dilts, Dalley, Emery, Fisher, Gulick, Green, Griggs, Gano, Garretson, Holcombe, Hunt, Hart, Higgins, Hoff, Huff, Hoagland, Hill, Hall, Hulsizer, Hageman, Johnson, Kuhl, Kelley, Kenney, Larison, Labaw, Lane, Manners, Moore, Nevius, Prall, Phillips, Polhemus, Robbins, Robinson, Runyon, Reed, Runkle, Rose, Stout, Servis, Stillwell, Sergeant, Schenck, Sutphin, Stryker, Staats, Smock, Skillman, Titus, Thompson, Taylor, Van Dyke, Van Cleef, Van Nest, Van Fleet, Van Liew, Van Doren, Voorhees, Vroom, Wilson, Williamson, Wert, Wyckoff, Young and others.

Altho the male line of the Quick family have largely disappeared from Hunterdon and Somerset counties, and are now to be found in every state of the Union, yet thru the female lines the old Holland blood of old Theunis Thomaszen Quick (Cuyck, Kwik), who owned a considerable slice of Manhattan Island over 300 years ago, still persists today in nearly every old American family in these two counties. Genealogy is really one of the most interesting hobbies that anyone can take up. Try it.

Three Centuries In America

Three centuries since our ancestors settled in America. Think of it! Exactly three centuries ago Galilei Galileo was a prisoner before the Inquisition in Rome, threatened with torture for daring to argue that the earth revolved around the sun. Old Galileo, to save his life, had to eat his words, tho he was convinced the earth did move, while all the rest of mankind, including the first settlers of all these families mentioned above, continued to believe that we were the hub of the universe and that the sun and all creation revolved around us, for "surely anyone could see it move; why argue?" Even they did not believe in a New Deal.

The first of the name of Quick to come from Holland to America was Theunis Quick who married Belitje Jacobs March 9, 1625, in Naarden, Holland. Extensive research has found no other by that name from Holland. Their three sons had quite a number of sons and grandsons, some of them settling on farms in southern New York State and around Port Jervis in the three adjoining states, some remained in New York City, while three took up lands in Somerset. Of the fourth generation Cornelius, Francis, Teunis, Johannes and Petrus settled in various parts of Hunterdon and just across the Delaware.

Francis had five sons. One of them, Jacob, lived on a farm near Wertsville that he bought of two aged maiden ladies. On this estate was a tavern, and on this site now stands the Moses Stout Quick home. Jacob was the great-great-great-great-grandfather of Edward Hoff Quick of Ringoes. Also, he was grandfather of Abram Quick who married Rachel Hart Stout, granddaughter of John Hart of Hopewell, the New Jersey signer of the Declaration of Independence. Several of Jacob's descendants intermarried with the Stouts who were direct descendants of Penelope Stout Van Princes. No doubt some of our readers may remember seeing the story of Penelope in their old school reader—how the Indians murdered her husband and many of the other immigrants as they were landing from their ship near Monmouth County, left her for dead, and that she was later found by a friendly Indian, carried to his wigwam, nursed back to life, and that she finally married Van Princes.

Jacob, Jr., married Jane Rose, and at her death married her sister. His son, Ezekiel Rose Quick, carried on an extensive apple whiskey distillery on what is known as the old Manners' farm at Van Liew's Corner, and his son, Jonathan, later succeeded to the business. Ezekiel Rose Quick and Jane Green had several children: Charles, who married Adah Manners; Joseph Green Quick, who married Cornelia Blackwell; Jonathan, who married Lucretia Gulick; Richard, who married Jane Manners; and others. Charles and Adah had several children, among them being Horace P. Quick, who married Sarah Sutphin, and were the grandparents of Howard S. Quick, now living at Ringoes.

Fourth Generation of Quicks

Now to go back again to the fourth generation, Francis' brother Theunis, baptised August 21, 1698, married Catherine ...., had three daughters and two sons, Cornelius, and Theunis, Jr., who married Catherine Phillips. The elder Teunis lived between Ringoes and Reaville on the Old York Road. His will disposes of his "mill and lands." Of the children of the younger Teunis, John P. Quick married Catherine Prall; Titus married Hannah Moore; Jane married Joseph Sergeant, who was the great-grandfather of Mrs. Mary Larison Blackwell, now living at Ringoes, the daughter of the well-known Dr. C. W. Larison. Another daughter of Teunis Quick, Jr., was Rebecca, who married Dr. Gershom Craven, well-known in his time thruout Hunterdon and Mercer counties. Three of their thirteen children married Com-

Among these grades of the Quicks I find these names oft repeated: Amerman, Appleby, Albert, Blackwell, Brokaw, Beekman, Cortelyou, Case, Cornell, Darkhall, Crane, Dale, Dewey, Emery, Fisher, Foster, Gaston, Griggs, Grant, Garretson, Hagaman, Hunt, Hart, Hughes, Hall, Huff, Hoagland, Hill, Hull, Hubner, Ingham, Johnson, Kehl, Kelley, Kramer, Larison, Lewis, Lane, Manners, Moore, Nevius, Pell, Phillips, Polhemus, Reading, Robison, Runyon, Reed, Richey, Rose, Ross, Servis, Stillwell, Sutphen, Schenck, Snyder, Smith, Stout, Staats, Stillman, Titus, Thompson, Talmadge, Van Dyke, Van Cleef, Van Nest, Van Pelt, Van Liew, Van Doren, Voorhees, Vroom, Wilson, Williamson, Wyckoff, Young and others.

While the male line of the Quick family has largely disappeared from Hunterdon and Somerset counties, and are now to be found in every state of the Union, yet thru the female lines the red blooded blood of old Theunis Thomassen Quick, who owned a considerable area of Amsterdam over 300 years ago, still persists today in nearly every old American family in these two counties. Genealogy is really one of the most interesting hobbies that anyone can take up. Try it.

Three Centuries in America

Three centuries since our ancestors settled in America. Think of it! Exactly three centuries ago Galilei Galileo was a prisoner before the Inquisition in Rome, threatened with torture for daring to argue that the earth revolved around the sun. Old Galileo, to save his skin, had to eat his words, tho he was convinced the earth did move, while all the rest of mankind, including the very ancestors of all these families mentioned above, continued to believe that we were the hub of the universe and that the sun and all the stars revolved around us, for "surely anyone could see it moved, why stand?" Even they did not believe in a New Deal.

The first of the name of Quick to come from Holland to America was Theunis Quick who married Belitje Jacobs March 9, 1625, in Naarden, Holland. Extensive research has found no other by that name from Holland. Their three sons had quite a number of sons and grandsons, some of them settling on farms in southern New York State and around Port Jervis in the upper adjoining states, some remained in New York City, while three took up lands in Somerset. Of the fourth generation Cornelius, Francis, Tunis, Johannes and Cornelius, Francis settled in various parts of Hunterdon and just across the Delaware.

Francis had five sons. One of them, Jacob, lived on a farm near Whitehouse that he bought of one Abel Stalton before. On this estate was a tavern, and on the site now stands the house where Quick home. Jacob was the great-great-great-grandfather of Edward and Quick of Bergen. Also he was grandfather of Agnes Quick who married Sophia Hart Stout, granddaughter of John Hart of Hopewell, the New Jersey signer of the Declaration of Independence. Several of Jacob's descendants intermarried with the Stouts who were direct descendants of Penelope Stout, Van Princes. Perhaps some of our readers may remember reading the story of Penelope in their old school reader—how the Indians scalped her husband and many of the other passengers as they were washed from their ship near Monmouth County, left her for dead, and that she was later found by a friendly Indian, carried to his wigwam, nursed back to life, and that she finally married Van Princes.

Jacob Jr. married Jane Hoff, and at her death married her sister. His son, Samuel Post Quick, carried on an enterprise whose distillery operated in what is known as the old Stahlnecker farm at Two Bridges, and his son, Jonathan, succeeded to the business. Ezekiel Quick and Jane Cryon had several children: Charles, who married Ann Malvern; Joseph Craig Quick, who married Cornelia Stryker; and Lucretia Quick, Rachel, who married John Manners; and others. Charles and Ann had several children, among them being Horace P. Quick, who married Sarah Bergen, and were the grandparents of Howard S. Quick, now living at Bergen.

Fourth Generation of Quicks

Now to go back again to the fourth generation. Francis' brother Thomas, baptized August 21, 1689, married Catharine Brewer .... had three daughters and two sons, Cornelius and Thomas Jr., who married Catharine Philhower. The elder Thomas lived between Ringoes and Flemington on the Old York Road. His will disposes of his "mill and lands." Of the children of the younger Thomas, John P. Quick married Catharine Pralls. John Quick married Hannah Gray; their daughter married Joseph Sergeant, who was the great-grandfather of Mrs. Mary Larison Blackwell, now living at Ringoes, the mother of the well-known Dr. D. W. Larison. Another daughter of Thomas Quick, Jr., was Rebecca, who married Dr. Cornelius Grandin, well-known in his time through Hunterdon and Morris counties. Three of their thirteen children married Larmodores and Rear-Admirals of the U. S. Navy. Our present Admiral Thomas T. Craven, now commander of our navy's battleship division, is a direct descendant.

Other children of Teunis, Jr., were Catherine, Mary, Theophilus, Jane, Rhoda, and the Revolutionary soldier Teunis Quick, III, who married Rhoda Prall and has scores of descendants in Hunterdon in the Schenck, Moore, Phillips, Drake, Thompson, Sutphin, Holcombe, Runkle, Phillips, Hunt and many other families. Practically all of those mentioned in the last few paragraphs were identified with the Amwell First Church.

Teunis Quick, Sr., mentioned above, had a cousin, Teunis, who settled near Ten-Mile-Run in Somerset County, built a large colonial house that is still standing and in excellent condition. His daughter, Sarah, married John Stoothoff, whose descendants are still found in Hunterdon. The only son was Col. Abraham Quick, a prominent soldier in the Revolutionary War and large land owner in Somerset. Teunis, being a pet name in the Quick family, Col. Abraham named his oldest son Teunis. He later became known as Major Teunis, married Alche, daughter of Jacques Voorhees, and among their grandchildren was James B. Quick, father of Annie Metler Quick, who married John B. Hunt of Flemington, who. I believe are the parents of Mrs. Bertha Hunt Robbins of Flemington. Many of the descendants of Major Teunis Quick are resting in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Flemington.

A Most Interesting Hobby

Why doesn't the reader take a little flier in genealogy? It is one of the most interesting hobbies that one can take up. Those who are farmers are mighty proud of their registered livestock, with pedigrees running way back to zero. Why not do as much for your ancestors? Do we not owe it to them—the pioneers who have made our country what it is today? Do we not owe it to those who come after us—to hand down some record of those who have gone before?

I have found it intensely interesting—searching out the records of the Quick family and the hundred collateral families of old Hunterdon and Somerset. We still have the names of a few Quicks whose parents we have been unable to learn, nor the names of their descendants, and I am going to add below these names with the hope that some of their descendants in Hunterdon and Somerset may help me to solve the puzzles, for surely there are hundreds of their descendants in the female lines, now bearing other names, who may have the family records, perhaps in old Bibles hidden away in the attics, or family traditions, or recollections of having at some time heard of one or more of these names mentioned as being among their relatives three or four generations back. I shall surely appreciate hearing from any such of my distant "cousins" and it will help greatly in preserving the history of the earliest settlers in our good old state of Nova Caesarea. Here are the names of such Quicks as we have not been able to connect with either their parents or their children:

1834—Abraham Quick, m. Sarah F. Wilson,
1847—Abraham Quick, m. Hannah Myers,
1831—Frank, m. Hagar Tomson,
1822—Jeremiah, m. Sarah Hortman,
1848—John, m. Rodenbaugh,
1826—Tunis, m. Phebe Trimmer,

1865—William R., m. Fran. Dilts,
1871—Eli H., m. Mary C. Dilts,
1871—Abraham, m. Harriet Quick,
1825—John D., m. Ossie Van Horn,
1904—Harry, m. Bertha Tomson,
1798—John, m. Mrs. Lare,
1807—John, m. Mary Wyckoff,
1795—John S., m. Lydia Thatcher,
1804—Ralph, m. Sarah Conrad,
1772—Cornelius, m. Elizabeth Quimby,
1789—Cornelius, m. Ann Johnson,

1788—William, m. Charity Busenbury,
1847—Mary Cath., m. Westley Gain,
1804—Levi, m. Sarah Vlereboom. Who was Levi's father, living in the Ringoes-Reaville-Hopewell neighborhoods?

A certain Peter Quick, who lived and died in New Jersey, had a son, Thomas, who settled in Hanover, Pa. We have a hundred of his descendants but cannot ascertain who this Peter was.

A certain Garret Quick, born 1774 in New Jersey, married Jane DeForest in 1798. We have 200 of their descendants down to date. Who was the father of Garret?

Dear Rachel,

Thanks for the Franks information. I do wish we could find something that could prove that Rebecca Rose was a daughter of Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner. Betty Jane (Gill) Brooks of Kissimmee, FL was the first person to contact me concerning this possibility. I am very sorry that she was, for some reason, unable to continue our contact. I still believe that she must have become ill and is probably the Betty Brooks listed on the Social Security death index as having died on 13 Dec 1988. I am enclosing the material from Gill and know you will pick up a bit more information from her letter and family group sheet.

Gill mentioned the Michael Franks Family History and I know it is available from Salt Lake City, but have not ordered the microfilm. A copy of my letter to Mrs. Harley Franks, the author, and her daughter's response are enclosed.

Charles Rose was probably born in Hunterdon Co. NJ to Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler (dau of John and Sarah Fidler). Charles is listed on various court records in Hunterdon Co. NJ from 1768 (will of Ezekiel) to 1783 (His former guardians vs Jacob Quick to obtain what seems to be his share of his father's estate). Charles is listed as a taxpayer in Hunterdon Co. with the last listing in 1786 in Amwell Twp. The next date found is when Charles and Rebecca purchase land in Monongalia Co. VA in 1796. No records have been located for the period 1786-1796 and he has not been located on a 1790 census. He may have still resided in NJ, but census records are not extant for 1790, New Jersey. My ancestor, Alsey Rose Conner daughter of Charles stated on the 1850 census that she was born in MD, in 1860 she said VA. I have wondered if the Rose family moved from Hunterdon Co. to the area around Fayette Co. PA, Allegany Co. MD and Monongalia Co VA between 1786 (Hunterdon Co. NJ tax list) and Sept 1789 (birth of their dau Alsey Rose Conner). Charles and Rebecca are not listed on the 1790 census of Fayette Co. PA and there is no census extant for Monongalia Co. VA or Alleghany Co. MD for 1790. It seems almost an impossible task to locate him after he left New Jersey about 1786 until he purchased land in Monongalia Co. VA in 1796. I have not checked deeds in either Fayette or Alleghany Cos. so do know if he was a land owner prior to 1796.

I have, again, gone through all of my papers and the only references to a daughter Rebecca are contained in the 1816 will of Charles Rose and in a law suit brought in 1854 by John Rose (son of John Rose and grandson of Charles and Rebecca). He lived in Ohio and was trying to obtain some of the land left by Charles per his will of 1816. John of Ohio lists the children of Charles and includes a daughter, Rebecca. Her married name is not known, nor is it known if she is living.

Have you tried to locate an obituary for Rebecca? Since she had lived for such a long time in Fayette Co. as had generations of Franks, maybe some mention was made in the newspaper of the death of such an elderly, long time resident.

Note in Gill's letter to me of Apr 1985 that there was a Franks reunion held each year at Jacob's Glebe Church, but was discontinued about 1981 due to lack of interest. Surely there are still people living in Uniontown or the area who must have attended. Gill said in the letter that a Mrs. Ruth Franks of Uniontown kept her informed about the reunion. Wonder if that lady is still living after 14 years. Maybe an advertisement in the Uniontown newspaper might help.

I have a suggestion concerning the Charles Rose material. The Rose Family Association, 1474 Montelegre Drive, San Jose, CA 95120-4831 has a computerized report on Charles and Rebeckah Rose. I believe it is $20.00 and is quite extensive. If you get this, you could probably have it scanned to a disc for your computer. I do not have a computer, so all of my material is contained in three notebooks and quite cumbersome to handle. My last report is dated 1990, so Christine may have encluded later material than I have in my records. I really need to order a new copy.

You mentioned that you had become absolutely obsessed with this world of genealogy...please know that is quite normal for genealogists. I have been obsessed for 20 years. About three years ago, the local LDS Church opened a Family History Center. They could not get enough staff from church membership, so arranged for our local genealogy society to be allowed to staff the Library. I had retired from the Bartlesville Public Library in 1989 and was a member of the Bartlesville Genealogy Society. I was approached to work at the Family History Center. I agreed to work one afternoon each week. Believe me, it is one of the best volunteer jobs available. The Church places a great deal of trust in those of us who work at the library. They allow us, non-members, to have a key to their church building. We have the privilege of using the library during closed hours, except on Sunday and Monday evening. This is a wonderful benefit for ½ days work each week. I do caution everyone about the records entered by other people (they are only as good as the person doing the research), but the filmed state and country records are exciting to use. I am doing research on my Father's family in German records at this time. It is doubtful that I would ever travel to Sankt Ingbert or Mittelbexbach, Germany!

Let us continue to search for the parents of Rebecca. I have exhausted my own ideas for further research. None of the court papers concerning Charles or Rebecca mention a Franks, even as a witness. Somebody in Fayette Co. PA must know something...

We must keep searching.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Nunneley
Your letter certainly added to my Holiday cheer. It answered many questions for me and gave me some new leads for my research. I am relatively new in this- began seriously last January after my retirement. I am most fortunate to have a Geneological lab here in town which has access to the Morman church in Salt Lake City. This has helped me tremendously. Papers that had been left for me over the years gave me quite a bit of information about the Franks family, but stopped with William Thomas Miller and no clues. I had been concentrating in Fayette Co. Pa. as I knew my father and grandfather had both been born there- but was becoming increasingly more frustrated.

I recently received the death records for Louisa Hare, whom I knew was my great grandmother and it gave me some information, such as her fathers name and her place of birth, which is listed as Morgantown, West Virginia. But because of the holidays and the expected arrival of our four children, their spouses and six grandchildren, I had to set this project aside.

I also received a letter from Paul Cline, who is interested in information from me and has offered to help. He too saw the query. So I really hit paydirt.

I really appreciate your family group sheets, they have provided a great deal of information. I am enclosing the Franks family line in the event that you want to add it to your information. I would really appreciate any information you have on Charles and Rebecca Rose even though I have no further proof than you that this is indeed the line to follow.

Jacob Franks will dated 1875 lists his daughter Elizabeth Miller deceased and mentions her son, William Thomas Miller. Since the 1850 census shows William at age three living with Jacob and Rebecca Franks, I am assuming, without proof at this time, that he was an orphan by this date.

My line is:
    Ezekial Rose Married Mary Fidler
    Charles Rose married Rebecca Mulliner
    Rebecca Rose married Jacob Franks
    Elizabeth Franks married Sidwell Miller
    Harriet Franks married John Steele Hare
These latter two were sisters and their children married. who were my great grandparents- this is proven.

William Thomas Miller married Louisa Hare
Jacob Franks Miller married Mary Olive Maust
Ralph Wadsworth Miller married Ilma Irene Krupp
Rachel Kay Miller married Robert Earl Lyon

Thank you again for responding to my query and I hope that we can exchange some information. I will be glad to help you if I can. I have become absolutely obsessed with this project and love hearing from family, no matter how distant the relationship may be.

Sincerely,

Rachel K Lyon

Jan. 17. 1995.

Dear Mary,

Wow - thanks for all of the great information.

I will check out deeds in Fayette, Allegany & Monongalia Cos. and see if we can find land for Chas. Lose. So far I have not located an obituary for Rebecca, but I will try to secure a film or fische for the local papers.

I wrote to the Franks clan - however return correspondence said it was no longer in existance. However, a new Fayette Co. Genealogical Society was just started and are accepting queries -

Fayette Co. Genealogical Society
RD #2 Box 464
Farmington Pa 15437
Kathryn Cooley Miller - pres.

I will be writing them and joining - perhaps their research will shed some light.

I too have a family (my mothers side) from Germany. That research is difficult as all I know is Alsace - (what a huge area) but never say die!!

My work will be on hiatus for awhile as we are leaving Feb 20. for an 8 week vacation in Australia & New Zealand. We are so excited! Last year was Alaska for 6 weeks - And we lived in Germany 3 years and "did Europe, Ireland & Eng." How I wish I were into - genealogy then.

We have purchased a motor home and hope to do the States - not too many I haven't been to - but still lots to see. One trip is scheduled for PA & Ohio for genealogy alone.

If I don't get any new info prior to our departure I will touch bases upon our return in April.

Sincerely,
Rachel -

Photocopy of marriage record of Charles and Rebeckah (Mulliner) Rose Jan. 13, 1781 from New Jersey Division of Archives.

Photocopy of will of Charles Rose probated Sep. 1816 obtained from Monongalia Co., W VA (Vol.1, p.363-64) listing children that included Hopkins Rose and Aley Conner.

Photocopy of marriage of Susanah Rose to Adam Harness (Bk.B, p.35, #1010) Fayette Co., OH. Page 35 has entries 1008-1014 and all are for 1833 but Susanah and Adam's is written 1832.

1850 Darke Co., OH Census, Wabash Twp. - p.269, enumerated July 22 - Adam Harness-farmer-56-m-Va, Susannah 55-f-P, Nimrod-farmer-22-m-O, Henry 20-m-O, Elizabeth 17-f-O, Susan 15-f-O, Adam 13-m-O, and John Sanders-farmer-50-m-SC.

History of Jeffersonville and Jefferson Township Ohio 1803-1988 by Roscoe Smith, p.14 - 1826 list of those who held land in township included Sarah Conner, James Conner, Adam Harness, and Susanna Rose.

1827 Tax List for Jefferson Twp., Fayette Co., OH included Sarah Conner, James Conner, Adam Harness and Susannah Rowe (Rose?). Note: there was Jesse, John and Wm. Rowe in Green Twp. in 1827.

From "The Fayette County Chronicle: A Collection of Genealogical and Historical Records Vol. I" by Sandy Fackler - 1835 Jefferson Twp. Real and Personal Property Tax List: p.17 James Conner-2 horses-2 cattle-land, p.23 Susannah Rose-land. Note: Susanah Rose married Adam Harness in 1832 so who is this? Was this still on record under Rose as purchaser which was prior to the Harness marriage?

Copied from booklet (I forgot to note title) at Garst Museum in Greenville, Darke Co., OH on p.37 - Shooks Chapel M.E. Church was located 2 miles east of Rossburg in Darke Co.. The society was organized about 1843 and met in the school house with Pastor Alexander Harmount. Members were Elijah Shook and wife, Davidson Birt and wife, Thomas Sutton and wife, John Rose and wife, Hopkin Rose and wife, Adam Harness and wife, John Gibson and wife, John Kimble and wife, and F.S. Supinger.

How did Susanah Conner and Hopkins Rose meet to marry? Charles and Rebeckah Rose came from Hunterdon Co. NJ, then apparently to Fayette Co. PA, then to Monongalia Co. VA (now W VA). I found a John Conner in Monongalia Co., VA in 1782, in Fayette Co., PA in 1800 and again in 1810 in Fayette Co., German Twp. and wonder if this could be Susanah's father. The above 1800 census listed 1 male 10-16 (James?), 1 male 16-26, 1 male over 45 (John), 3 females under 10 (Susanah? b.1795), 1 female 10-16, 1 female 16-26, 1 female 26-45, 1 female over 45 (wife). There are a lot of Conner's so this is only a theory as father of Susanah. Since Fayette Co., PA and Monongalia Co., VA are across the state line from one another and assuming Susanah was from Fayette Co. the meeting seems possible.

Dear Mary,

I apologize for taking so long to answer your letter regarding my entries in Everton's "Roots Cellar". I submitted 51 ancestors and received many letters so am up to my neck in correspondence, but very happy to get all the letters. I work part-time for a veterinary hospital which cuts down on my genealogy time, then mid-November I put everything away until after the holidays. It's so nice to be back to a normal schedule again and the snowy weather we've been having is perfect for letter writing. My Roots IV upgrade arrived the day before Christmas so I'm also trying to figure it out and change the way I previously entered some data. It's really different from Roots III but looks like it will be nice if I can just do it!!!

When I received your letter, I didn't know much about the Conner line beyond Susanah and her brother James. Since then I have received a lot of information from Freda Strampe of Omaha, Nebraska. If you have not been in contact with her I'll put you in touch. I'm enclosing copies of her John and Mary Conner and John and Sarah Conner sheets and what I have on Susanah and James. NOTE: I have not updated my Conner sheets since I received her information.

Yes Susanah did file for bounty land June 1851 in Darke Co., OH. As for what happened to her after that I'm not certain but think she may have died shortly after that and is buried in Shook Cemetery in Wabash Twp. in Darke Co.. Adam and Susanah were members of Shooks Chapel M.E. Church. The book on Shook Cemetery lists AUAM, Harness d. 6-1-1851 age 65 yr. and Susanah d. 8-3-1851 age 63 yr. then the next entry is HARNESS, John so think the first may be Adam Harness. However the ages don't agree with other info. I had Susanah b. 1795 (no proof), the 1850 Darke Co. census also makes her born ca 1795 but the cemetery would make her born ca 1788. I had Adam born ca 1794 per the census but the cemetery would make him born ca 1786. I haven't been to Shook in a long while and haven't checked the marker yet. I know dates on tombstones can be wrong because my husband's great-grandparents are both listed as being born 10 years later than they were!

Now on to the Rose line. I have a copy of Charles and Rebeckah (Mulliner) Rose's New Jersey marriage record, a copy of his will from Monongalia Co., VA/W VA, as well as a copy of his father Ezekiel's will. If you need any of them just let me know. Most of my information on Charles and Rebeckah's children comes from Toni Seiler at Garst Museum in Greenville, Darke Co., OH. You had info that I didn't---2nd marriage of John to Susannah Shrives and burial at Bald Knobs Cemetery, Freelove's spouse William Bowen and marriage date, and possible marriages of Rachel to Benjamin Lewellen and Rebecca to Jacob Franks, first deed in Monongalia Co. and pension application of Rebecca for Charles---all of which I appreciate receiving.

Going back on the Rose line I have: (my 6th gen.) Ezekiel b. July 17, 1705 Block Island, RI & d. May 26, 1768 Hopewell, Hunterdon Co., NJ with will proved Aug. 9, 1768; m. Mary Fidler d/o John & Sarah (Smith) Fidler, Sr.; children - Ezekiel; Sarah m. John(?) Phillips; Hannah m. _____Woolverton; Jean m. Oct. 28, 1772 Jacob Quick; Rachel; Jonothan m. Jan. 8, 1779 Elizabeth Hixon; Jarusia; and Charles m. Jan. 13, 1781 Rebeckah Mulliner. (7th gen.) John Rose b. Oct.4, 1678 Block Island, RI & d. Dec. 17, 1720 Block Island, m. Dec. 28, 1698 Mary Dodge d/o John & Mary (Enos/Innis) Dodge, b. Apr. 18, 1682 Block Island RI & d. Jan. 28, 1751; children - Tormut b. Nov. 3, 1699 & m. Anna; Daniel b. Oct. 6, 1701 & d. May 15, 1760, m. Sep. 25, 1726 Newshoreham, NJ to Hepsebeth Mott; John Jr. b. Jun. 29, 1703 & d. 1755, m. Mary; Ezekiel b. July 17, 1705 (see above 6th gen.); James d. 1749 m. Hepsabeth/Elizabeth Olive; Ann d. 1751, m. Samuel Dodge; Mary m. Oliver Rose; Catharine m. Joseph Mitchell Jr.. (8th gen.) Tormut Rose b. 1632 northern Scotland, captured in Battle of Dunbar and sent as a prisoner to Braintree, MA 1652, d. 1684 on Block Island, RI, m. July 22, 1676 Block Island to Hannah George d/o Peter & Mary (Rowning) George, b. Sep. 7, 1648 Braintree & d. ca 1692 Block Island; children - John (see above 7th gen.); Hannah b. Oct. 24, 1679, m. Nov. 11, 1705 Alexander Young; Mary b. Apr. 18, 1682 & d. Feb. 23, 1752.

In seeking out Fidler data I did get the microfilm of Hazel M. Kendall's "Fidler Lore" and copied 34 pages even though I knew there were many errors. I also obtained John Fidler's will from New Jersey Division of Archives if you need it. The will was written Oct. 8, 1759 and the inventory is dated Oct. 22, 1759. Son Thomas and son-in-law Ezekiel Rose are appointed executors, wife Sarah and sons John, Timothy, Nathan, and daughters Mary Rose, Elizabeth Stilwell and Sarah are mentioned. Witnesses were Andrew Smith Jr., Richard Reed and John Titus Jr.. Besides Mary (Fidler) Rose the only other child I have info on is John from The New Jersey Calendar of Wills 1730-1750 that lists wife Hannah, sons Samuel, John and daughters Mary Servis, Elizabeth Cromwell, and Hannah Smith in will proved Feb. 16, 1805 in Hunterdon Co.. New Jersey Archives didn't locate John Fidler's marriage to Sarah Smith. They do not collect church records and suggested I contact the Genealogy Section of New Jersey State Library, CN 520, Trenton, NJ 08625 but I haven't done this yet.

If you have any additions or corrections to what I have sent please let me know. It's so nice to find someone else researching the same lines and exciting to fill in more of the blanks. Hopefully we'll be able to complete the puzzle one day! Thanks so very much for writing and again I'm sorry to be such a slowpoke in answering.

Sincerely,

Carole

Dear Mary:

Going over your letter , and since I have received nothing else from you, I wondered if perhaps I am in error somehow.

I do not want to loose contact with you because I feel sure we both have information for the other. I was so pleased that you thought William and Mary in 1850 Monongalia belonged to us. Since they are living next door to Joseph and Rebecca in the 1870 census. It sounds like a large party of them left Virginia together and went to Kentucky. Joseph's and Rebecca's parents and siblings. Have you heard anything about Rebecca's older brother William. The Rose Report said that he did not go to Ky with the family but did go with someone else. After all he was 19 in 1850 making him 21 when they all left so I'm sure he had a life of his own.

Mary, with out the help of the Rose Assoc. I could not get any further than Rebecca and Joseph. I had the death certificate of Rebecca Rose Johnson but it said the name of her father was William and her mother Jane McMullen. So I was stumped for awhile.

I noticed your name in the Rose Report. Do you have the report ? If not, please let me know and I will have a copy made for you. I shall send you a list and if you want any other information at all, please let me know, I will gladly send you any thing I have.

Yours Truly

Dear Gwen,

I have received your computer charts of the descendants of Ezekiel Rose and the kinship charts. I can provide much additional information on births, deaths and marriages. We need to really examine some of the items before we add more information.

On your charts, you show your descent as follows:

Ezekiel Rose m Mary
Charles Rose m Rebecca
Charles Rose m Jane McMullen
Rebecca Rose m Joseph Johnson
Minnie Belle Johnson 1868-1911 m James Franklin McClure 1868-1939
Rebecca Rose McClure 1896-1973 m Emil Gerald Snyder 1895-1965
Ethel Gwendolyn Snyder 1925 -

The problem in that line, according to my records, is your grandmother, Minnie Belle. Is the date of her birth in 1868 a "proven" date? If so, I do not believe she is a daughter of Joseph and Rebecca ROSE Johnson. The following census records for Joseph and Rebecca do not show a daughter born in 1868 or one named Minnie Belle:

1870 census - Boyd Co. KY - PO Ashland -pages 15-16 (25 Jun 1870)

109-109 - Johnson,	Joseph	42	m	w	laborer	VA
	Rebecca	36	f	w		VA
	Mary J.	18	f	w		VA
	Charles L.	14	m	w		KY
	Wm. T.	12	m	w		KY
	Isaac	9	m	w		KY
	Melissa E.	6	f	w		KY

1880 census - Boyd Co. KY - Prec. 8/Ashland-pg. 257C-(21 Jun 1880)

304-324 - Johnson,	Joseph	50	w	m		Teamster	VA	PA	PA
	Becca	40	w	f	wife	keep house	VA	VA	PA
	Charles	22	w	m	son	teamster	KY	VA	VA
	William	21	w	m	son	teamster	KY	VA	VA
	Isaac	19	w	m	son	machinist	KY	VA	VA
	Ella	14	w	f	dau	at home	KY	VA	VA
	Wilhelmina	8	w	f	dau	at home	KY	VA	VA
	Laura	3	w	f	dau	at home	KY	VA	VA

1900 census - Boyd Co. KY - Ashland/Ward #1 - 825 Carter Ave.
Sheet 21/super dist. 9/enum dist. 13 (13 Jun 1900)

387-400 - Johnson,	Joseph	head wm	(b)Jun 1829	70	m50	VA	MD	VA
	Rebecca	wife wf	(b)Jul 1832	67	m50	VA	VA	VA
	Laura	dau wf	(b)Feb 1878	22	s	KY	VA	VA

(Rebecca stated she was the mother of eight children, seven living)

As you can see by the census records, no Minnie Belle is ever listed with this family. Is Minnie possibly the daughter of another Joseph and Rebecca Johnson or is she the Wilhelmina, born about 1872, listed on the 1880 census? If Minnie Belle was born 1868, she should have been listed on the 1870 census (about age two) and on the 1880 census (about age 12). I am certainly confused about her birthdate and the fact that she is never shown with Joseph and Rebecca. I would be anxious to hear from you on this problem.

You wondered about William Thomas Rose (son of Charles and Jane) - he moved to Allamakee Co., Iowa. William and Elizabeth Artist married 24 Jul 1853 in Allamakee Co. I believe he died on 28 Apr 1904 in Chamberlin, Brule Co. SD while living with one of his children. He is buried at Volney, Allamakee Co., IA. William and Elizabeth had seven children.

I do have the Charles Rose and Ezekiel Rose reports from the Rose Family Association. Christine Rose has been most helpful with my research on my Rose family. I think I have been a member of the Association since about 1980. Chris and I have shared a great deal of information over the years.

Do let me know about your Minnie Belle McClure, born 1868. I will wait to send additions and corrections on material until I hear again.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

So nice to get your letter. I have been reading it over and over. Was so pleased that you think William and Mary are the parents of Joseph. I was ready to give up on him, thought he was found in a cabbage leaf. They are living reasonably close to the Rose family in the Monongalia census of 1850.

Also, did you notice in the 1870 census of Boyd co KY, William and Mary seem to be living next door to Joseph and Rebecca
William is 62-Mary is 61 both born in PA
Elisha laborer age 29 Born in VA
Mary Elixabeth living at home 26 yrs old born in VA
Living next door to them is a Joseph Johnson, perhaps he is a cousin Says Joseph 55 born in VA , thats only 13 yrs older than my Joseph
Wife Sara 53 born in VA
Margaret, at home 30 yrs old born VAand Calvin at home, laborer, 18 yrs old. born in KY strange he must not be a son

You know how there are a lot of columns, the last column on the page says:
Male US citizens of 21 and upwards whose right to vote is denied.
What in the world do you think that means?
All the males are checked, perhaps they checked them if they were allowed to vote.
Indians were not allowed to vote
But on the census Joseph is marked w and so is Rebecca William (his father) is marked w
There is no w by Mary his mother's name. could she have been an indian?
None of the children are marked .
I've wrote and asked Myra Gomby a geanoligist on the Prodigy board for an explaination.
Will let you know when I find out something.
Mary are you typing or using a computer, your letter head looks like a computer. Do you by any chance have an easy mail ID. Mine is PVMC47A@PRODIGY.COM.

We have never heard the name Wilhelmina, Minnie Belle is her name. Its on several deeds and its on her Tombstone in the Ashland Cem. I also have several census from Greenup and Boyd and it always says Minnie Bell. I don't have either a birth certificate of Minnie's because KY didn't have them when she died.

Also pleased to see you had Joseph Johnson's birth date. I knew the year he was born but not the month. I believe you and I have got information from the same place. The Rose Association in San Jose. I was going over my report from Christine and saw your name , I think it was some information she got from you. So you wrote to her before I did.

Is there any papers you want, any questions? I am going to send you more as soon as I finish getting all the Roses and Johnsons on the computer. I have Family Tree Maker, I also have Family Origins and thats why its taking so long. I really don't want to work with both of them but can't decide which one I want to give up.

Cousins (I'll figure that out later)

So sorry I fooled around getting this mailed. Today is the 17th

Gwen

Dear Mary:

I didnt know you had the Rose name in your family! You lucky person! I heard rumors that I had a Rose family in my ancestry at one time!

Yes, the John Rose family is confusing but what do you expect from someone who was raised by the Indians! We certainly know that his mother didnt die young or our dearly beloved Charles was married twice! I dont even want to think of that possibility - maybe her maiden name was Hopkins! We know he didnt marry Edy Boyce in Gallia Co. Ohio - When I was corresponding with a couple of Johns descendants, I pointed out a few of the errors & never heard from them again - so much for being picky! You know in all family traditions, stories etc there is a little truth & the one thing that makes me wonder about Johns little story is the Mercer Co. Pennsylvania bit - Why Mercer - We know he was in Monongalia Co. West Va. but somewhere Mercer Co. was passed down in ~~the~~ his family - According to his story he was born there, his mother died there & he returned to the white settlement there - Disregarding and then start looking for something else next Sept. The only thing my Income does is put us in a higher Income Tax Bracket - We saved Uncle Sam $2700.00 bought two IRA's so now only 1600.00 - Love to save all year just to pay Uncle.

Well had best close By for now + will do some more looking in my Rose info. I still think that some of the desc. of John + James sons s/o John Rose s/o Dormut - may have moved to Pennsylvania - There were just to many Roses in Mercer. Fayette Greene Cos. Penn.

By for now
Love

Dear Mary:

How is everything in Bartlesville? If it is like Moxee, not a whole hell of a lot. Today was my day off + have had a super day - most of the day spent writing letters. Haven't had one of those in ages. Dick has been home sick for 3 days so not a whole heck of a lot I could do as far as housework. I thought he had walking pneumonia again but X-rays were O.K. Had blood tests yesterday and nothing showed up there but his lymph glands are swollen + he feels and looks like hell. Viruses always sounds good!

I dont know where the first 5 months of the year have gone to. April was a real blur - did we have an April? It seems lake for the last two months we were committed to go somewhere on the weekends. I'm looking foreward to the coming 3 day-weekend. nothing planned. + all kinds of projects planned. It has been so bad around here that Kelly's birthday was April 29th + I just got her birthday present today + delivered it to her. + I still owe her a birthday dinner! I won't have another day off until sometime in July. The two gals I work with will have their vacations in June. One starts June 4th + the other starts when the first one gets back + I have already received the word that my body has to be there every-day while they are gone.

Dick is coaching Kory's Little League team + he + I are bowling in the Family Funster League on Thursday nights. I don't know how the poor kid has been bowling so well. His teacher moved him to the front of the class

② + I also noticed in Little League practice that he was misjudging the ball if it was hit toward him. So took him in + had his eyes checked and walked out $224.00 later with glasses. He is very badly nearsighted. According to the Dr. it has been coming on for quite a while + peaked this year. I felt bad to say the least. Back in March, he won the B. Div. Singles - for City Tournament. He bowled a 510 scratch - av. 119. At State in Spokane a couple of weeks ago. he bowled his first 200 - a 215. + received a pin.

Well ~~his~~ as far as any news on the Charles Rose family. it is zilch. At the moment they are not even in my family tree. I hope those mysterious daughters of his had miserable lives. I know they ended up in Ohio. + they probably went by Rose as they didn't know how to read. write or anything else. or they ended up sipping mint juleps on the "old plantation". Their descendants are probably still up in the hills making moonshine.

Thank You for sending the query from Charles Bridges. We have been writing for some years. I did hear from a Richard McDorman in Dayton, Ohio a couple of weeks ago. He is researching McDorman also but his came from Virginia and didnt arrive in Ohio until after the Civil War + mine were there by 1812. One thing rather interesting though is his David McDorman lived in Caroline Co. Va. 1790 to 1800 + then moved to Spotsylvania Co. + both these Cos. are close to Louisa Co. where the Burch's came from. I finally got a bunch of pages from one of the Burch Books + good old Judy is listed as she was in the info you sent. Maybe one of the McDorman's moved to Guilford about the same time as

3) the Burch kid. Do you want ~~the~~ copies of ~~[illegible]~~ what I have from the Burch Book. Supposedly there is a Wm. Burch family book + that is the one I need + I'm going to try to order it. through inter library loan. If I could find a Riedon family living in Louisa Co. early then I would say the McDearmons came from Virginia. The name shows up in the family quite often. as a first name. Of course there are lots of McDarmons in Pennsylvania and Maryland!!!!

Also did I send the picture of your Rose Cousins from Alabama? I was looking for it to put in the album + can't find it. I thought I sent it to you. If you have it let me know, + I won't worry about it anymore.

Boy our weather sure has been miserable. You can count on one hand the number of nice days we have had. Sunday was one of them + I worked out in the yard all day (over)

+ Im still stiff + sore. Still have three more spots to clean out. Im getting to old to crawl around on my hands and knees.

Well had best close + go finish dinner. Having roast, mashed potatoes + gravy, Green beans and bacon. salad + Tapioca pudding for dessert.

Bye for now

Dear Mary:

Honorable Cousin offers a thousand apologies for being so ill mannered in not writing sooner. Honorable Cousin has had one hell of a time the last two months! Genealogy had lots of dust on it until this past Sunday. I finally got my two big bookcases + have all my notebooks in them.

I did read all the Rose info that you sent from Chris. but don't know if I'm any smarter now than I was before. If I read the handwriting correctly, one of those females did marry a Ross. since the spelling of Ross + Rose was very definite. I picked the young Rose family you found on the census records.

I'm finally back to having an almost day off from work. Wed. is my late day & dont go in until 3:30. Those 9 & 10 hr.
days were beginning to tire me out after two months.

Dick changed jobs
again & is now driving truck for an Aluminium Window Co.
Worked steady for a month but now they are slowing down and only work a couple 3 days a week. It might be a long winter. He has worked enough to draw unemployment.

Kelly is working at the bank now in the Installmen loan dept. & hates it. She is my daughter but really irritates me sometimes with her attitude as she is not giving the job a chance. & not thanking her lucky stars that she has a job.

The Central Wash.
State Fair started last Friday and we went down Sunday evening. All I go for is to eat - Went on one of the rides with Kory & just about lost everything I did eat! Kory went with a friend yesterday after school & brought home a gold fish. Just what I needed along with the Hampster! Our cat got sick last week - short version is cat asthma. $70.00 later I brought him home & still dont know if he is going to make it. I told the family no more animals! Can you get attached to fish? It is in a fruit jar at the moment - & has had no food.

You cant believe all the letters I have received & havent answered yet. Some of the names I dont even remember putting in queries! Of course the queries are 5 years or more old.

The Burch info was fantastic. Im glad my Judy Burch had parents. as I was beginning to wonder.

Fall has arrived. Last Monday we had snow in the hills but warmed up to the 80's. Little nippy this morning. Everyone is predicting a cold snowy winter. Of course they have said that every year since we have been here.

My Rousseau Cousin in Salem Oregon lost his wife the week before Labor Day weekend. He is the one who helped me with all the research. It was very sudden + unexpected + he has been having a very difficult time.

Well Mary must close + get ready for work. Have a great vacation. By for now

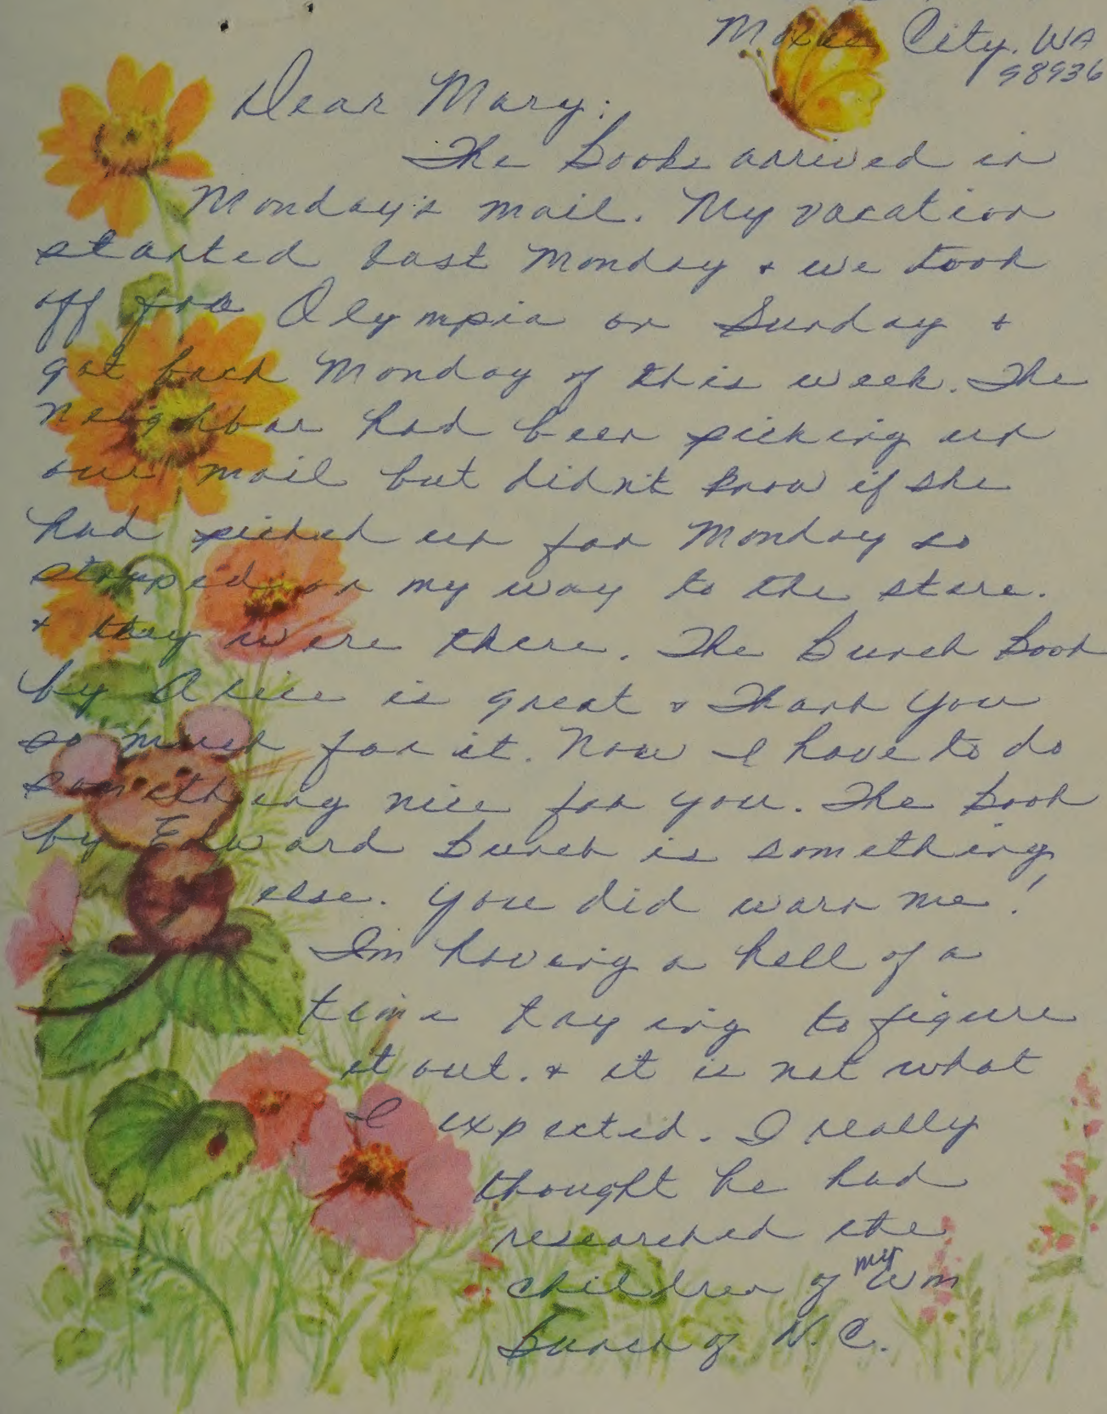
Dear Mary;

The books arrived in Monday's mail. My vacation started last Monday + we took off for Olympia on Sunday + got back Monday of this week. The neighbor had been picking up our mail but didn't know if she had picked up for Monday so stopped on my way to the store. + they were there. The Burch book by Alice is great + thank you so much for it. Now I have to do something nice for you. The book by Edward Burch is something else. You did warn me!

I'm having a hell of a time trying to figure it out. + it is not what I expected. I really thought he had researched the children of my Wm Burch of N.C.



He did a lot of research + traveling and came up with zilch. At least he tried. How come I always descend from the child that no one knows any thing about? Dear Judy (Bunch) McDorman + Susannah (Conner) Rose were cut from the same mold. + ~~Lois~~ not sure I want to claim either one. Will get the book copied as soon as I can + return. It might take me a couple of weeks.

The trip to Olympia was to get something started on the property. in Rochester which I hope will be my last move. We did hire a man to come in + mow it + got all the info from the Courthouse for drilling a well and septic tank. + looked at mobile homes. It I think it might be easier to buy a house over there. This week of our vacation was supposed to be getting the house here ready to put up a For Sale on it! It was 99° yesterday so that should give you an idea of how much we have accomplished. I did clean out the kitchen cupboards + washed the bathroom floor yesterday. It is just too damn hot to do anything. I even put on a pair of shorts yesterday - the second time in 6 years - I don't wear shorts normally.

Today is Kory's birthday 13 years old. We are taking him + 5 of his friends to the park today. dinner tonight + cake + ice cream here. It will probably be the highlight of my vacation as I'm going to sit in a recliner lawn chair + read + watch the kids.

Sorry to hear about your Dad. + glad to hear that he is doing better. I wonder what I will be like at 84 if I make it which I plan to do. Probably will still be trying to find Charles Rosie's daughters. but probably wont remember their names or why Im looking for them!!!

Our week away was hard on our pets. The Gold fish died + our cat disappeared + hasnt returned yet + have the feeling he wont. Really feel bad about him as we have had him for 8 years. He minded better than a dog. didnt meow. really didnt do anything but sleep and eat.

After next week should be able to get to the library for you. Also I think you will do fine as the new Burch Family Historian. You will have it organized in no time. By for now.

Dear Mary:

Am enclosing the land records for Jotham + Charles Rose in Scotland Co. Missouri. Charles Rose bought land in Scotland Co. Mo. Dec 1852 + moved to Appanoose Co. Iowa 1864. Jotham Rose appears on the 1860 Census as does Charles. Apparently Charles moved to Scotland Co right after 1850 but don't know when Jotham arrived. The first land record on the enclosed is from John + Sarah Overturff of Greer Co. Pennsylvania - 1861 - What is the connection? Why would Overturff own land in Scotland Co. Mo? There were Overturffs in Fayette Co. Penn. + Greer Co. PA + some ended up in Ohio!! The parents of Ruth Scudder were Thomas Scudder + Abigail Clark who moved to Fayette Co. Pennsylvania by 1797.

I would like to know who this Christopher Rose was in Scotland Co - If he is the Christopher that died in 1904 then he could be a brother - well maybe not as that would make Ruth Scudder Rose about 46 odd that seems a little old. Maybe no relation at all but it does make me wonder! According to the Tombstone of Charles Rose buried

Concord Com. Appanoose Co. - he was born in Green Co. Pennsylvania + his wife Emaline Hixenbou in Monongalia Co. W. Virginia

While looking through some other info I found the following - Fayette Co. Ohio - James Fent m. ANNA/ANN Rose 30 July 1821 in Fayette - One of their sons was named William CRATON FENT - Another son John S. Fent married Anna Creamer - Note Elizabeth Conner married Simeon Creamer - A Polly Rose married Hamilton Creighton 10 NOV. 1817 in Mason Co. West Virginia + it probably means nothing.

Capt. Jesse Ice Co. - War of 1812 lists HIPKINS Rose Sgt. + Thomas Rose - DRUMMER -

P.S. The Fent info was sent to me by Sherwood !!!

25 August 1982

Dear Verna -

Surprise - don't know which will arrive first - my letter of a couple days ago, or this one. Have a couple of new items, received the day I mailed the other items.

I had asked Ginny Comstock, of DAR, to order the Powell/Rose papers for me to see after you sent the info from Frances, see attached from her index cards. I see not much from the DAR papers to convince me that the Rachel Rose Powell is a sister to Charles or daughter to Ezekiel - some rather interesting things though. Rev. Joseph Powell (Gen. 5) died at Bedford Co. PA. Charles bought his land in Monongalia from the Hunt's of Bedford Co. Also, some of the names, Bishop, David John (his daughter, or a David John's daughter, Catherine John, of Monongalia Co., married one John Lovell on 13 Feb 1806) and the Bowen's all were in the 1810 census of Monongalia. I think I sent you the 1810 and 1820 census of Monongalia and David John, along with several Johns are listed. David John was not in the 1820 - and neither were the Roses? Where have all of these people gone -

If this Rachel is the daughter of Ezekiel, she was apparently married before he made his will or he did not mention her by her married name, since his will was made four years after her marriage, supposedly.

I can't remember if I sent you the marriages from Fleming Co., KY - so am enclosing them "again". Suppose some of the earlier are children of the Johathan Rose of Fleming Co. and suppose many of them could have been his.

Enclosing, also, PA - 1820 - some interesting Rose names.

Must put dishes in the dishwasher - Dick mowed the lawn after work and is, apparently, not going to do his other duties this evening. That is his job! I bought the dishwasher for him and feel really funny about using it, but guess he won't care this time.

Look over all the items sent and send your comments -

Dear Mary:

Just got back from bowling. Stopped at some friends afterwards & had a couple of cups of coffee so Im wide awake. Had a 518 series - 148-159-211-

Copied ~~sim~~ a couple of pictures today. One of my Grandfather Charles Rose and one of Ezekiel's daughters from his second marriage. Maggie Alice Rose.

Tomorrow is Friday thank God! Weather really turned cool today & had some rain. Really beginning to feel like fall.

Will try to dig up some more stuff this weekend. I should send Dick to Olympia more of ten. He's been writing letters like mad.

Must do a few things before I go to bed. Bye for now

Dear Mary:

My Dad passed away Oct. 26 and I flew to Montana for the funeral and that is why you haven't heard from me in a while. I have been expecting it but it was still a shock. He died one day after my mother's death date and their funerals were the same day. I honestly think he was ~~waiting~~ holding on just for that. The funeral was in Great Falls and then he was cremated and my brother, sister and I brought back the ashes and we will have ~~anothe~~ graveside service in Olympia the latter part of this month.

I have been having a heck of a time getting any thing done. Dick finally is on the road to recovery from pneumonia or whatever it was but he was down for 3 weeks. Kelly and her mother-in-law had a tiff and Kelly was already to move back home. They are finally going to get a place of their own. so that should help their situation.

Kory wants a hampster & I cant stand the things. I had my years review at the bank - after 24¢
a whole year. I get a 5% raise The bank ~~p~~ wants everybody put in the "Meets" catogary so that only justifies a 5% raise. Finding myself put in the "Meets" catagory kicked me of more than the raise.
I'm about ready to make a reservation for the "Funny Farm". Should I make for two?

Thanks for all the goodies! I'm glad to find out there were some Dogan descendants as I was beginning to wonder. Old Samuel Dogan's papers were fantastic and really cleared up a lot of my info. I'm just ticked off that the lady was born in 1902 who submitted them. Her daughter joined also but no address.

I haven't had a chance to really look at the Limestone Cemetery records. but copies you can send when you have time are the Cox pages or write them down. I owe you a bundle for xeroxing. I was doing so well with organizing before everything hit the fan and now I dont know where to start again I cant find info on my Howard family and that is beginning to bug me.

With the holidays coming and Dick wanting to get the house fixed up to sell - Im wondering when I will get back to it.

I didnt have the pictures + glad you sent.

Were any of your Mitchems in Kentucky - did they ever go by Mitchum spelling?
Mitchum Cem in Woodford Co.

Also a witch in the family sounds good. I was calling Charles Rosie daughters witches anyway and a few other choice names. Must get the body ready for work. By for now.

Dear Mary:

All your goodies came in Saturday's mail and had a great time reading it at the Bowling Alley. I really think our Charles Rose was the one listed. I dont know why one of our illustrious ancestors didnt write the Rose History! It surely would have saved us a lot of headaches. I wish I could find that query for the man who was researching the Isaac Rose family - I wonder if Chris has anymore info on him (Isaac) other then the info from West Virginians in the Revolution.

The Mulliner info has me puzzled - Maybe Charles was married twice & both named Rebeckah. To bad one of the Charles kids wasnt named Moses! The only other thing I can think of is to write Hunterdon Co. Historical Soc. to see if they have a marriage record for Charles Rose & Rebecka Mulliner.

I'm enclosing the Conner info. & the John Rose info will be coming I need a couple of days off to get my info in some kind of order. Did start filling up the filing cabinet. Saturday.

One thing I forgot to ask you - Did Sherwood ever tell you where Elsie was born? I asked him umpteen times & never did answer. I also asked him if he ever read the 1850 census for Conner in Fayette & Greene Co and he never answered. Have you read the 1850 census for those two Counties? I think he said that James was married twice & note a James Conner did marry 1804 Abigail Penrose Monongalia Co.

I had another letter from the new Rose Cousin in Webster Co Mo. Desc. of my Johns brother James Marion - What a weird family. In my first letter I mentioned that I had been writing to her Great Uncle Lester Hendrickson for the past 3 years. Didnt acknowledge it in the letter at all. Sent her a family sheet on her Grand fathers parents & children but could only fill in a few of the gaps. She writes a very nice letter. Her husband is a Minister - ~~Church of Christ~~ Christian Church Desciples of Christ - Is that one of the off beat ones? The first letter I ever received from her Uncle Lester & his first question was - "what religion are you?" There seems to be a family feud or something going on.

Well had best close. By for now.

Verna

22 August 1982

Dear Verna -

We definitely need to live within driving distance of each other - now that you are retired, you should think about relocating to a more central location in the United States to better accommodate your genealogical travels. Upon looking at a map, I think the Bartlesville area is rather a central location...

This letter will probably be lengthy - so here goes;

Since some of Mom's family moved from both Ohio and Illinois to Kansas in the 1800s, I ordered the following within the past year:

Directory, Kansas Society of the NSDAR - 1980

D. Lane, chapter 46
R. Stites, chapter 19

Mrs. Doris Lane (Mrs. Charles O.) NSDAR #620 978 (page 147)
508 South Stevenson
Olathe, KS 66061
(member, Olathe Chapter, NSDAR)

Mrs. Ruth Ann Stites (Mrs. Alan) NSDAR #586 687 (page 241)
511 East Sherman
Hutchinson, KS 67501
(member, Flores del Sol Chapter, NSDAR, Wichita)

You may already have the DAR papers for Thomas, Sr. - if not, do order them through one of the DAR members - for 3.00 you can usually gain a lot of info from them. It usually lists his children and who they married, etc. I would write to one or both of the above people about their ancestor. They are surely mother/daughter or sisters, but do live a great distance from each other in Kansas, and maybe cousins.

Many Mississippi people, I have heard, went to Arkansas - so, from my 1840 Census Index of Ark -

Randsom Shore	Poinsett Co.	Page 124	Languill Twp.
Alfred Shores	Crawford Co.	Page 096	Mountain Twp.
William D. Shores	Washington Co.	Page 257	West For Twp.

(above census books from Accelerated Indexing - Mr. Jackson does make mistakes!!)

Colorado DAR Member & Ancestor Index - 1981 (I have this book also)

d. Fayette Co. KY - 1795

Mrs. Virginia B. Hamilton Ammons (Mrs. D)
#636302 - Peace Pipe Chapter - Denver

Mary C. Bosworth Hamilton (Mrs. H. H.)
#291462 - Denver Chapter - Denver

I do not know the current Regent (state) of Colorado. For addresses of the above members, you might write to the former state regent and the person from whom I ordered the book:

Mrs. Fredrick O. Jeffries, Jr.
1320 Magnolia St.
Denver, CO 80220

The book states in the preface that the state regent will give anyone who desires, information on the name and address of the local chapter's Registrar who will send the address of any active member or photocopy, for a small fee, that member's papers, for an SASE in all cases! that is exactly how it is stated.

This book is most interesting - its names could almost pass for Monongalia Co. and in fact the Frederick Ice (w. Eleanor) of Ice's Ferry that we are interested in has three deeds in this book. He was 1764 of Hampshire Co.; 1765 of Frederick Co. MD and the following:

Frederick Ice and wife Elanor of Monongahela Co. to Robert Kile of Hampshire Co. lease and release, 187 A. on Patterson Creek; rec.2/19/1791. Witn: Addom Iaac, Heosom Bright; MICHAEL CAIN.

It seems that almost all of the names that we find pertaining to some generation of our Rose family are listed; Blue (57names); Rosseau (several spellings) - John is listed 26 times either witnessing others deeds or buying and selling; Boyce (8) Connor/Conner (8). It also sounds like the index of names from the Early Settlers of Trenton and Ewing, Old Hunterdon County. I was amazed at how many names listed are so alike in both counties. I am almost beginning to believe that Hunterdon Co., NJ literally "moved" to OH, VA, MD and PA after the Revolution. From some of the early records in Hampshire Co., which date back to the 1760's, I suppose some of these people could have gone from VA to NJ, and then their descendants back to VA.

I am probably repeating myself with the following information - I really need to make copies of what I send and say, but don't, so bear with me if I've said this before -

Finally made contact with family members of the Mrs. C. C. VanScoy, who wrote to the Archives in 1930 from Clarksburg, W.VA, inquiring about Charles Rose and Archibald Finley. I ordered a Clarksburg telephone book and looked until I found someone who lived near her former address at 428 Homer Ave. - found a Mr. Ralph Pedersen at 429, so bravely, called him. He was absolutely delightful, a young sounding architect, who has just finished the new Clarksburg-Harrison Library and loved my search and the approach to finding Mrs. VanScoy. He restores old homes and is very interested in history. He gave me the name of an elderly neighbor who he said, "had lived on the block forever". I called Mrs. Virginia Hartsock of 447 Homor - she gave me the name of a sister of Mrs. VanScoy who I also called - Orma McKinley VanScoy(Mrs. Cecil C.) died in about 1978/79 without issue and none of the following family members listed have any idea who Charles Rose is nor were even knowledgeable that she was doing genealogical research, so have no idea where her papers went to and think they were probably destroyed when she died. They do know the Archibald Finley (RW-PA) - their mother was a Finley.

Parents: ? McKinley
? Finley

Issue: 9 children (three living)

Mrs. C. C. VanScoy (Orma McKinley) deceased

Mrs. O. M. Hurley (sister of Mrs. C. C. VanScoy)
451 S. Chestnut -she knew nothing about the families
Clarksburg, W.VA

Mrs. Ouita Hutton (Luther) (sister of Mrs. C. C. VanScoy)
215 28th St. - it was suggested that I not contact her by both Dunbar, W.VA brother and sister I talked to, saying she would have no information -maybe her health is bad??

Senator Henry McKinley (brother of Mrs. C. C. VanScoy)
320 Center Street -former state senator of W.VA. and very interesting.
Elkins, W.VA He had never heard the name Rose in their family, but ask me to copy anything his sister had done that I came across. He wondered if the Rose connection was with the VanScoy family so gave me the following name of a VanScoy

Mrs. A. C. Poling
464 Central
Elkins, W.VA -her mother and Cecil C. VanScoy were brother and sister - not only has she never heard the name Rose in connection with the VanScoy family, but did not seem to appreciate my call. When I told her that Senator Henry had given me her name, she warmed up a bit, but still was definitely non-interested.

I am trying to obtain the letter Mrs. Van Scoy wrote to the National Archives in 1930, in which she asked about the RW service for both men. I have only their reply to her. Maybe she will state in her letter that she is inquiring about the service of her 2nd great grandfathers or such. There was a Thomas McKinly on the 1810 census of Monongalia Co. who was in the same age bracket as Charles Rose, 45 & up. Thomas McKinly also does not appear on the 1820 census of Monongalia Co, same as the family of Charles. If I were to bet which side of their family has a Rose connection - I would go with the McKinley's. There are both Finleys and McKinleys in Fayette Co. PA. in the 1850's. There were also, Finleys quite early in Fayette Co. Ohio (Methodist ministers and a Col. James Finley, War of 1812). Do we ever come across either name in the Rose family?

The only thing I know about Archibald Finley (Findley) is:

born	ca 1749
died	1809-Armstrong Twp - Indiana Co. PA
married	Mary Peden (on 9 Nov 1779 at Marsh Creek Settlement)

By the way, the Mr. Pedersen, architect, said if we ever need any questions about genealogy answered for Harrison County, a Mary Rickus at the library (reference dept) is very good. He volunteered the information, because I did not ask for anyone. She has apparently helped him with items and of course, he knows her from his work on the building of the new library.

P.S. Check the Carr marriages for Monongalia C.

Dear Mary:

My! you have been a busy lady! Thanks for all the Shores info Old Thomas Shores Sr. has a lot of desc. but none I have written to ever heard of Reuben Shores of N.C. Maybe one of the lady's addresses you sent will have some info. Have a favor to ask. How do I get DAR papers on Jeremiah Dogan + Lovell H. Dogan? I will send you the money or if you can check the register to find out who has joined on them. Would like to have papers though! No, you didn't tell me that you had made contact with Mrs. C. C. Van Scoy's family. They sound delightful!!! and apparently dont know much about their ancestors. There are a couple of possibilities to persue (sp) ~~[illegible]~~. Does old Senator Henry know the first names of his parents and when they died + his Grandparents names? Maybe we could get a death certificate on the parents + ~~[illegible]~~ that list who their parents were. It might be worthwhile to get an obit + death-cert. on Mrs. C. C. Van Scoy and husband. Also to find out if Mrs. C. C. Van Scoy was the one and only wife. There has to be a Rose connection in that family somewhere. I wonder if the Harrison County Library has any indexed marriage records. Those daughters of Charles had to marry somewhere. Has anyone ever checked Preston Co. W. Va. for Rose marriages?

Did you say you had ordered the Monongalia Co. Marriage Record Book? ~~Whats the~~ If you have it, check for the name Rsp - Ropp - Rop - In the old handwriting they used what looks like a or f or p for s. I noticed in the land sale of Joseph Hunt to Charles Rose, they spelled his name Charleys Rops - + used the goofy s. Normally it was used for the double s. This is why on the 1777 roster of John Phillips Co. Amwell Twp. it looks like Jonathan Ropp - his name is either Ross or Rose. After 1800 you don't find the goofy s as much.

It does look like John Evans/Ewing not only wrote the land sale to the Coins, he also signed their names.

I dont know what to think about Rachel Rose Powell. Francis says they were married in Hunterdon Co. but according to DAR Papers. Rev. Joseph Powell was born in Northhampton Co. PA. and died in Bedford Co. PA. Would he go to Hunterdon Co and marry??? Rather odd the DAR member, ~~ke~~ knew when she died + married but not where?!! I know why a lot of people only research the male side.

School started yesterday. + Dick celebrated by sleeping in. Kory was anxious to go. + was ready to leave by 8:00.

My house is a real pit. I started on Kory's room Saturday + had stuff scattered all over and got a call. from a friend who was up at the local store that ~~came~~ wanted to see us. She spent Saturday and Sunday with us. and left yesterday morning. I started on the bathroom last night. At the moment my new kitchen decor is two boxes of tomatoes, sack of cukes, box of apples all sitting on the kitchen floor. It looks great.! Well must close + get the bathroom finished. Bye for now

Dear Verna,

Received your letters. And thanks for the phone call. Is there any way you can move here? I currently have 3,000 questions I would like to ask. Mostly Rose -

Now to Mercer Co., PA and John Rose, b 1782 in that county. Mercer Co. was not formed until 1800. Mercer Co., NJ - formed 1838. Mercer Co., VA - formed 1837. Mercer Co., OH - formed 1820 (dear God from Darke). Mercer Co., KY - formed 1786. The only Mercer County in 1782 that is in a state where we have placed this family is KY - not a likely place. Mercer Co., PA was probably Allegheny Co in 1782. Have looked for an Indian River in that area and one not found. I still almost see John Rose from his biography as two separate people. Why did he name some of his children of his second marriage in his will and not name others? He named, per information from Chris:

		NOT NAMED
Matilda
Mary Ann	b. 1834	Amos	b. 1841
Rachel	b. 1836	Theodocia	b. 1845 ?
Mariah	b. 1849	Nancy	b. 1845 ?
Lucinda
Prudence Pickins
Rebecca Boyce
Charles W. (oldest)
Enos
John

Why name Mariah born in 1849 and not name three children born before her? I do not care what the person who did the research for this John Rose says - the children for the John and his wives does not fit. I cannot see the problem, but believe there certainly is one. Either the will is wrong, the wives are wrong or the children do not all belong to him. Why were these children of the second marriage of John Rose, heir of Charles and Rebecca, not listed in the Monongalia Co. VA court suit against Charles Rose, son of Charles? They were as legal an heir as the children of the first marriage. I think court records in Meigs and Athens Cos in Ohio might reveal further info concerning this suit of John Rose vs Charles Rose. It was probably filed in one of those counties. Very unlikely that John ever went to VA concerning the suit. The VA court records appear to indicate that the attorney knew little about the group. I've some records like this filed in Arkansas for settlement of an estate in Tennessee. I do not think the Nunneleys left AK after arriving. The court suits were filed in Arkansas and "recorded" in Tennessee. The one thing that does bother me - why did all of the Roses (Thomas and family, Charles and family) all disappear after the 1850 census in Monongalia County, VA. Did John win? The suit was 1854, and 1860 reveals none of Charles' family, at least in Monongalia, until the supposed son of John appears on the 1880 census, the Thomas Rose of Marion County (formed from Monongalia and Harrison in 1842). I can't handle this foolishness. Let's drop John Rose of the Indian fame and his crazy son John. Send me some more funny questions like the Mercer Co. PA thing - I may take up knitting.

Sending some interesting New Jersey county information. Seems Tormet's three probably all lived in the same area until divisions of counties and townships. Do agree, we should try to follow some of the kids of Ezekiel's brothers. They probably followed our Charles to PA or VA. Probably not much going on in NJ after the Revolution and greener pastures were to the South. Charles had no land and only money, so NJ was certainly not the place to spend it. Gobs of the New Jersey RW people had begun to go South/West. I, some time ago started to try to trace some of the RW soldiers that were on the lists from the NJ Archives in the same company that Charles served from. Some were OHIO and various places. It seemed a waste of time. A waste, that is, unless I wanted to write a book about the company. Didn't think it would be a best seller, so stopped.

I agree, the census records for John and his wives are a "did not fit" thing. Also, Susannah, wife #2 is the same age as Charles W., oldest son of ~~Charles W.~~ John. See 1850 census.

Sending some other information pertaining to Jacob Quick II and his wife, Jane (this is probably really the Jean Quick mentioned in the will of Ezekiel) and his wife #2 , Jerusha. I wonder if the Quick Genealogy is in error when they name his first wife as Jane (is it Jean). The researcher, Roxanne Carkhuff, of NJ said that Jacob Quick II, married two daughters of Ezekiel Rose. Her husband is a descendant of this Quick family. See Keti Quick married Gabriel Carkuff (she the daughter of Jacob, Sen.) and a brother of Jacob, II who married the Rose girls.

Also, sending the Doctor Lewellen stuff. He did have a son Benjamin. Wish it had listed who Benjamin married. Probably the Rachel, age 55, born NJ, on the 1850 census of Monongalia County who lived four doors or families from Charles Rose and his family. Again the Nunneley hunch. This is Rachel Rose, dau of Charles and Rebecca? Doctor Lewellen was one of the executors of the estate of Charles Rose in 1816. Also, Rachel and Benjamin Lewellin had children, Charles, age 26 and Rebecca, age 20, plus others. Think this one over.

Have used the research material from Chris and Seymour Rose's trip to NJ in 1983 and have updated some of the children of Ezekiel^4, Ezekiel^3, John^2, Tormet^1. I do not know if Chris has updated the report to include the material as yet, but it will prove some of the children of Ezekiel^4 and their marriages. I do not have it in a good copy form as yet, but will get it to you when it is finished. Doesn't add to our Charles, but follows some of the group.

Haven't written to Gill Brooks as yet. I do not know what to say. I, also, suspect that Rebecca is the daughter of Charles and Rebecca (Rebecca who married Jacob Franks and lived in Monongalia). No, Rebecca and Jacob did not live all of their lives in Fayette Co., PA. Some of their kids were married in Monongalia Co., and they appear to be on the 1850 census of Monongalia (do not have the film, but plan to order it). Surely it needs to be re-read for things I missed when I "rented" it so long ago. The doctor business she mentioned also, fits a doctor Rose somebody (Edward ??) who lived in Fayette Co. PA. It also, fits Thomas, son of Charles and Rebecca and John, the Indian resident, son of Charles and Rebecca, who knew medicine. I've copied a few things for Gill, but nothing fits except the names. Wish I knew who all of the Rebeccas in Greene, Fayette and ETC - married. This Rebecca who married Jacob Franks could belong to someone else.

You are so right. It certainly appears that many of the Rose family members lived in sin. I am most proud to be able to state that my Rose ancestor was legal, having been married in Monongalia County in 1813. I do not expect Elsie to answer for her brothers and sisters. (It must have been so hard for her to know that most of her family never married legally (or at least no one has found the records). Does this make us orphans? I really always wonder why these Roses always bought so much land, always recorded, and never bothered to leave good marriage records. Sort of wish they had been Quakers rather than lovers and fighters.

I agree, wish we could spend some time in Monongalia and surrounding - it is there, but it takes the "family involved" touch to dig it out. I've only hired two researchers. One in NJ and one in KY. Both were good, but could not have the same feeling that I have. It was certainly worth the money, but did not have the feeling for the "hunches". Hunches do not count in genealogy - some of mine have paid off. It takes a lot of time, but save them and keep looking. Rebecca Rose Franks and Rachel Lewellin - hunches. They are just too close not to keep in mind.

Better go - I appreciate your thoughts and continual harassment. You do know, someday, we will probably solve this entire mystery concerning the Charles Rose family. I really have all of the information, but will not share it - Come to see me and you can find just what you have been searching for. If Fred T. Foster from San Diego can fly from there to here to use the Bunch records I have, sure you can arrange to visit a dear and sweet almost cousin, a few times removed. Still a bit curious about his long and expensive trip to view these records. Mr. Foster assures me he can copy (by hand) the information he needs. I got the rather nominal rental information for a copy machine (which I do not have). He, in his last letter, said he could hand copy or take out to copy. He doesn't know my records - they do not go out for copy.

Did get the Rose trip 83 together, so including it.
Some are guesses, but good info.

Love Mary

Dear Verna,

Thanks for the use of "Lost and Found". It is a really slick query publication. I was a bit interested in the query by your cousin, Mrs. R. P. Beatty, of Hartselle, AL concering the John and Sarah (Trader) Conner parents of Susannah who married Hopkins Rose. She must have been writing to Cousin Sherwood Conner. This is his story about James Conner who married Elsie Rose. What are her proofs? Sherwood apparently has none. I have always wondered if Susannah and James were brother and sister, guess they know something we don't.

I am sending alorg some of the 1850 Rose census material. You said you did not have it, so am sure all the questions we have, you will be able to find when you read same. I just re-read the last sentence - what does it mean??

When reading the 1860 Fayette County, PA census, I came across the most wonderful family and must share it (they are probably some of the Rose crazies) -

Ruben Love	30	m
Catherine Love	30	f
Monongahalia Love	12	f
Alleghaney Love	12	f
Silvester Love	6	m
Emely Love	4	f
Margaret Love	2	f

We have always wondered why Freelove Rose hid from the world - I would bet that anyone looking for Monongahalia Love and Alleghaney Love, the Love,ly twin girls are pulling their hair. Surely they did not live their lives out with those names.

Fred T. Foster, the San Diego person, who wanted to use the Bunch records, has come and gone. He found nothing, which I tried to tell him was a probability, but he seemed to enjoy going through all of the material. He was a nice person, retired Navy and school administrator. Looked 60 or so, and spends his retirement time flying around the states and England to do research. He and his wife bought the TWA (I think) $1,000 travel pass and can go anywhere for a year. He told us they had put TWA in the hole on their research travels. A very nice man. He told Dick he could not believe what a neat room I had set up for my genealogy. Little does the man know, it looks wonderful, but I can't find a thing I need.

Have been reading the microfilm I bought. The Jacob Franks who married Rebecca Rose is in Monongalia Co. in 1850 in the same district (36th) as Charles Rose. By 1860, they and some of their married children are in Fayette Co., PA, but none of the Charles Rose family shows up in Fayette. On the 1850, the Benjamin Lewellin with a wife, Rachel, age 55 born NJ, lives four families from Charles Rose. The entire group is missing in 1860 from Fayette and Monongalia. They are not in Preston Co. in 1860 (sorry I bought that roll). No Ross, with a wife Mary (the will of Charles Rose said, my daughter Mary Ross) in either county. Tulsa Library has just gotten the 1860 census for Virginia. I might try, as time allows, reading all of the counties that became W VA by 1870. Wish there was a census index for 1860. I really think it interesting that the Roses, Ross and Lewellin family, ALL, leave the county between 1850-60. Wonder if the Civil War brought about the removal of families to North or South areas we can't think about?? They certainly left between 1854 (court records) and the 1860 census. The actual dates for the Civil War were 1861-65, but sure many conflicts began about census time. Were they Northern or Southern??

I think you should spend your vacation doing some really serious thinking and research on this group. Review all of your files and write me a complete report on your findings.

Love Mary

P.S. Will send microfilm reading when I finish.

Dear Mary:

I'm enclosing a copy of the new Johnson journal publication. It sounds rather interesting.

Really had a lazy weekend! We had our Granddaughter Jessa for the week end. You don't get much done with a busy 4 year old around. even though she was really good to take care off

I messed around with my genealogy. Added more books to the buffet + table. + did write a couple of letters.

The gal here that is researching the Burch family - I discovered we had another couple allied families Trotts + Dents from Maryland.

who went to Rowan Co.
Trott m. a Dent + ~~the~~ one of the Dent children married into my Heathman family.
I had a copy of the will of James Trott + that is the one she is researching but she didn't know about the will or that there ~~was~~ ever was ~~was~~. one! Aren't I nice. I probably have the missing links to a lot of peoples families - I have more misc. info than I know what to do with.

I did join the Guilford Co. NC society last week and also that Lost + Found publication - queries only that some gal is doing out of Boise Idaho. I decided that ~~Im~~ going to join a Soc. or buy a book once a month +

and Guilford Co. has a [illegible] that I want.

Also while I think of it. Would your library be ~~inter~~ interested in Obituary notices from our paper. We have a lot of people from ~~Oklahoma~~ here that originated from Oklahoma. I also have some more of Spokane Gen. Soc. bulletin to send to you.

Well had best close & go watch the Sunday night movie and eat my following dessert. Chocolate pudding, cream cheese, powdered sugar, cool whip & nuts. Really tasty. By for now.

Dear Mary:

A day off - However -
Got up cleaned house - washed clothes and then went down to the Gen. Soc. for 2 hours didnt find a thing. They do have a lot of new books and didnt get a chance to go through all of them. Mainly looked at all the queries in the new publications.

Enjoyed our chat on the phone as usual but wished you lived closer. ~~In~~ enclosing the (copy) chart of the lady we talked about.

Finally saw the sun today. Glad to know it is still up there! We still have our fog.

Also enclosing a picture of your Rose cousin in Alabama - Their house surely looks neat.

Well had best close as I plan to answer a few more letters from July! By for now

Dear Mary:

I'm enclosing family sheets on Ezekiel Rose 1st marriage and children - my Great Grandfather John Hopkins Rose and his two sons Charles & Sylvester. plus some misc. info.

First Ezekiels family sheet - I do not know where his daughter Eleanor Jane was 1860-1870-1880. She apparently had the same disappearing ~~th~~ talent her ~~Ma~~ Grandmother Susannah had. As you can see she was 42 when she married in Cass Co. Mo. I'm pretty sure Margaret, Susan, & Wm Rose living with other families 1860 Greene Co. are his children. but no further record of them. James McDarmon was a brother to Rebecca (McDarmon) Rose.

John Hopkins Rose - After marriage he moved to Selma, Clark Co. Ohio where Sylvester was born. I'm not sure why the difference in names - Marion S. & Sylvester Ralph. Have not read 1870 Van Wert Co. Ohio census to see what name was used. Marion is a McDarmon name. Sylvester's Granddaughter Margaret Julian lives in Warsaw, Ind. and she had never heard the name Marion. Of course they thought Sylvester was b. in 1860 and was almost 100 years old when he died 1959!!! I don't think birthdates were their first priority back in those days. Just surviving and living beyond 40 was a major accomplishment. I met Margaret Julian this summer and she is a lovely lady. From Clark Co. they moved to Van Wert Co. Cyrus Little lived there - he married them and was a relative to Melcenia and then they moved to Allen Co. Monroeville by 1880. I'm not sure about the girls Ella or Mary & twins as far as the dates go. This info was from John H. Rose's Civil War pension application and he was a little hazy as to dates and names.

Charles Edward Rose's family sheet. He was a happy Wanderer also - Always greener pastures somewhere. I didn't know either one of them. My mother said Grandpa Charles was a real sweetheart and liked by everybody but my Grandmother Ruth was a witch with a Capital "B." My older brothers and sisters say the same thing. She liked her son Edward and her daughter Lella - Lella is the mystery of the family - she was not Charles daughter. The story is like a soap opera. Supposedly Ruth had an affair with a married man and became p.g. & kept the baby Lella. Supposedly she did not tell Lella that Charles was not her father until she was on her death bed & Lella did not tell her children until she was on her death bed. If anyone knows who her father was, they aren't telling!

Dad's sister Charlotte is still living and she knows a lot & I was one of her favorites until I started doing this. I asked her and her comment to me was "let sleeping dogs lay". She isn't all bad as she sent me a picture of my Great Grandmother Carolyn E. (Houseman) Rousseau, Ruth's mother, and it is the only one in captivity. I must admire Ruth for keeping the baby as that was a real no-no back in those days. Although I think it happened a lot more than we think as they were human then also. I have a theory that Sylvester Rose may have been the father. Lella's children should not look like the Rose family right? Wrong - they look like the desc. of James Marion Rose's kids. One of these days I'm going to ask Margaret Julian. I'm sure my mother knew as she knew everything about her family and my Dads. I had always planned to ask her as she was interested in genealogy when I was kid but was killed in a car wreck in 1967. I really started my genealogy from scratch. I knew my grandparents names on both sides and that was it. A lot of my family think I'm nuts.

What kind of typewriter do you have? I ordered a Smith Corona electric portable - self correcting - ribbon not cartridge and I'm not sure I like the type and thinking about sending it back. I probably will only buy one and want a good one.

Today I have to give a talk on the Civil War to Kary's 4 th grade and throw in a little genealogy. I have a letter written by a Rousseau relative ~~who was~~ while he was a Confed. prisoner at Anderson Island in Ohio during the Civil War. + also a diary written during the War. I think I told you about it. Wish me luck. I hope I can keep their attention + not bore them to death.

Well had best close and go play housewife for a while as it is my day to work at the Gen. Soc. library also and we bowl tonight. Sorry about the wadded up letter. By for now

Verna.

Dear Mary:

Happy Valentines Day to you + to all of Charles Rose's desc. wherever they may be! Thank you for sending the "Ansearchin". I found quite a few goodies plus a Reuben Shores in the Shelby Co. Survey Book in 1811. I really think my Shores are related to Charles Rose and his kids. They did the same disappearing act.

I found the Franke info very interesting. Why didnt they marry into the Conner family too! Have you written to Chris to see if she has anyone researching a Rose who married a Franke? Also noted in the Ansearchin in White Co. 1860 Tenn. Families there was a Wm. Franke 45 Va Stonemason - Mary 38 b. Ohio James 21. Henry 18 Farm Laborers, Charles 10 Harriet 7, Albert 3" Tenn. Erastus 1. Just thought I would throw that in!!! If good old Jacob Franke didnt die until 1875, he has to be on a census somewhere + hopefully Rebecca didnt die until after 1850. I suppose there are umpteen Jacob Franke listed 1850 for Tenn., Ohio, W. Va. + the other 47 states. I just love these ~~books~~ kind of family histories - lots of names + dates but no places!!! They do frustrate me. If they know when he was born + when he died, they surely know the where?

So far work wise this week it
I stayed home or has been easy. Kary was sick Monday - Tonsilitus worked yesterday Tuesday. Dad was home with flu bug. Today is my normal Wed. off. I think people are burying their money in the back yard as we surely haven't been busy. Last week the first of the month, we were out by 5:15 - 5:30.
Unheard of. I finally got something good from the bank. They got rid of a bunch of office equipment. Typewriter adding machine etc.
They are holding on to the IBM Selectrics but have my name in for one if they ever get rid of them.
I did get an Electric Underwood wide carriage standard for $15.00. Don't know where you can buy one for that price. Also an adding machine - desk type with print out for $10.00. I hate those dumb calculators. Never know if I have put in the correct figures. I like a tape.

Our weather has finally turned a little better. Saw the sun last Friday.
It has been foggy + dreary. Even had some rain.
Monday. Kellye's girlfriend + her baby are coming this weekend from the Coast. + spending it with us. I will probably babysit. but plan to get some letters written. Had a reply yesterday from a letter I wrote when stamps were still 15¢. It was to a lady who knew quite a bit about Overton Co. She sent me some Johnson info. She has a Johnson family in Overton. Co also.
I gather from her letter that the best way to research in Overton is to go yourself or hire a professional.

I did something rather terrific in league Bowling last night. I picked up the 7-10 Split - the impossible one. Last Tuesday had a 604 series with a 249.

Back again - straightened up the house, made beds, stew in the crock pot, washed my hair and took a bath. Also plan to make some chocolate chip cookies. Hell of a day off isnt it? After Kory gets home from school take him in for a haircut & to the bowling alley for some coaching if he feels up to it. He said he felt good this morning & that his throat hardly hurt. He is on sp! pennicillin

Well had best go get the cookies made & write a few letters while they are baking. By for now.

Love
Verna.

P.S. Took the garbage out, my daffodils & Tulips are up. They weren't last week Spring must be coming. Also checked the Surname Books I have for Franks & didnt find anyone researching. Also havent heard from the John Rose desc. in Ohio either & sent her a bunch of stuff.

Dear Mary:

Two letters in one week - Can you stand it? This lady has been organizing for the last three days - I finally cleared off my desk - now I have the card table to clear off + one chair!!!

I'm enclosing some misc. info that I'm sure you already have. After looking through my Conner info + trying to make family sheets on James Elij Conner, I find I only have sheets on James Conner Sr. + your John Conner. with a lot of blank spots on both sheets - Am I correct in assuming there is no more info on James + John children?. If Sherwood sent me his family sheet on James K. Conner + desc. - I surely haven't found it yet. I know when I found out about Sherwood + called him - + asked him how much it would cost to photo copy his info he quoted $200.00 plus dollars. - I don't think I have a $1.00 worth!!! The brain has been working in high gear the last few days. so here goes. In rereading one of Sherwood's letters - I asked him if he had ever researched Elizabeth Conner who married Simeon Creamer. in Fayette Co. 4-24-1823-

His comment was that he had not tried for any info on her - How in "H" does he research - He also tells me there is a George Conner Inv. 9-6-1837 Fayette Co Wills - J. Dunbar guardian of Mary + Wm. Conner children of deceased George Conner vs Thomas Conner. Quote from Sherwood - "I have a Thomas Conner line but have not tied it to us yet": What Thomas Conner line is he talking about? Note: James + Elsie named a child George + a daughter Elizabeth - + we have this lovely elderly lady in Fayette Co. named Sarah Conner that no one can fit in - There has got to be a connection

Now for the Fert family - James + Ann (Rose) Fert children married into the Creamer family + if I understand Sherwoods writing - James Ferts mother was Catherine Larrett - James + Elsie's daughter Sarah m. Elias Larrett - First daughter named Sarah!!! + then we have this elusive Elizabeth Conner who married Simeon Creamer. Just one big happy family Check your Fayette Co. History Book for the name Simeon Creamer + Fert + please copy for me. - Sherwood just sent me bits + pieces.

Also since we are two extremely intelligent women - why haven't we sent for - skip that - There was a John Conner who served in the War of 1812 from Preston Co W. Va - I was thinking that it might be Susannahs father but he would have been to old I think - I had better get the brain out of high gear! I think your Cousin Sherwood is wrong about the parents of ~~John~~ James. Well if he means John Conner S/o John Sr. I will buy it. Well so much for organization - I can't even find my note on the Sarah Conner of Fayette Co - Send me info - I know I have it - probably filed under Smith or Jones!

I'm including some info on what is supposedly my Burch family - You said your husband's Burch family was Va + then to Tenn. + Va. is apparently where they originated from.

Also noted one of your Lovejoys married a Funk - Boyd Funk in Ohio was the one researching Rachel Rose of Hunterdon C. New Jersey - I wonder how many family researchers end up at the Funny Farm. - I think I'm ready! One more tid bit I don't the Sarah Conner in Fayette Co is the the same Sarah who was wife of James Conner who died 1802 Monongalia Co. Why would that lovely lady move to Fayette without her children - None of these stray Conners names in Fayette match hers in Monongalia. I think Susannah (Conner) Rose come by her elusiveness naturally.

Don't be surprised if you get some other "choice" tid-bit in the mail that mean absolutely nothing - Also has Sherwood sent all Conner marriages from Fayette to you?

By for now
Love

P.S. Have patience with me & my ramblings. I will get something right one of these days.

Dear Mary:

Three letters in one week - + nothing really exciting in any of them. I've been working on the Conner notebook the last two days and now have it pretty well organized!!! In going through all the bits + pieces of paper I found another Conner marriage in Fayette Co + I can't place her with anyone either!

JOHN LONDEES J.P.
Jan. 5, 1840 John Hill + Margaret Conner -

I just love the name Margaret since Susannah Rose named her only daughter Margaret. I thoroughly expect you to tell me in your letter who George, Elizabeth, Sarah + Margaret belong to. + no excuses!

I also noted on Susannah's Bounty Land Claim that James Connor + Adam Harness wrote affidavits for her. Adam Harness was one of the names listed in the 3rd School District. Adam was probably her lover + she was going to share her Bounty Land Grant with him! C. S. Smith from Greenville Darke Co. Ohio also wrote regarding her claim. Maybe she promised to share with both of them + they did her in! (over)

Now another little tid bit for you
~~On~~ the 1850 census for Darke Co. Ohio
Brown Twp there is a Solomon Rose listed. age 40 b. Penn. b. ca 1810 wife Eliza 37 b. Ohio.
Children all born Ohio
1. Calvin 17; Lidia 16; Druscilla, 10; William
4 Ohio & Samuel 1 Ohio.
In the Charles Rose report - p 14 -
Charles Rose wife Jane -
Children - Wm, Rebecca, Joseph, James H., Samuel, Emily E., Mary E. & Calvin
Wm. & Samuel are pretty common names but Calvin! Just food for thought.

The page enclosed is misc. Conner of info that I didn't know if you had. I would guess John Conner with 4 in household is the one we want & he had two children by then - but James & Susannah were born after 1782!

Must close and get back to Organizing. Bye for now

Dear Mary: whichever you prefer + dont send back

I'm sitting here eating Jelly Beans. Since our President eats them and makes such fantastic decisions, I thought they might help me in getting ideas about our illustrious Rose family. All they do is stick to my teeth!

You should see my table - I have Rose info scattered all over. + can't find half the stuff I'm looking for. After talking to you last night. I ~~dreamt~~ had dreams about our Roses - more like night mares.

I'm enclosing the Charles Jotham + Christopher Rose info from Scotland Co. Mo. Charles is definitely the S/o Thomas Rose + Ruth Scudder who were living in Monongalia Co. W. Va. in 1850 This info per Charles Rose's death certificate. I think Jotham is a son also - see Jotham name in Scudder family. I thought Christopher was a son also and possibly is if birthdate is 1829 rather than 1820.

I have Jothams will & will send a copy to you. Charles Rose first purchase
JOTHAM ON 1860 CENSUS of land was in 1852, Jotham in 1862 & Christopher 1866. Thomas apparently didnt make it to Scotland Co. but he didnt die in Monongalia
Co. either. Jotham should appear on an 1850 census in Penn. or Va. but have never found him in either census. index. From one Chris's notes - On land bounty application he signed with an X - (really literate for a Doctor). but there is another note in his bounty land file & he signed his 1850 name! I have the census for Thomas Rose in Harrison Co. W. Virginia. & he surely didnt keep with the family names. In 1830 there is a Thomas Rose in Frederick Co. Va.
Where is he in 1840??? Both Jotham & Charles were born in Penn. Charles in Greene. Maybe Greene Co is where some of the answers lie, lay or whatever.

Im also enclosing the ancestor chart of desc. of John Rose & Rebeka Bower.
He lived Harrison Co. W. Va. owned land in Monongalia Co. W. Va lived in Fayette Co. Penn.

and later in Wolfe Co. Kentucky. I wrote to Cecil Dale Anderson today. Arent you proud of me?

I found the following notes.

Capt. Jesse Lee Co. War of 1812 lists
Hopkins Rose Sgt.
Thomas Rose Drummer

Quarry Run Powder Mill. built before 1800 & operated for several years by Charles Rose.

Dick left for Olympia today to check the job situation over there. I hope he finds something so I can quit work even if we have to move. I was also blessed with 2 boxes of peaches today. They are the size of soft balls. Should be ready to can by Friday - Oh Joy! By for now

Dear Mary:

I went to bed last night at 8:00 nd woke up at 2:30 am so here I am at the kitchen table, with a pot of coffee. A friend from Oroville came Tuesday ight. She is a Past Mistress and had a eeting here in Yakima yesterday. After I dropped her off, I decided to stop t the Mall - just to look around for Christmas presents and to get ideas - fter looking around, I'm going to have to redo my Christmas list -. I then went Grocery Shopping - Well between the two, I came home beat.

I'm enclosing the Conner Bible Record, my ancestor charts, and Conner info from Silvercreek Cem. Jamestown Grape Grove Cem. - both Greene Co. Ohio. I didn't know if you had this or not. Loved talking to you on the phone and wish you lived next door! I'm enclosing a picture of the clan taken Dec. 1979. Can't ut my hands on the one taken in June this year. ~~Our~~ ~~she~~ It isn't a good picture of our daughter Kelly. She is a lot prettier than the picture - typical mother talking. I'm hoping for a family picture at Thanksgiving or Christmas. My husband is the one that is Camera shy.

I think I told you I'm 5'5 3/4" 137 lbs, Grey hair and green eyes. Out of 7 kids. I'm the only one. ~~so~~ Other hobbies are collecting antique crockery pitchers, and reading - I like to cook + bake but housework is at the bottom. I'm in a ~~pep~~ perpetual state of clutter most of the time. I hate to throw anything away. Every now and then I get a Mrs. Clean streak. When we moved here 3 years ago, we didn't have much choice of housing so have a plain jane 3 bedroom. We started remodeling the garage in July. Turning it into a small family room and increasing the dining area. We are at the paneling and painting stage. One corner is supposed to be all mine with a built-in desk + shelves. I've been trying to organize all my info for the past 3 months. After 6 years, you can imagine what I have.

I think I told you that the Yakima Valley is known for its fruit and vegetables - mainly the Red + Golden Delicious apples. plus peaches, apricots, pears + cherries + nectarines + any kind of vegetable you want. Our area ~~grows~~ has more hops than orchards. We are 7 miles from Yakima - pop. about 55.000. Moxee City proper about 500. We can see Mt St Helens when she blows from our front yard. about 60 miles away as the crow flies. The big blow was on Dick's birthday. We still have lots of ash. One Volcano eruption in ones life is enough!

We have had gorgeous weather the past week - in the 60's. Frosty nights though. 29° yesterday morning.

Well had best close and get a few more letters written.

By for now

Verna.

Dear Mary:

My first letter in 1983 to my favorite Cousin. I'm a week late on mailing the Armenian publications back to you but they will be mailed today.

We had a nice Christmas but this lady was exhausted by the time it came. I was in bed at 7:30 Christmas night. I had Kelly's in-laws out for dinner. The father is really nice but the mother is something else. All I can say is that I tried - + it wore me out. We couldn't converse or anything as she has no interests.

I also started my new job the Monday after Christmas and think I'm going to like it. I was sure I was going to hate it. I would really prefer not to work t all. I find that I'm losing touch with my genealogy and esearch and don't like that all. I haven't touched anything since before the middle of October.

I ordered the Wilkes NC Co. Heritage Book. My Christmas present to myself. I was really isappointed that none of my ilkes families were in it. It is lovely book. though. There was brief article on the Rousseaus ut the Rousseau desc. who wrote t screwed it all up. he lived in Wilkes ll her life! What eally cracked me up as the Black Rousseaus were ight next to the article. Pictures ste, and a lovely write up. I would like to write to her just to find out what Rousseau family they took their name from.

We have 5" of snow on the ground. but it is supposed to rain this afternoon. We have had artic temps for the past two weeks. These old bones just don't like the cold.

Dick has just about given up on finding work. He makes a lovely House Spouse & told him I could rent him out. Cleans house, dusts, cooks washes clothes. Doesn't do windows though! That might be pressing my luck. Also takes me to work in bad weather.

Well Mary had best get the rear in gear & get ready for work. Love

Dear Mary:

I have been fighting the flu or something for two weeks now. I feel pretty good for a couple of days then I get the chills. The cough is the worst part. One of those dry hacky kind that keep you up all night. If nothing else, I'm going to have a fantastic set of stomach muscles when I get rid of it.

Did I ever send you the following or do you have it?

1800 Pennsylvania Census

John Conner - Fayette Co. Pa. 593

M	F
1 - 10 - 16	3 - under 12
1 - 16 - 26	1 - 10 to 16
1 - over 45	1 - 16 to 26
	1 - 26 to 45

I think this is the son of John Conner Sr. of Preston Co. and probably the father of Susannah + James. Where in "H" did the rest of his children go-?

1800 Penn. Fayette Co.

John Rose 563

M	F
5 under 12	1 16 to 26
2 16 to 26	1 26 to 45
1 26 to 45

I dont know if this is the John Rose who married Rebecka Bower or not. Did Ezekiel Rose name a son John in his will? No, I dont have copy of his will - just what Chris put in one of her reports.

I wonder if Mrs. Dier has any info we dont have! Nice to know there is someone else in the State of Wash. researching the elusive Roses. I don't remember her name from any of the Rose family Bulletin memberships. Were there any ~~new~~ other names of people researching Charles Rose that we don't know about?

Dick is Yakima's newest Taxi Cab driver but don't think it is going to last to long. Not much money but he really meets some interesting people.

I took two comp days off ~~to~~ next week as it is Spring Vacation. If he works I'm going to work on the Rose note books. and to keep with the housework.

Weather has been fairly nice. & a lot nicer than what the rest of the U.S. is having.

Well it is time to get the old body ready for work. Have a nice Easter. (over)

Love Verna

I good cheerfully go hide myself in a closet + cry and dont have the foggiest idea of what ~~Im~~ I would be crying about.

Since you dont really need a depressing letter will try to make the rest of it a little happier. I did receive the Cox info + appreciate you sending it. I sent some of our Yakima Gen. Soc. Bulletins to you this week + some old ones from Wenatchee. Do whatever you want with them. I'm still cleaning out files etc. Got the new Helper in the mail yesterday + saw all those lovely Rose names from Monongalia Co. in it. It sure took them long enough. I hope that some of our relatives come out of the woodwork, the hills or wherever they might be + let us know where they have been for all these years. Before & forget it; ~~[illegible]~~ was watching "Hee Haw" last Saturday & usually never pay any attention to the credits but noticed the set decorator was named Russ Nunnley. It is not a name you see that often.

Your Mom sounds like a real lady and I, too, wish I could have met her. I think her daughter must be a lot like her! Sorry to hear about Kathleen & her husband. & hope everything works out for them. Life is not easy for the young kids today. I have my doubts that Kelly's marriage will last & the one that will suffer will be little Tasha. Speaking of Grand daughter we get to take care of her tonight. Grandma had better take a nap this afternoon!

Dick went to Olympia last week. Didnt find anything but still feels he has a better chance of finding something over there than here. He has been busy this week put a new screen door on & painted the kitchen ~~f~~ yesterday. I think he is trying to tell me that he wants to put the house up for sale! It is going to take me at least a month or more to get the rest of the house ready.

I'm sure the
Ezekiel Rose on the 1840
Fayette Co is mine but noone can figure out the female 10 to 15. The only thing I can think of is that it might be a younger sister of his wife
Rebecca McDorman. On the 1860
Greene you should find 3 of Ezekiels children from first marriage & living with other families. Also noticed in the new Helper someone researching Van Scoy & other spellings. They were from Hunterdon Co. N Jersey. Do you suppose that Mrs. Van Scoy might have been researching her husband's family + that he had a Rose connection?

This weekend is going to be shot as far as getting anything done. Have to bowl in a singles + doubles Tournament today at 10:30, tomorrow have a roll off for first place in our Thursday night league. + next Saturday bowl Team event for the Tournament.

Well had best close + get some more letters written. I have quite a stack to answer. Bye for now and "83" is bound to get better.

Dear Mary:

I'm taking up a new hobby - I'm tired of being frustrated with my ancestors - I thought bird watching might be a good one - they dont have pedigrees do they?

You just had to go find the name Creighton in Fayette Co. & open up a whole new can of worms! I wonder what the "H." in William Creightons name stands for & what his wifes name was - On second thought I dont know if I want to know. I hate the name Rose & I'm thinking seriously about changing it. Since you found the name Creighton I'm going to throw this in: James & Ann (Rose) Fent named their first child WILLIAM CRATON FENT. Now what do you suppose that might mean - probably nothing. They admired their State Rep. to Legislature so much they named their first born after him!! James & Ann were married 1821 in Fayette Co. & Wm. Craton was probably born CA 1822 - they usually didnt wast much time. Did I send the family sheet on James & Ann? It would be nice to know where Ann was born. - well maybe not ~~to~~ if we find out she was born VA. - the adrenalin would be flowing & we would have a whole & such more of ifs, maybes, possibilities, I think + do you supposes.

The following I just received. Darke Co. Ohio Will Abstracts 1818-1857

Shook, Susannah - Book A P. 2.

Dated 26 Dec. 1851- recorded 8 March 1852 - Husband Peter Shook

Children mentioned - not named.

Mentions deceased fathers ~~name~~ estate in Fayette Co Ohio from which money for Tombstones are to be purchased.

Signed Susannah (X-mark) Shook

Witnesses: Elijah Shook

John (X-mark) Birt.

No marriage record in Darke Co for this Susannah + Peter Shook.

Good Old Elijah Shook again. I dont know if this Susannah is our Susannah (Conner) Rose or not. but it wouldnt ~~hur~~ hurt to do some checking. or the Census Indexes. ~~Elijah~~ to find out where this Susannah was living 1840 + 1850. Elijah Shook was one of Susannahs ~~her~~ witnesses when she applied for her pension. + or Elijah Shook was named in the will of John Rose - Susannahs son. Is there anything in your records of Fayette Co. about a Peter Shook? We know Susannah was still living in 1851 according to her Pension application.

Just checked the 1850 Starke Co. Census

Peter Shook	39	OH
Susannah	38	"
Mary	13	"
John	12	"
Catherine	11	"
Elijah	10	"
Susanna	9	"
Aaron	8	"
Martha J.	7	"
Samantha	6	"
Louisa Jane	7/12	"
Susan	74	VA.

This can't be our Susannah to old so guess we can forget Susannah Shook as being ours.

June was really a wild month. One weekend went to Montana for my Aunt & Uncles 50th Anniv. Went with my sister & oldest brother - really had a good time. The rest of June worked full time 8 to 9½ hours a day. My fanny was really dragging. Today is the start of my vacation for two weeks. The truck went bonkers ~~So~~ our vacation will probably be fix the truck. It has been a lemon ever since we bought it. Anyway it will be a good time to straighten out my Gen. mess. (over)

Dick still has pneumonia or whatever. He went to the Dr. last Thursday + he ~~hat~~ suggested Dick look for some other work. He has felt good one day since May.

Well had best close.

Dear Mary:

Well here is my letter that I promised you two or 3 weeks ago. and will probably be as informative as Sherwoods!!!

First the Sally Rose I told you about who was married in Mason Co. West Virginia. She married 10 Nov. 1817 Hamilton Creighton. It might be worthwhile to check the 1820 Virginia & the 1830 Va & Ohio to see if any Hamilton Creighton shows up.

Sherwood wrote in one of his early letters about the Sarah Conner wife of J. Conner age 75 years that he found in the Creamer Cem. I know I made some notes on it as I couldnt figure it out as to where J. Conner & Sarah fit in due to her being born ~~in~~ ca 1763- I wish my Conner info. was organized!!~~!!~~ I gather from Sherwood that he doesnt know who this Sarah is either so Im going to make a wild off the wall suggestion. We know from John Seniors will that he had a son John who we think was the father of "Elusive" Susannah + James. Could J. Conner be this John and Sarah his wife? It seems like after 1810 there was no record of John in Pa. - I wonder if he or she moved to Fayette Co. also. Some of ~~his~~ that Conner family did move to Ohio. Now isn't that a wild assumption! Somewhere I must have the Conner Index for Ohio. 1820-1840. but where is the big question. I'm surprised you still write to me since I'm so unorganized!!! I come by it honestly - the Rose family was disorganized.

I'm enclosing a sheet with some Conner names. Note John Sr. wife Mary Brown - Yeh! This is our Conner family. I did write to Mrs. Fruth but no reply. Most of the Conner researchers I have found descend from Wm. + Elizabeth Foreman. John Sr. His other children must have stayed in caves or lived under rocks with all of Charles Rose's daughters! I just noted your last paragraph in letter - "there was a Sarah Conner in Fayette 1820"! Will get out the Conner info this weekend.

We have had extremely hot weather - last week in the 90's & over Memorial Day weekend in the 100's. To fast to soon!

Dick has walking pneumonia again - 3rd time since last Aug. I was glad I had to go into work early almost every day this week. Really has been grouchy. At the moment I could cheerfully trade him in on new model!

Back to Sherwood's letter. in ref. that he doesn't know who Susannah Rose was who was living next to James Conner ~~[illegible]~~ in 1820. he must mean 1830. - he should - I wrote and told him who she was & thought she might be his James sister. Of course he wanted to charge me $200.00 for all his Conner info - One hell of a Cousin!! but I will forgive him.

Just dug out my Conner book. There was a James Conner who died 1802 Monongalia Co. wife was Sarah. It is in all that Xeroxed info on the Conner family I sent to you. Also in 1804 a James Conner married Abigail Penrose in Monongalia Co W. Va.

Must close - will write more this weekend. Love Verna.

Dear Mary:

Well here it is October already + fall is definitely here in Moxee. Have had frost + yesterday was cold and windy.

The Helper arrived yesterday but didnt find anything exciting in it I did find lots of books I would like to buy. I think that is why I went to work!! Our first retirement check was supposed to be mailed Sept 30th. It didnt arrive so Dick called yesterday and should be here today. I could make the house payment with what I make + that is it. It will be interesting to see what is left over after I pay the bills. No one will notice if I have a few more grey hairs! Dick has been looking and has an interview at a Coast to Coast Hardware this morning + I typed a couple of letters last night to send with resumes

Thanks for the Shane cemetery records. I'm beginning to think that they just put them in the ground in the South. Headstones weren't "in" apparently in the 1860's. Could you check the following names in Limestone Co Alabama Cemetery record book: JACKSON, ADY/ADAY, DAILEY/DALEY NELSON, WILKINSON, HARDY, COX + Pipes. How many pages are in the book? Let me know the cost of xeroxing. Do you suppose needlepoint would be a less frustrating hobby? Just found some more names for Limestone Co. Cem. book. Elledge, Roberts, Hightower.

Thanks for the Shores in New Jersey, I think!!! I'm going to ignore them for a while.

Not to much else new around here. I'm still organizing and have moved from the table to the extra coffee table + davenport in the new room. I can't believe the stuff I've found and forgotten about. I could write 100 letters.

Tonight is bowling night + hope my 3 beers work!! Kory has 119 average + I bowled a 112 last week. + did he laugh. No respect for his grey haired mother!

By for now

Give your Mom my best.

Dear Mary:

Since you have decided to quit the genealogy frustration game, you can take the Tri State Trader queries I'm mailing today and use them to start fires in your fireplace, or whatever! I'm not supposed to be doing any genealogy at all today except to clean up my mess according to Dick. I took Monday + Tuesday off and all I did was clean and pack up stuff to get ready to move so we can put the house on the market. I'm ticked off at him at the moment. Retirement has been a real pain with him, to be honest! I wish he would go to that truck driving school in Seattle. It would be heaven for six weeks. Enough of my problems - Good thing you are not closer, I would chew both your ears off.

I'm sure that Susannah Ross on the 1830 census is Susannah Rose - apparently I didn't sent you the census for her. Everything matches except for the two males under 5. Sea enclosed. The big question is where is she in 1840 + 1850. Apparently she knew the act of disappearing like her five sister-in-laws.

There are a lot of things missing from the Charles Rose report + she apparently took all of that John Rose report of Meigs Co literally but she knows better as she has the census for most of his children. The lady who wrote the report apparently didnt research to prove her info. I wrote and told her about it + never heard from her again I did it nicely too! The Rose family has a lot in common. Most didnt know where they were born, how old they were + who their children were. including their descendants. My Ezekiel was the worst of the lot - all he could do was make babies. Do you have any of the books on Meigs Co? It would be interesting to find out about the Cain + Horner families. It will probably end up that Charles Roses daughters married into these families + their children married their cousins in Meigs Co. Ohio + didnt know.

Well must close + play housewife for a while. Love Verna

Dear Mary:

The Dogan file arrived today. I looked at it and put it down and decided to work on the Rose Family and after working on them for awhile decided to trash then all the families and write you a letter! I worked all afternoon Sunday on organizing and now I have a bigger mess than ever! Good thing there are only 3 of us eating at the table as the of the place is stacked with Genealogy junk.

I thought I had sent you the following list of Rose marriages from L D S. computer file ~~Index~~. ~~Anyway~~ ever used the new typewriter - surely glad I got a self correcting one!

The Sally Rose in Mason Co 1817 intrigues me - Sally another name for Mary + we know Hopkins was there by 1820. Also note the Harrison Co. marriage. and the one and only in Braxton. where Isaac's children settled.

Took my "Baby" to the Paint Shop today - my 1968 Mustang. Having it painted Deep Red - originally white. We have had it for 11 years and runs better than Dick's truck which is a real lemon.

Well had best get back to organizing!

By for now and keep your chin up!

Dear Mary:

Please forgive the delay again in thanking you for the New Jersey info and for not answering promptly. I think I have started the last 4 letters that way. I dont know where May went to - how about Jan. Feb. March + April. also! Do you realize that Christmas is only 7 months away - Thought you would appreciate that.!

Now to answer your questions - The Hopkins Rose in Mason Co. West Virginia 1820 (I think you meant - not 1830) was the son of Charles Rose. at least I have been going under that assumption. Did I send you the listing for it. 3 children - a female 16 and over and another female in age bracket 60. Im ~~doing~~ writing this off the top of my head. One of Hopkins sisters + mother or Susannah.

I have never heard of a Benjamin Rose in connection with any of the Reports.

A friend of mine in Oroville had a friend who had the Fayette Co Will Book. No Rose or Conner that ~~she~~ could Find for me.

I'm enclosing a copy of an ancestor chart for another descendant of Dermot Rose. The thing I find interesting is that Missouri Rose was born in Union Co Indiana which borders Preble Co. Ohio. + Darke right above it. Also note she has Dermot's son John Rose married twice which I didn't have. also I think she meant the second wife was born 1678 rather than died 1678. Also note that Missouri's mother Lydia died in Knox Co. Missouri which is right ~~at~~ below Scotland where that Jotham Rose lived. who was possibly the s/o Thomas who was maybe s/o Charles. I have not written to this Hildy yet. A lady in Oregon has started a Round Robin letter for the descendants of Dermot Rose. Do you want to Join it? This is how I got the family sheet. as the lady in Oregon put my name on the list.

I did get a list of Van Scoys in Clarksburg W. VA and there are a lot of them. I wrote to one with no reply. I think the newspaper ad might work better. Is there any way to get a hold of the ~~her~~ original letter in the file of Archibald Finley - maybe she said how she was related.

How is your sister doing?

I'm hoping this weekend barring no company that I can work on Genealogy. It seems like everyweekend this month there has been something. Last Saturday it was Kary's Bowling Banquet and that at 4:00 worked at the school carnival. There always seem to be a lot of "doings" in May. Kary is playing Little League baseball twice a week we bowl Spring League on Wednesday night.

I did manage to work one Saturday in the yard and I have two more areas to clear out and want to buy some more flowers. The day in the yard almost did me in since I crawled around on my hands and knees. & really stretched some leg muscles. It took me a week to recuperate. Old age!

Well had best close and get a few more letters written. I'm sure some f the people ~~[illegible]~~ who have written to me think I have I joined the ancestors under the "old oak tree". I'm going to write to Hildy.

By for now

April 22. 1985

Dear Mary:

I think I would like to meet Gill Brooks - she sounds like my kind of lady. I dont know what her age is but she isnt senile. Oh - to have found her a few years ago. Chris Rose's info was much better before she got that darn computer.

I didnt get any revelations from the info but I do think that Rebecca Rose Franks was the d/o of our Charles + all all the other info she wrote certainly ties in. but as you say how to prove. From what Gill sent, I assume that Jacob + Rebecca Franks lived all their lives in Fayette Co. Pa. We do know that Rebecca Rose applied for Charles Pension either from Uniontown or her lawyer Ewing

Of all of Charles + Rebecca's children you would think, that the youngest son Charlie's marriage record would have been found - He apparently lived in Pa. also. How do you get info out of Fayette Co? - (I've been rereading the will of Charles If Rebecca died, shouldn't there be a probate record of some sort reverting the land to youngest son Charlie as that is the way the will reads - "Upon her death or remarriage, the land reverts to Charles. Wouldn't it be nice to go back and do our own research?

Also in rereading the research report that Chris did on her trip to Monongalia Co. W. Va. Thomas Rose was still alive in 1854 + was in Mo.!!! Is there an 1860 Census Index for Mo.? Why do I have this feeling maybe he didn't live in Scotland Co. - My brain is tired. Bye for now.

Love, Verna

was from there. It sounds like Fayette Co. might be the answer. I noted Gill did not list a a marriage date for Rebecca - must have been married by the same minister that married my Hopkins + Susannah!!! One theory could be that after the death of Charles - Rebecca moved back to Fayette Co with some of the children (girls) Could it be possible that Charles owned land in Fayette or Mercer Co + this is what he traded rather than land in New York or New Jersey?? He inherited money from his father - not land. Charles Lowder mill was in Preston Co. but that was not formed until 1818 so he was in Monongalia Co. even at the time of his death, hence his will was made and filed in that County. I also assume they lived close to the Fayette Co. border If Fayette Co. had early marriage records, they might prove interesting

Dear Mary:

One more week and I will be giving my notice at work-Aug. 26th. I'm really sort of looking forward to staying home. Just to get away from all the nit picking & back stabbing will be worth it. & I need some time to get my own personal act together.

We had to go to Tacoma yesterday for a coaching clinic on Bee being to teach kids. Now have to wait & see if we passed the test. It started at 9:00 am & we got through at 3:30. We left here at 5:00 AM. It was a long day. Today had to do all the housewifely chores that I didn't do yesterday. I'm really not sure if I want to coch Kory's league or not even though I have been a half way one for 5 years now. It is a long commitment every Saturday morning from Sept. to April. + I'm not to sure I want Dick with me every Saturday morning. I'm really not sure if I want him around at all!

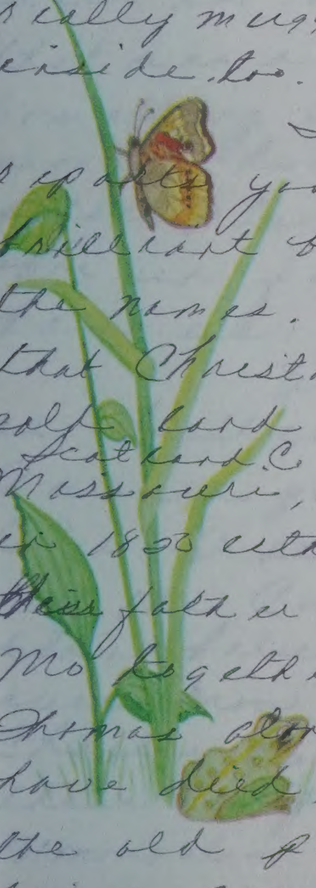
It looks like we might get a Thunderstorm tonight. Rather surprising with all the hot hot weather we have had, we haven't had any thunder storms at all. It is really muggy out at the moment - inside, too.



I read all the 1850 census reports you sent + didn't get any brilliant brainstorms from any of the names. I'm sure you discovered that Christopher Rose - the one that sold land to Jotham Rose in Scotland Co. Missouri, was not listed there in 1850 either. Did he + Jotham, + Charles their father Thomas all travel to Mo together + they buried old Thomas along the way. Ruth must have died, too + both are under the old persimmon tree along the river somewhere. She had to have been at least 37 when she had Jotham + 42 when she had Charles.

where are the other 10 children?
Has anyone ever found Thomas n an 1840 census?. They probably had 8 girls + one was named Grace love too! One probably married
Rose too! Charles was born 825 Greene Co. PA - was Thomas there in 1820-1830? Surely someone that was a physician should have something written about him - I wonder how he wrote up his prescriptions - Probably make his own up from various bushes, leaves, trees etc.

Whether they were Northern or Southern. I haven't the foggiest - I would guess Northern - No where have I seen where any had slaves
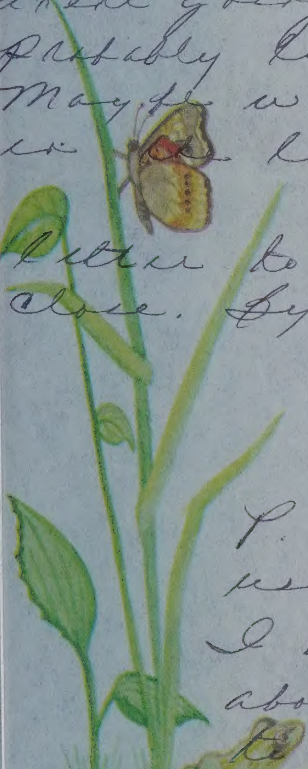
If the Conners were Quakers - they didn't believe in fighting. Do we ever know what religion the Charles Rose family ~~was~~ were? Are there any Church Records for Monongalia Co? One of the reasons for the big migration between 1855-1860 was because more land was opening up in the West. Iowa + Mo. were the places to go. The Rose family didn't follow any set settlers. They probably went South! I'm sure Greene + Fayette Cos. Penn. hold some answers but how to get them. Free love's desc. surely aren't going to tell us. Her desc. probably live in Morgantown!!! Maybe we should put an ad in the local paper!



Well have another letter to write so had best close. Bye for now.

Love
Verna

P.S. Do you have any use for 3 ring binders. I think I might get about 50 of them. I'm willing to share.

17 May 1986

Dear Verna,

Back home and back to business - had to go to Dad's and clear out 60 years of their life. I sold his house and sister, Helen, who lives at Drumright was out of town for two weeks and sister, Eva, who lives in Louisiana couldn't come, so guess who got to do the whole damn business by her lonesome...it had been for sale for only three weeks and a neighbor bought it for his grandson. Made me feel some better about us having to give it up, but now I have no place to stay during my visits. Sister Helen got back in town long enough to dash up and tell me that her daughter wanted the stainless silverware. I said "sorry", it is packed and going to Bartlesville since I had bought it for the folks in the first place. Told her to take the silverplate - she said her daughter wanted stainless. It is in Bartlesville. I had no idea I could get it all done by May 1, but did. Dick came down on a Saturday and helped finish up and my two nieces came from Tulsa with a truck and took most of the furniture.

Now back to genealogy and am I far behind...haven't done a thing for two months and seems everyone has written needing help. I wish I knew where people get my name. A person, Mrs. McCready, of Plainfield, Indiana just wrote wanting to know if I was her cousin. She has an ancestor named James Edmond Nunnelley born in KY in 1853. I wrote and told her, hell no, I am an orphan and related to no one but Freelove Rose. Just joking, but do feel like sending a family group sheet for Charles and Rebecca Rose to all these people who write for help and never send an envelope or stamp. It would surely confuse them.

I have been making copies of stuff along the way so am enclosing a group of misc. The material from Anita Cooke is interesting. She is really interested in chasing the John Rose family. I send her some Charles Rose copies today and hope she gets it before the Rose family reunion in Tyler, TX. They invited me, but it is too far.

Sent Chris and Seymour some money to take a vacation. They leave May 21 and I have asked them to do Monongalia again. Hope they have time. There is surely more there to be found - Chris agrees. Also, wrote today to Sandy Fackler in Fayette Co., Ohio to let me know her fees for research on Sarah Conner. Something happened to the land she owned and hope she gave it to her children and named each and all of her grandchildren and their children and their children.

Our Bartlesville Genealogical Society had their annual workshop today so took four hours to play. Felt guilty, but seldom do such. Members bring books from their personal library and the group here has a bunch. It was fun, but found little, except the Scudder material which I copied for us and you probably already have.

I ordered $140.00 in books from the Hunterdon Co. Historical Society - two months ago. Have not heard one word, so wrote to them today and said get with it! Also, ordered another Hunterdon Co. book from someone in February, also, not received. Whats with New Jersey?? They, as of last bank statement, had neither cashed my check. I feel it must be a joke and there are not such places or books. Hunterdon Co. Hist. Soc. had a roll of microfilm (Township records of Amwell, Book A) which might be the reason for delay if they had to have it copied. It is probably not going to give me an additional clues, but sounds so nice.

This letter will not arrive promptly...I have some other things to copy, so the above date will be much later.

Write -

Dear Mary.

These are the new names I'm researching NUTT, CRAPO, FUNK, FINGER, SHITTLE, BATTY, BLOOMER, BUNN, BUTTS, CHEW, CLUEY, CORN, CROAK, DICTUM, UTLEY, TWEEDY, TITSWORTH, TITTLE, SPRINKLER, STEDYCORN, SCREWS, RIPPLE, HORSEY, FRICK, CRUMLEY, CRUMP. How do you like them? Actually I think Free love Rose married one of them! You know if we ever find a descendant of hers, I don't think I could be serious about it. We have used her name in vain a lot, at least I have.

I thought you were joking when you said you were copying stuff ~~in~~ + putting it in a box to send - It was a box + I'm still reading. I like the stuff Anita Cooke sent + of course the letter from Chris. Imagine Voting in a Vault - This is 1986 not 1786. I wonder what else they use the Vault for!! I can't believe a Court house not Indexing their books or Inventoring (sic) them. Well organized City Hall. I'm sure they really care what I think - If they knew the headaches that damn Rebecka Rose has caused. I don't like the way she spells her name either! Do you really think she was smart enough to give any pertinent info in her Affidavit? Got the new Helper this afternoon + spent the rest of the day reading it. P. 150 - a researcher for Monongalia Co. W. VA. Court house + West VA. University W. VA. Collection.

I wonder if she knows about the Vault that is used for everything but keeping records.!!!

Apparently Anita Cooke didn't get a copy of the famous John Rose Family History! Did you send her a copy? Think I will send her the name of his desc. that wrote to me + apparently didn't like what I sent her. I've come to the Conclusion that your James + Elsie were the only sane ones - the rest were a bunch of misfits - My Hopkins may have been sane but he died to soon - Susannah + children were definitely a little weird.

Good Morning + it is a lovely one. Temps are going to be in the 90's by the end of the week. We went to a wedding Saturday in Wenatchee + on the way stopped at this place (restaurant) to eat + they make homemade Bread. I bought 5 loaves to bring back + when we got back stopped at the store + bought a pound of real butter - I'm on my second loaf! It really helps my thought process for genealogy. Lordy, there were a bunch of Roses + little Rosebuds in New Jersey. + to think our Tormut - Termit - Harmat or whatever his name was responsible for so many of them!

I've been busy writing letters - + my desk is really cluttered. Had a really lovely reply from a gal in Dallas - She is researching Pipes + McGowan in Limestone Co. Alabama. Pipes married into the Shores family. I knew more about her Pipes then she did + was really thrilled with the info. She invited me to come to Dallas + be her guest. Quote her letter- "Have an extra bedroom, only one bath, but have some antique slop jars + potty's!!! My kind of lady. As per usual, she didn't know that her Mary Pipes was a sister to Abigail Pipes who m. William Shores. + had never heard of the Shores. No, one else has either for that matter. I really do bother on other peoples names.

I'm having a battle with ants at the moment. They are coming in under my dish-washer that is built in + even get in the dishwasher. I'm safe when the dishwasher is working.

Tomorrow is the last day of school + Kory is not that thrilled with it. They had their 8th grade graduation dance last Friday. He really looked sharp. Grey slacks, pink polo shirt + grey suede deck shoes. + he didn't miss a dance. In Aug. he goes to a basketball ~~fora~~ camp for a week. + is now playing AAU Summer Basketball for six weeks. two games a week. + he + I bowl in family doubles on Thursday nights.

Well this letter doesn't have anything in it to get excited about so had best close. I forgot to send the enclosed Census records in my other letter. Thanks for the picture of you- You look so cute. By for now

Dear Mary:

Summer has arrived - high 90's all this week. We had one decent day in April - Cold + windy, otherwise.

April was a hell of a month. Sick the first week + just now beginning to feel good. What ever I had, it surely took all my energy. I've never been so ungodly tired. The second week I took care of Kelly's mother-in-law - she had her left breast removed - not the radical surgery. By the end of the week I was ready for the funny farm. I had enough game shows + soap operas to last a lifetime. T.V. is the big thing in her life. The 3rd week my sister came + the 4th week I recuperated from the first three.

May was a thrill, too. Daughter Kelly had to have two cat scans on her thyroid. They did find a growth but is not malignant. They think they can control it with medication. I predicted when she was 24 that they would have marital problems + they are. I would bet that they will have applied for divorce before the summer is over. I'm about ready to run away. Dick has been bitching with the hot weather due to his skin problems + allergies. I'm beginning to think everything irritates him. My this is a joyfull letter!

Wednesday was my last day working at the library for the summer. I'm just on call now. I did find a few things on the Hurnley name for you that I'm enclosing. Have received some good info on ~~the~~ my Harrison + Lovell family. I just disagree as to the parents of my Ann Harrison. Do people ever really look at birthdates? The Lovell + Harrison families were written up in Historical Southern families. Of course they list her but said she died ca 1738 unmarried. So much for my family written in a book.

Nothing new on the Roses. Must close - have a few more letters to send. Hope all is well. By for now.

Dear Mary:

I wasn't planning to get up at 6:00 am this morning but Dick + Kory went fishing + weren't satisfied until they made enough noise that I had to get up. I was really ready anyway. At least I get the house to myself for a while.

After Monday, Sept 9th, I will officially be a housewife again. + the first thing Dick tells me is that he is going to take a week off after I'm through — that I don't need! I know all ready when I'm through that he will start going to work later + come home earlier than he all ready does. His preoccupation with sex is about to do me in. Is this what they call the mid-life crises — if it is, I've been going through it for 14 years.

Well summer vacation is officially over for Kory tomorrow. He can hardly wait + I think he has his clothes all laid out. I took him down last Wed. for his physical - 6 ft + 169 pounds. Thank God for him as he keeps what little sanity I have left.

Thanks for the info on Thomas Rose - has anyone read the 1830 + 1840 to see how many kids he had? You know Mary - that is all I really needed to know was that there is or was another female Rose running around unaccounted for!! I wonder what her name was. I wonder if she was the wife of John Overturff - named Sarah who sold the

Dear Mary:

I got so excited last week. I actually wore shoes outside rather than boots - first time in over two months - actually drove on pavement rather than ice + got to see brown earth + even saw the sun! Well it didn't last long - it snowed all day today but rather wet so maybe it won't last.

If a messy desk is a good indication of a good genealogist, I must be right up there! I think I make progress + then drag out a couple of more file folders. I think I said I should be through by the end of this month - forget it - maybe another 3 months. + I haven't even started on the Rose family. I don't like them anyway. Stupid Charles - Dumb Rebecca + both Stupid + Dumb children. I think your Elsie was the smartest of the crew - even if she did marry a Conner! I'm enclosing some copies of Rose info that I didn't know if you had or not. I don't know if the Thomas Rose who had 6 3/4 acres is Thomas the Doctor or not. patient didn't pay very well if he only had 6 3/4 acres. At least Thomas the Minister could sign his name - I wonder who he belongs to. Couldn't be ours since he could write. Shouldn't say that as Rebecca signed her name. If I didn't know who ~~she~~ she was, I would be researching the name Rete! I'm not sure if the How to research West Virginia will help. It sounds like Virginia could have some info. Also found a letter from a lady dated 1988 - she is the one that found Hopkins Rose in 1820 for me & read the census I think. At that time she said the best researcher for West Virginia was:

Jane Guthrie

Charleston. West Virginia 25305

Other than organizing the info & bowling 3 to 6 games every day, nothing much happening. Mainly go bowling to get some exercise, clear my sinuses, or just to get rid of my frustration. I started bowling in a league on Tuesday afternoon. & I'm working at the Gen. Soc. Library every Wed. morning. but don't really get a lot of research done for myself. I get all the new people - help! Dear Mary:

I found the enclosed at the library yesterday. Not exciting but interesting. Did all the people in Hunterdon Co. move to Penn + West Virginia - then half from those two states to Ohio + Kentucky? It seems like most of the Wolvertons and Quicks originated in Hunterdon Co.

I went through all the Kentucky Ancestor publications to 1978 - that is all we have. The lady who subscribes to it, is supposed to locate the last 7 years - but when is the question. Not much info on Boyd + Greenup Cos + no one researching Rose in these two Counties.

I had a surprise letter in Monday's mail concerning the Rousseau family. The neat thing is the lady also has McBride + I'm pretty sure we are searching the same McBride family. Her Great Grandmother + my Great Great Grandmother were sisters. At least I hope they were. She only had the names of Nancy McBride + James Edmundson, both born in N.C. I found their marriage record in Rush Co. Indiana in my info, & that they moved to Union Twp. Wells Co. Ind in 1847 with my Wm. Rousseau & Ruth McBride & that both are buried in the Union town Cem. She is also a Rousseau desc. Her Sarah (Rousseau) Martin was a sister to my Wm Rousseau.

I called her Monday night in St Louis but she wasn't home at the time. She called back later & talked for two hours. She really seems like a neat lady. & gung ho for researching. She said she was 60 & mad that she didn't start researching 20 years ago.

We finally got some beautiful weather this week - High 60's. Last Friday night we had 3" of snow. Should have been doing yard work but will wait until this weekend and maybe it will rain or something! I did clean out our bedroom Monday & got rid of a bunch of clothes.

Bowling night so will close. By for now.

Feb. 24. 1986

Dear Mary:

I really think you should be in charge of The Rose Family Bulletin - at least Tormut Rose and his descendants. I noted Chris didnt say anything about anyone researching Rose in Boyd + Greenup Counties! Another 20 letters and a year later she will find a member researching the families. Her filing + organization must be worse than mine + I dont even have a computer! Im really proud of your tenacity + Im sorry Im not much help.

Charles Jr. apparently was just as prolific as his father but wished he would have named one daughter Freelove! The children of 1860 match up with Charles + family of the 1850 Monongalia Co. W. Va. + by 1860 William + Rebecca, the two oldest, would have been married. William was on a boat heading for Iowa in 1852. The census I dont like is that 1830 one with all the extra people that cant be accounted for. Cant be Charles parents since we know his father died but maybe Rebecca remarried - whoever he was he died by 1840 + she died by 1850. Maybe his wife Janes parents + one of her brother or sisters. Those Penn. girls must have been prettier than the Monongalia ones.- Another marriage record we will never find. Damn Pennsylvania for not keeping records. I wonder why Charles moved to Kentucky - maybe his boat sank on the way to Iowa.! Were any of Charles Roses neighbors born in Va.?

The Conner info sounds good also - Maybe you should be snowed in more often - Your crazy genealogy thoughts make sense. Off the (over) top of my head wasn't there an early female Corner marriage in Fayette Co. that didn't belong to James + Elsie's children + no one seemed to know who she belonged to? Can't put my hands on the Corner info at the moment - what else is new?! I can't find anything! Speaking of my dear old Grandmother Susannah (Corner) Rose, I'm enclosing a copy of her bounty Land Grant file papers. - Note they write Upkins rather than Hopkins - Couldn't even remember her husband's name. Can't blame her for that - I would like to forget mine most of the time. I really think Susannah was in Ohio 1850 - but not a head of a household. + apparently not with her children unless there is one we don't know about. Note in papers she says she is still a widow - how did she support herself for all those years - Maybe you will find something in the enclosed papers that I missed.

Now as to C. M. Serre's info concerning Rachel Rose. No Comment - Is Swick supposed to be Quick - Why does everybody believe that what you find in Salt Lake is the Gospel? With a million dollar plus business, I guess you can lie a little. It seems odd you don't have to document your data. Mormons wouldn't lie would they? The only Smith I liked in that mess was the one killed by Indians in 1690!

Edward West I have no idea - I just hope they haven't joined their ancestors by now! I know Chris has Freelove in her computer somewhere!! Speaking of the name Freelove - I found a query from a lady researching a John Quincy Ryan b. 1814 Ky. m. 1832 Clark Co. Ohio Freelove Whiteley. Any Whiteleys in Monongalia Co? Any time I see someone researching a Freelove I'm tempted to write to see if they have a Freelove Rose.

Last Wed. at the Gen. Library. I started going through our Kentucky books for Boyd + Greenup Cos. Boyd wasn't created until 1860. In ~~an~~ the adjoining County of Carter - the woods are full of Roses - like Mahala + Irithia Rose - Probably Freelove's Cousins with names like that! Nothing on Boyd or Greenup yet. but will keep looking. I would bet the Calvin age 33 in Greenup C. 1880 is Charles son even if he said he was born in Ky. Also I would assume Charles probably died in Ky. or did he go to Iowa? I think I had better get my Rose info in order.

We have had snow here also. Big storm Valentines Day + a few inches last Friday. + in the 50's by yesterday. Today is clean out our bedroom day. Maybe I can get some Spring Cleaning done before Spring. Kory got the flu first + Dick + I had it last week. It has really hit the schools hard here. Dick was home for three days - Fun Fun - Mothers still cook + clean.

Well had best close + go get started on the bedroom. By for now

Dear Mary:

At the Library Wed. I spent the whole 4 hrs. going through Indiana material. Why I dont know. I found you another Rose Cousin - see enclosed. I wonder if it would be worthwhile to write to her. I dont have any info on this John except that he went to Salem Co. New Jersey. You probably have the info on the other two cards but at least you know Im thinking of you when Im looking through stuff.

My desk is a disaster - only room enough to write a letter if I put the paper side ways. Got to do something about it - Cant find anything - but that is par for the course. Need some rainy days so I will stay home + not run the roads. Might get my wish this weekend. Possibly rain + snow mixed! Most of the week has been in the high 60's - grubbed around in the front yard last Sunday - almost got a sunburn! Did have a few aches + pains on Monday. The rain or snow wont do me any good this weekend as Kory is bowling in the City Tournament plus he has an AAU Basketball Tournament that starts tomorrow night at 7:30.

Tomorrow Im going to Payless and buy some primroses + Rose bushes. Im putting the Rose bushes in front where I normally plant snapdragons etc. Im tired of planting stuff every year there. + Roses take up a lot of space. Someone told me that if you plant primroses on the North side of the house. They will bloom all ~~yea~~ summer. They really have some pretty varities now.

Cleaned out the spare bedroom + Hall closet Monday. Puttered around the house all day + actually got quite a few things done.

Got a perm today + a shorter hair style + had it cut over the ears. Haven't worn it like that since the 1960's. Took Korey down town for some new T shirts + tennis shoes. Really a bargain - T. shirts $8.00 plus on sale + Tennis shoes $44.00. He measures a 12½ AAA - that is a lovely size to find - Impossible really.

Well had best close. Bye for now.

Now for some genealogy - regarding Adam and Susannah Harness.
1830 Census Fayette Co. Ohio
Jefferson Twp - Susannah Ross

Males -	2 und 5
	1 - 5 to 10
	1 - 10 to 15
	1 - 15 to 20
Females -	1 - 10 to 15
	1 - 30 to 40

We had thought this was Susannah Rose except we couldn't account for two boys under 5 - the rest of the children fit.

Adam + Susannah Harness children
Nimrod - 22 b. ca 1828
Henry 20 b. ca 1830.

These two could fit the two under 5 for the above - if the above is really Susannah Rose then she didn't remarry until after 1830. or
* Adam Harness was married before and Nimrod + Henry are his + they married ca 1832 and Elizabeth was their first one. or Adam was her 3rd husband + she had married another Harness before Adam - probably Peter his brother!!!! I'm being funny now. I'm guessing they were married in Greene Co. In 1834 Ezekiel Rose chose J. Stephenson for his guardian + that is recorded in Darke Co. The 1840 Census for Adam Harness is the clue

Dear Mary:

Thought maybe some genealogy would get my mind off my marital problems and my brother. The news on my brother is - there is nothing they can do for him. It is just a day to day existence for him. I talked to him today and he sounded pretty good. I might take off sometime this week for a couple of days. + visit him.

Aug. 2. - Good Morning. It is only 4:30 AM and the Coffee is perking. I seem to have a built in alarm for 4 and 5:00 anymore. Saturday night I slept from 10:30 until 8:45 Sunday morning. One of my better efforts in the last month. Dick has done this 180° turnaround. Yesterday, he even asked me about how my genealogy was coming and even asked me if a trip somewhere would help me in my research. He has not asked me about genealogy since I started it except sarcastically as to "how much did that cost me" or a nasty reference to how messy my corner was + when I have mentioned taking a trip to Ohio, West Virginia etc. to research there has always been silence or why would you go there. It is really boggling my mind - is he for real or just afraid I will leave him. The only way I can describe him is very solicitous in anything I do or wherever I go. He makes me just as nervous this way as he did the other way. Well enough of that - It is my problem.

to see how many children are listed. Margaret Rose m. John Gibson April 1840 so she might not be listed but Hopkins Rose Jr. didn't marry until 1845 in Darke Co. so he might be listed unless he was farmed out also. + if he was - back to square one.

I haven't heard from Barbara Black which surprises me. so may write to Lori Seiler - works at the Darke Co. Historical Soc. + her Granddaughter is descended from John + Margaret (Rose) Gibson. Maybe she can find some tips on Adam + Susannah or maybe know of a descendant of Adam + Susannah Harness.

I may start painting the living room today. + should order peaches to can or may sit around + feel sorry for myself.

Bye for now

Dear Mary:

So glad to hear you went to the Dr. What did they tell you to do besides quit smoking, drinking, all fattening foods + stay out of dust and weeds? Are you on medication?

You really do nice work. All that Robins info was lovely and no, I didnt have any of it. The record of the land in Georgia, Franklin Co. threw me for a loop but it has to be the John Robins I'm looking for as his dau Mary m. Gabriel Jones. I didnt mention this when I asked you to look as the name Jones is so common. Two of his other daughters m. Jones also + I'm assuming they were all brothers. Gabriel + Mary supposedly died in Tenn. Send me the 1850 census for Robins in Franklin Co Tenn. and can you check for Gabriel Jones, wife ~~Sarah~~ Mary and Lewis Jones, wife Sarah. I still dont have a car so who knows when I will get to the library. I wonder who the William + Mary Robins were who signed as witnesses on the land transaction. Maybe another son. John had a brother William but he died ca 1773-74 in Orange Co. Va. I agree with you that the James in the will looks a little funny. I also wrote to the lady researching Mary Jane Robins d/o James. I hope she still lives there, still researching, + that she is a desc. of John + Elizabeth. Could I be that lucky? (over)

How in the hell do I know who Jacob Conner is or was! I dont even know who Susannah Conner was!! She is probably still living. With everything ~~the~~ else she did, it wouldnt surprise me. For my serious opinion here goes. I do think Sarah Conner in Fayette Co. Ohio was the mother of your James + possibly Susannah - although I really think she was found under a cabbage leaf! I think John Conner who was living in Fayette Co. Penn. 1796 at the time of his father's death was the husband of Sarah. Do we have an 1800 Census - 1810 record for this John? In one of your letters you thought maybe the James Conner with wife Sarah who died in 1802 Monongalia Co. was the husband of Sarah in Fayette Co Ohio. For a while I did, also + it could be but I think Elizabeth Conner who m. Simeon Creamer in 1823 Fayette Co Ohio was a dau to Sarah. In James Conner's will 1802, his daughter Elizabeth m. John Holt. The 1820 Mason Co. West Va. census for Hopkins + Susannah list a female 16-26 + female ~~pl~~ over 45. This maybe Sarah + Elizabeth Conner. I also think that George Conner who d. ca 1837 is probably related + if he is so is the Thomas Conner. Jacob Conner could be another child. Between 1818 + 1837 you have the following Conners in Fayette Co Ohio

SAMUEL CONNER	1818	GEORGE CONNER	1823
		THOMAS CONNER	1837

George died ca 1837, leaving children Mary & William but he also had children John + Nancy - Oct. 7. 1837. George Corner by heirs (John + Nancy) to Thomas Corner. In Sept. 1837 Thomas Corner from Mary Corner 275 acres. - quit claim Dower. Now doesn't dower mean - wife so Mary I assume was the wife of George Corner. Sometime after Oct. 1825 Samuel Corner probably moved since he gave power of attorney to William E. Cockerill. Margaret Corner who m. John Hill 1840 had to have been born 1820 to 1825 - maybe dau of Thomas. + Margaret appears to be a family name. Also James Corner names first son John, a dau. Sarah, one Elizabeth and one George. All very common names for that era! The Greene Corner is odd unless Sarah Corner's maiden name was Greene. My thoughts but what do I know!

In looking over my Corner info - your desc. of James + Elsie - I only have info on John, James K. + George W. - Nothing on Sarah, Elizabeth, Greene + Mel. Do you have info on these people. Also on James K. Corner, I have the names of his Children but nothing as to who they married. Do you have anything on them?

My sister (oldest) came last weekend (Labor Day) and we really had a good time Went yard saleing + antiqueing. Just her and I. Left at 10:30 on Sat. + got back at 4:30 + Sunday left at 9:30 + got back at 3:00. Dick went to happy but really didn't + don't care. Best time I had all summer. Of course I bought some things I just really had to have. She left Monday with 3 boxes of peaches + two boxes of pears and a whole bunch of other treasures. She also wants me to start researching her husband's mother's family. The name is Tuthill - good New England name. Conn. + New York. If you run across it anywhere, think of me. There was a Tuthill glass works also. + it is very expensive if you find it in the antique stores.

Daughter Kelly is spending the weekend with us. Need I say more! I'm beginning to think maybe a divorce is the only answer. She is nothing but skin and bones. + is thinking about taking on a 3rd job. I have a hell of time trying to solve her problems when I can't even solve my own.

Not to sure I like Kory in high school or not. I feel like I'm back in school with him. I have to remember my algebra, Spanish + English. Spanish + English not to bad but forget the algebra.

Well the desk is getting piled up again. Need to take a few days + record a bunch of info. A computer would be nice. Well had best close. How is the ankle? Sometimes a sprain is worse than a break. By for now. Love Verna

Dear Mary:

I decided to start my Christmas Card today. as C-Day is not that far away. I wish I had the shopping done, house decorated, and tree up but I have never done anything in an organized way + Im to old to change. I was going to drink hot buttered rums while making out cards but decided that might not work so am drinking Apple-Cinnamon Tea-Yuk! Must keep my wits about me!

The trip to Hamilton Montana was nice even though it took us 12 hrs. Ran into a couple of blizzards on the passes. Not fun at all. Went to bed 6:30 Thanksgiving morning and got up at 9:30. The trip back Sunday was a breeze.

We had our first snow today about 3". ~~Im~~ enclosing some puzzles for you in another envelope.

Have some more to send. Brought home Arkansas Books from Library. + have been going through them and marked all for you. I haven't found any for myself yet. What's new?

Finally checked out the Jones. I think they moved to Coffee Co. Tenn. from Franklin. Only the Almighty knows where the Robins went to. When you have some time Could you check your Tenn. Ancestors Books 1982 on for the name. SARTAIN, Gabriel Jones + Lewis Jones. Query section only. Lewis Jones possibly in Fayette Co + Gabriel in Hardeman Co. + Coffee Sartain in Franklin + Coffee.

Have a Merry Christmas + New Years. Write when you can

Dear Mary:

Have we gone to the Dr. yet? Please do so I dont have to worry about you. I dont need any more gray hair. Now that is a Joke!

My sister called this morning & woke me up. Good thing she did as I had to get my rear in gear & get Kory's clothes washed as ~~h~~ we have to take him to Basketball Camp at Ellensburg this afternoon. Only 32 miles away but ~~Im~~ not looking forward to it with temps in 90's and no air conditioning. We pick him up the 15th. It is going to seem strange not having him around for a week.

We have been in high 90's since you called & hit over a 100 this weekend. Supposed to cool off to low 90's this coming week. Anything over 90 is hot. I have been writing a lot of letters, that doesn't take a lot of energy. – also reading quite a bit. I have weeds galore in the yard and they can just stay there. The yard can burn up also for all I care.

I bought lottery tickets yesterday + had three of the six numbers so I get a free ticket. We went to the Eagles last night. + after we left, stopped and had something to eat + the waitress had picked 5 of the numbers so she gets $771.00. No one won so next week it is worth 3 million. I sure in the hell wish I would get a vision like some people do as to the numbers! I usually let the computer pick mine. Maybe I should pick some of my great-greats, birth, death + marriage dates. They have given me nothing but headaches anyway. They should do something beneficial for me. Don't you think? If they would have stayed in some of the places, they might have let me be in comfort now. but hell no. they had to see the home country. They could have even gone to Texas + maybe bought land with oil on it. Not mine, they go to Montana + raise sheep + live in a shack! They didn't do a very good job of raising sheep either! I blame our mutual ancestor dear old Charles Rose. If he had stayed in New Jersey + got to know the Rockefeller's a little better, maybe you and I would be living in the style we would like to become accustomed to. That our Charles, he goes to W. Va. buys a Powder Mill that blows up and gets buried underneath a lake!

Aug. 12. Good Morning! I'm back to a messy desk again. Overflowing ash-tray, coffee cups + did have a couple of beer bottles on it too. I started typing up queries last week for that national Query Newsletter. I have about 5 pages so far. Typing is not my greatest, hence the best I do really well on my name and address! I have to type a couple over again. One beer to many! If I get one response from anybody, I will be surprised. I'm not sure if I will put in any on Rose - maybe Thomas's family. I've put in enough on Roses and if Freelove is out there, she "ain't" reading.

Kory has been gone ~~one~~ two days, washing cut in half, cooking cut in half. house stays cleaner but really miss him. He called Sunday night and was having a ball. There must have been a thousand 6-7-8 + 9th graders running around on campus when we took him up there Sunday.

The weather cooled off yesterday, only 82 but the wind was blowing 40 mph. Dust everywhere. Back to the hot stuff today + rest of week.

I want to get some peaches this week to can about 3 boxes. I use to can every year but haven't in the last 5. To do anything is difficult around here with no car. Won't go into that as it is a real sore subject. with me. Don't think we will take a vacation either. which I don't care about one way or the other.

Kelly is having marital problems again - really should say in-law. problems. She hasn't do anything right according to them. She is working 7 days a week & has most of the time they have been married. Lew likes to buy & charge! Lew goes in for knee surgery today. Depending on what they find major or minor surgery. I like him but has never been taught responsibility

Well the washer is finished so had best go do something about the wet clothes. By for now. Excuse the writing. the old arm is giving me problems again. Love

Dear Mary:

I dont know why you have to live so far away. I'm enclosing the Nunnelley family sheets + hope one of them is new to you. I usually always send you info that you all ready have!

I took down all the Christmas decorations yesterday. The house looks so bare but I'm glad it is done. We are going out for dinner New Years Eve with some friends + then play cards. A real whoopee evening. I think I will fix Chili for New Years Day. The Cook deserves one Holiday off. Dick and Kory just left for a Basket ball game. I will be glad when every one goes back to work and to school. Two of Kory's friends spent last Friday-~~f~~ night + all day Saturday here. Another friend came Sunday + spent the night + they are all eating machines. I went Grocery shopping today to restock every thing. There are always two or three extra in the house.

Rowning ~~surely~~ is surely a different name. I wonder who came up with Romeg/Romig. I dont even think I have ever seen the name Rowning. Probably research it and find out our Charles Rose didn't even belong to Formeet Rose - Duncan Rose. I wonder why the (over) name change.

I heard from William Rose, the one that called me about Rosacrane & ended up talking about his Roses in Meigs Co. Ohio. Will photo copy what he sent as far as his Roses go. The Rosacrane info was interesting also. According to his Rose info they descend from ELIAS/ELISA ROOS/ROOSA b. 1753 Ulster Co. New York. His son JOHANNES ROOS became JOHN R. ROSE who m. ANNE Cox. - lived ~~White~~ Whitely Twp. Greene Co. PA. Lebanon Twp. Meigs Co. Ohio. Something doesn't look right with the info and maybe you will figure out what it is. Will copy it and the Gorment info next week when I work at the library again.

Happy New Year

Dear Mary:

I hope you had a good trip - relaxing and all that stuff. as I want you to be able to use all your energy in figuring out what Jacob Frank-Franks is the one listed on the 1850 Ohio Census that married Rebecca Rose. According to Mrs. Harley Franks info he didn't die until 1875. He probably is the Jacob Frank living in Darke Co 1850 + Susannah (Conner) Rose is probably living with them!!! I went up to the L D S. library Thursday. A friend told me they had all kinds of new info. I didn't really have time to do much research but did look at the Frank/Franks microfiche. There were lots in Wayne Co. Ohio + and they all married Hatfields + Millers.!!! I can order copy of all the Franks from microfiche and will do it. It takes a two or three weeks to get here. Also the Wayne Co. 1850 Census is up there on indefinite loan so will make a trip up there + read that. They do have lots of new stuff so if there is anything you want me to look up - let me know. I really think Mrs. Harley Franks showed very poor taste in passing away. I wonder if this Donald J. Sublette (see Desc. of Henry Fluhart enclosed) is still alive. Not living in Detroit now - I checked - but I did find another address for him in a 1971 Ohio publication. I also wonder if he corresponded with Mrs Franks. If not they should have been as his queries + hers were in the Ohio publication at about the same time. Note the Fleharts were in Wayne Co Ohio also. I checked the 1850 Michigan Census -

(over)

note Franks Diary Info
Allegan Co. - They moved there ca 1855. I would guess. The town Seville is in Medina Co. Ohio ~~not~~ just across the line from Wayne Co.

I brought home some more Ohio Books and found someone researching a Hopkins Horner from PA to Ohio - I think that was what it was. I thought you would like that one. I have all the pages marked in the Books but haven't copied yet. Did I send the John Gaunt info from Jay Co Ind? I don't think I sent the page I xeroxed for you.

Also remember you saying on the phone my Houseman family may have been from Fayette Co. PA + Monongalia Co - You were joking of course - Not funny at all - There were Houseman in Ohio from those places!!! I really needed that!

I had a D+C Monday in the Drs office - Five minutes - $350.00 - ~~Started~~ I have received all the Bills but no results from all the tests!!! Those Mammograms are something else. After I get through with all the Doctors, I'm not going to see another for 20 years.

Really hot here - So hot to do anything that I should be doing so have been working on the Gen. Dick just ask me if he should knock out another wall - since ~~I'm~~ using the Dining room table. He was being smart. but it sounds like a good idea to me. Well had best close.

Dear Mary:

Enjoyed talking to you even though I bitched a lot. but it was nice to finally share some good enough with you.

Law Suit filed in Monongalia Co. West Virginia

Jessey Penrose vs. the heirs of John Conner. (It has to be John Conner Jr. because of the land that was involved - It was John Jr's.) The heirs listed were:

William Griffith and Sabra, his wife
Peter H~~ANNES~~ARNESS and Gracey, his wife
William Johnson and Polly. his wife
Salley Conner
James Conner
Susana Conner
Margret Conner
Elizabeth Conner
John Conner
Sarah Conner

This was in 1813 but apparently started in 1797 - Freda is going to send me a copy. I called her yesterday - really a nice lady. I should have been writing to her more often. She has oodles of Conner info & hopes to publish a book by the end of the year. Get this - she also has a Shook/Shuck family and didn't know about all the Shooks in Darke Co. Ohio & how someway they may be connected with the Roses. & didn't know Harness family was in Fayette Co. Ohio - I didn't either until I started looking. Also on Susannah ~~Shook~~ Rose affidavit for Bounty Land Grant - or affidavit by

Adam HARNESS + James Corner - state they are well acquainted with Susannah Rose. They should be!
There were Harnesses in Clarke Co Ohio & will send Census Records that I have. One Anthony

He must be from our Corner family!!!

Dear Mary:

I certainly hope you aren't having all the rain that I hear about parts of Oklahoma getting. So far I haven't seen or read Bartlesville's name.

I had a note from Ruth Beatty this week + she said she received a note from Rose family Assoc. saying they now have definite Data tying Charles Rose as the Rev. Soldier of Hunterdon Co. N.J. I didn't get any note so what is the definite proof - Something new has been found??? Is it a report - let me know the cost and what I'm supposed to write Chris for so I can get a copy. Ruth also sent a photocopy of her Margaret (Rose) Boyseel - my Ezekiels daughter from first marriage. There is a definite family resemblance to some of my Rose pictures. Copy Enclosed.

By Sheer Dumb Luck I found (I think) Peter Harness who m. Grace Conner. I found a query in an Ind. publication from 1974 a lady researching this family. See enclosed info. The bad news is the lady ~~is not~~ lived in Portland, Oregon but no listing for her now. I checked our Ind. publications + found the 3 enclosed marriages in Carroll + LaPorte Cos. Ind. I have a Cousin in Oregon who will read the 1850 Census for these Counties. There were quite a few Harness families in Ind. I did find a query for a lady researching a Harness in Carroll or Clinton Cos. (over)

Am still trying to digest all the Conner info Freda sent. + have some more to copy for you. I brought home some Ohio Books. + found bits + pieces of Harness etc. When I get it copied will send. I have a new set of Great Grandparents.

Possibly from Madison or Franklin Cos. Ohio. In 1850 Huntington Co. Michael + Jacob living near John - possible brothers. If you run across the name in Ohio, let me know. The spelling of the name can be several different ways.

Am having a terrible time ~~trying~~ keeping up with the Gen. + getting ready to paint our bedroom, bathroom + living room. Raining today so don't have to worry about yard work. My goal today is just trying to get the dining room table cleared off so we can eat at it again. I started in at 7:00 this morning + I don't think I'm making any headway.

Dear Mary:

Half of Ohio was settled by people from Monongalia Co. W. Va. + Greene + Fayette Cos. Penn. The other half from Frederick + Hampshire Cos. Va. They all married each other and none of them know they are related!

Im enclosing the info I told you about on the phone + will have more after I go to the library tomorrow and do some photo copying. Remember talking about Gaunt + Mulliner - Went through your file folder and found you had written to Mrs. John H. Regn of Mt. Holly New Jersey. DAR Record of Moses Mulliner his daughter Rebecca Mulliner m. Hananiah Gaunt. It seems like there should be a connection with this Mulliner family and our Rebecca Mulliner. Im sure her mothers name was Freelove (Hopkins) Mulliner!!!

The info that James Conner m. 1st Nancy Douglas was sent to you by Sherwood Conner and it was given to him by Leah Shoemaker of Columbus Ohio.

I have got the most God awful mess on the Dining room table. I dont know what belongs to what. I think I had better straighten out. before Dick chucks everything. I also have a few letters to answer.

I went to the Dr. yesterday He did a D + C in his office - That was fun Only $350.00 for 5 min. Good Wages. Go back in two weeks - Start taking some pills June 19th. He doesnt think I need to have a hysterectomy (sp) unless something shows up from the D+C. tissue Now the Mammagram on Thursday. + hopefully I will be finished. Xray showed Lungs were clear - + Blood pressure 116/70. I guess that is pretty good. They should take it when I'm working on Charles Rose family. Freedom!!!

Dear Mary:

I have a bigger headache now concerning the Conner and Allied Families. See enclosed info. James Conner brother of John b. Beaver Co. PA. from Coshocton Co. Ohio. Now this has to be s/o James Conner + Sarah Severns. See Chart from Fredas info. James went to Iowa. Now see query from Mrs. Janice Sisler. There were two sets of Severns - Cousins that moved to Coshocton Co Ohio. One from West VA + one from Penn. Note Daniel Severns family sheet - daughter Rebecca b. Beaver Co. PA.

Now did I miss something in Fredas info - No where did I see info concerning James Conner + Sarah Severns as living in Beaver Co. PA. Now wouldnt it be logical to assume that James Conner + Sarah Severns may have been married in Beaver Co. PA.? I know County Histories can be wrong.

Now. the Workman family also appears to have two branches of ~~the~~ family and both came to Ohio. Samuel Clutter m. Hester Workman d/o Stephen + Hester (Critchfield) Workman. The sou. Hester was b. ca 1792 in Maryland. and Hester's brother was ~~Steph~~ Abraham Workman who m. Grace Conner d/o James + Sarah (Severns) Conner. Then we have the Joseph Workman b. 1782 s/o Isaac who supposedly m. Sarah Conner b. 1789 in Maryland. Note the same family names in both Severns & Workman family.

Robert Foreman m. 1766 Mary NAYLOR in Maryland. Is this the Robert Foreman who had daughter Elizabeth b. 1769 who married - Wm. Conner son of John who supposedly m. Mary Foreman 1749 First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia.

Send your next letter in care of Verna Rosacrans / Funny Farm. I will be babbling Conner / Severn / Workman!!!

When and where was Arthur Trader born according to DAR papers? and pray tell me how Arthur & Sarah (Conner) Trader's daughter b. 10 Sept. 1756 m. James Coburn when John Conner & Mary Foreman married in 1749 and this is supposedly Sarah Conner's parent? Only 7 year between 1749 & 1756 - !!! This is not the Arthur Trader who m. Sarah Conner - I must have missed something in the info and assumed this was the Arthur Trader who m. Sarah Conner. I just have info that a Sarah Conner m. a Trader. - why did I think it was Arthur? I can see why Sherwood thought that the Sarah Trader Conner who is buried in Creamer Cem. was d/o John Sr. She was b. 1763 - Robert Conner b. 1762 & Wm. Conner who m. Elizabeth Foreman was b. 1765. ~~[illegible]~~ This really doesn't make sense and Im going to go research another family.

Dear Mary:

Im not well at all - Mentally! I really don't care about the Harness, Webster, Griffeth, Whitmer Johnson, Severns, Conners, Franks, Hatfields and any other families that decided to marry into them! I thought the Rose family was a little screwy but the above families are even screwier. I wish Freda Strampe would have kept that Conner - Penrose ~~&~~ land dispute to herself and I would have still been fat, dumb, + happy as far as the Conners were concerned. How many times have I told you I didnt like Grandma Susannah (Conner) Rose!!

First the Harness family - See enclosed. You were right in saying that the Peter Harness in La Porte Co was not the one who m. Grace Conner - Too young unless the age is wrong on Census but his wife was named Grace! Did he marry another Grace Conner? In Monongalia 1802 there was a Peter Harness with wife Susannah and also a Peter Harness with wife Grace in 1813. - Are they the same? This Info from Fredas Conner info. Two Peters almost the same age. One in Green 1850 + one in La Porte Co. both born in VA. and then we have a 3rd Peter in La Porte b. ca. 1820 b. Ohio + he cant be Peters son who is age 45 in La Porte??? I give up.

Now the Conner info ~~gets~~ enclosed gets even more interesting but I know there is a perfectly logical explanation and you will explain it to me! I have just overlooked something or Im not understanding what Im reading or I know the answer and have forgotten about it. In any of your info or Freda's info did you get the impression there were two Conner families? I know there are probably some different Conner families in her info but if the info I found is correct, the Workman family has two Conner families in ~~the~~ their line. See the enclosed sheet from Danville Cem. Knox Co. Ohio On Isaac Workman b. 1782 m. Sarah Conner b. 1789 Maryland. Note his father was originally from New Jersey to Maryland - Nothing said about him being in W.VA or Pa. before coming to Ohio but I think he was. Just a guess. Note New Jersey, Maryland to probably Monongalia Co W. Va. and probably was in Fayette also. Does that little journey sound familiar? Charles Rose - New Jersey, maybe Maryland from your Elsie's 1850 Census b. Md. to Monongalia Co. W. Va.??? In the Danville Cem. there is also buried David Workman, b. 9 JAN. 1792 - d. 9 JAN 1850 Knox Co. s/o Stephen + Hester (~~Critch~~ Critchfield) Workman. Grace Conner b. 1784 m. Abraham Workman - 1800 Monongalia Co W.V. s/o Stephen + Hester (Critchfield) Workman. Grace Conner d/o James Conner + Sarah Severns. Stephen Workman a brother to Isaac Workman b. 1742 N.J.??? I have to go back to Vol XVI Vol 3 - Ohio Records + Pioneer families to find out who else was buried there. I think I copied it for Freda + sent it to her + didn't keep a copy for myself. Will copy and send to you. Now who do you think this Sarah Conner belongs to? Hopefully Freda may have the answer. ~~In~~ flat out lost! If you find Workmans in Please Hunterdon Co VA. - I don't want to know about it!!! Send me the info on Peter Harness from Greene Co Ohio (Cens Also do you have a copy of Arthur Snider's Rev. War (DAR) papers? You mentioned in one of your letters that some info you sent me was from his papers - If so, can you send me a copy. Why I really don't know.

It finally dawned on me that Jacob Franks - who married Rebecca Rose did not live in Ohio - both died in Fayette Co. Did you ever write to that Edward West in Dover, Ohio who was researching the Jacob Frank (Rebecca) family? I think I had better quit looking in the Ohio Books - all the names seem to be related and I forget who I am looking for. I know I looked for the name Freelove and didn't find any.

Went back for my checkup today and I passed all the tests. I need the bladder repair the worst. ~~but~~ & when I decide to have it fixed then they will probably take out the uterus as it makes the bladder repair easier. So far I can handle it.

Will had best close. My brain is really tired with the Conner family.

By for now

Dear Mary:

I have a couple of favors to ask. First is there 1860 Ohio Soundex - If there is could you order it + read it for me? I will send money for the rental - just let me know what it is. What I'm looking for is the whereabouts of my old Ezekiel Rose's first six children that he farmed out or put in Foster Homes after he married #2 in 1851. They are not listed with him in 1860-1870-1880 - even though he had 10 more children.

The names are

1. ELEANOR (ELLA) JANE Rose   b. CA 1839
* 2. JOHN HOPKINS Rose   b c1840 ✓
3. SUSAN Rose   b. CA1841 ✓
* 4. JAMES MARION Rose   b. CA 1842-OR1846 ✓
5. MARGARET ANN Rose   b. CA 1846 ✓
6. RACHEL MINERVA Rose   b. CA 1848
7. William HENRY Rose   b. CA1850 ✓

* John Hopkins + James Marion were living with their Aunt Rebecca Rose - Ezekiel's brother John's wife in 1860 in Greene Co. Ohio. The other children could be living with other families in Darke, Greene or Clark Co. Miami Co Fayette? My first choice would be Greene Co. Wouldn't it be weird if they lived with their Great Aunt Teelsie - Do you think he would put the children with relatives? Maybe his mother Susannah will show up. - I doubt it - she is another damned old lady. - she apparently put her kids in Foster Home also - at least Ezekiel. after Hopkins died. If there is no Soundex - I will pay for ordering the regular microfilm + Greene Co would be my first choice then Darke + Clark + Miami + Fayette.

#2 Favors - Could you check any of your Virginia Books - particularly Westmoreland Co - for the name LOVELL HARRISON. The only thing I have is from Virginia Taxpayers list 1782-1787 - LOVELL HARRISON Westmoreland Co. 3 slaves. Also the surname Lovell - in Virginia Records. I'm also looking for a Thomas BURGESS who lived in Orange Co. Virginia 1780.

#3 Favor - In your Tennessee Researching Books for 1983 or 1984 - in the Book Review section there was a lady advertising a Book. Marriages of Tallahatchie Co. Mississippi - I need her name + address + price of the book at that time. Thanks a Bunch.

not 1981-85

I've been going through my notebooks all afternoon getting myself familiarized again. That is why two letters today. Love Verna

Dear Mary:

I'm enclosing a page of stamps for you and don't send them back. Partial payment for all the photo copying you have done for me. You have sent me a lot more info than I have sent you.

I think today is going to be genealogy day or at least get the desk cleared off so I can do something at it - What a mess. I can barely find room to write a letter.

So far this week I have mopped and waxed the kitchen floor, went to town + bought two Christmas presents, took Kory + I to the dentist to have our teeth cleaned, + washed down the walls in the bathroom. + filled the Cookie Jar.
So far this morning I have spaghetti sauce in the crock pot, dishes done, house picked up, our bed made, Kory's blankets in the washer + it is only 9:00. I'm such a good little housewife!!!

Granddaughter Tesha is coming tomorrow. That will liven things up considerably around here. Also start coaching in Kory's Bowling League tomorrow morning. I got my coaching certificate in the mail yesterday. Last night at bowling I bowled a 146-159-220 really consistent. Good letter huh! Bye for now. Love Verna

Dear Mary:

Well my phone budget is ruined for the next two months but it was worth it + enjoyed every minute of it. Lordy I wished you lived closer. I decided I had better dig out the Conner info I promised you before I lost it again. Not really, Im getting so organized it is sickening! Had Conner info in two notebooks - now that is really, organization! Im actually getting there though.

Im enclosing note card of Sarah Conner b. 1763 + d. 1838 - buried Fayette Co. Ohio. - also the marriage record of Elizabeth Conner + Simeon Creamer. Saying she was 16 to 20 - she was born 1797-1803 - which would put her in the right age bracket for Sarah's daughter. Of course Sherwood had her as being the wife of John Sr. who died 1796 Monongalia Co. W. Va. - names wife Mary in will + had son Robert b. 1762. + this Sarah was b. 1763 - Talk about Immaculate Conception! If they had only put wife of James or John or whoever, it would have made it easier, I think!! I don't know if I ever checked the 1850 Index for Simeon Creamer. - would be interesting to know where Elizabeth was born. None of the Rose or Conner children were born - they just appeared! Also in going through my Conner info George seems to be a popular name - so Good Old George who died in Fayette Co. 1837 might be a relative also. Desc. of John Conner Sr. did go to Ohio - one in Darke Co.

They moved to Iowa + and from there a few to Oregon.
Found a query today from a lady in Oregon researching
John Conner b. 1819-1821 near Morgantown Monongalia Co
W. Virginia. m. Jefferson Co. ~~Iowa~~ 1843 Catherine Davis
b. Ohio 1826. I found her family in the Conner info.

Remember me telling you about the phone call I made to Ohio - man researching Dugan in Pulaski Co. KY + had info on the Cornelius Phillips + Rhoda Shores family in Wayne Co. Ky. + kept calling hall during the conversation - the info started arriving Monday - 1 huge ~~manilla~~ envelope like you send books in, small manilla envelope + a letter + another letter Tuesday. Lovely info - Only 60 according to his chart - single I presume. + probably in a round-about way we are cousins. Beautiful handwriting + all info neatly organized + documented - Can't be one of my Cousins. I think Fairborn is in Greene Co. - nice huh. See how far our correspondence goes maybe he will do some research for us. Im going to write him after I get through here. which is about now. I knew you wanted the Dunch Ancestor Chart..!!! Next week
Spring Vacation - might go to Olympia for a few days.
Im really thrilled about it. Not really as I know what we will do all ready + Im getting jittery about it now.

Dear Mary:

Thank You for the lovely Thanks-giving card. I bought all my cards in Oct. - Didnt you like the one you gott.? When I was ready to send them, the second Ice Age hit here. + needless to say didnt get any sent. We have all ready had our winter as far as Im concerned. It scared the hell out of me when I thought 10° was actually warm! Freezing rain this morning + then snow about 2". We had 10" last Sunday - now about 6". Every record was broken for this area.

Finally got my fridge back this morning. Hovert had one for a month. Make cooking a real joy. I felt like a real pioneer woman. + decided I didnt like it. Doing without the washer or dryer is a lot easier then going without a fridge.

You will be real proud of me. Ive been working diligently on organizing all my info + clearing out the files. Im saving the Rose info for last. I can actually see the top of the desk. + Im getting enthused again. Im also working at the Gen. Library every Wed. morning from 10 till 1:00. Im really quite proud of myself with what I have accomplished. I figure by the end of January. I will be so organized, + efficient that I wont be able to find anything! Actually it has been rather fun + have found some info that I had over looked before.

I'm enclosing some Burch info that you might have all ready. There were a Bunch of Burch's in North Carolina. I never did figure out if they were Our Burch family. I dont know where the Rose info came from I would guess something to do with DAR - I wonder why Ezekiel Rose was such a popular name with the Roses.. I have seen Ezekiel Rose & Harriett Coliton somewhere before. I rather like Lewis Rose with children named Charles & Rebecca. Actually I dont like the names at all! Anyway I decided you're the Rose expert now & you need all these little goodies.

I was sorry to hear about your Dad & hope he is getting better.

I'm having a terrible time trying to get ready for Christmas. I got my Christmas Cards out two days ago & have looked at them for two days! No Christmas shopping done. Will give it a whirl next week. I'm not enthused about it at all.

Well had best close & get my body to bed. By for now

Dear Mary:

After copying all this today it finally dawned on me you probably all ready have it. I thought I had to work at the Gen. Library today & went down there at 10:00 & another lady showed up so I did some research. Anyway discovered the Hickman Co. Records & found some of my Shores in it & as I was glancing through the Index discovered the Nunnelley name. We also have the History of Hickman Co. & there are lots of Nunnelley's in it. If you don't have it, let me know and will copy for you. On page 60 the Joel Hobbs that purchased land from Anderson Nunnelly - I'm pretty sure was the father of Charlotte Hobbs that married Hillaire Shores. We are just one big happy family!!!

I decided to be logical about researching down at the library. Since I haven't been there for 3½ years I decided to go State by State. Started Tenn. & Kentucky today. I did find a query for someone researching

John Rose + Rebecca Bower - Sound familiar - but I didn't copy it. Also when you have time put your names on 3x5 cards with states for me + will take when I go to library.

Dam fridge went out again - I think the answer to fixing it is to put a stick of dynamite in it.

Dear Mary:

I'm enclosing the info I have on Ezekiel Rose's Children & desc. from second marriage to Elizabeth Seil. I have a couple of Obits yet to send also. Do you have info on Margaret Rose & John Sibern? Margaret, Ezekiel's sister.

I'm taking off for Olympia today & will be back next Monday or Tuesday. Boy do I really need it. The washer went out last Wednesday & got that fixed Monday - The fridge went out Saturday - lost all the freon - small pin hole leak & everything thawed in the freezer part. & my big electric fry pan ~~the~~ legs fell off. the TV is acting up - the neighbors are getting a divorce & for two weeks - if one [illegible] on the phone, the other is knocking at the door - sometimes both at the same time! Yesterday it was about 3 hrs worth with the husband. Neither one has brain one. The neighbor boy - Kory's age - is fighting with his parents + he is here half the time. Everybody in the neighborhood comes to us with their problems or to borrow. I really think it is because our house is in the middle of the block!!! Needless to say I'm not getting much genealogy done or getting my stuff organized.

I did get a copy of a letter written in 1882 that stated my Shores family originated in New Jersey - That is the last place I would have looked for them + hope the guy that wrote the letter knew what he was talking about + wasn't senile when he wrote it.

Did you know that

Fayette Co. P.A. Hist & Gen. Soc?

I went down to our Gen Soc. last Wed to look up some info for my friend that moved from Maryland to Denver in Aug. All set to do some research myself & there wasn't a place to sit. so copied what she wanted & left. They have a bunch of new Census Indexes.

Send me the address of the library so I can get the notebooks sent. Also if you have any early records for New Jersey could you check for Sharks - Im talking 1700s to 1770s.

Let me know what other info you need on Hopkins & Susannah Rose as to Children & desc. etc. Bye for now. Have to go fruit picking. Love

Verna

Dear Mary:

How can one person descend from so many weird families! That damned Harrison descendant must be a real Broad! I could cheerfully wring her neck.- We have some DAR members who belong to our Society + they are a different breed - belonging to the DAR is the ultimate as far as they are concerned. Oh well at least I got two of the Childrens names. + some places to look. I did get a letter from a Cousin in Ohio (Rousseau desc.) + he said that Lovell Harrison married Hannah Footman. (FOOTMAN). His info came from Estella Duddleson an officer in the Idaho State DAR. I wouldnt be surprised if she isnt the one that joined DAR on Lovell Harrison + marked it closed. I used to correspond with her on the Rousseau family - she liked my info but really didnt want to share hers. so needless to say stopped writing.

My trip to Olympia was something else. It rained + (I do mean rain) the whole time I was there plus the wind. I guess Im not used to it anymore + didnt get around to see half the people I wanted to. I left two days earlier than I planned due to snow ~~in~~ on the pass. I didnt hit snow but had a wonderful time driving in the fog for about 50 miles. Half the time I didnt know if I was on the road or not. Really a fun trip. My appliances are still giving me fits. The dryer and fridge were broken when I got back from Olympia. At the moment they are all running.

I started working at the Gen. Soc. library last Wed. from 10 to 1:00. + will be for a while. I could hardly wait for 1:00 to come last Wed. I just couldn't seem to get my thoughts organized. + everytime I would start researching, the phone would ring or someone come in. Hopefully tomorrow will be easier + since the weather is so cold maybe no one will show up + I will have it all to myself!

We had our first taste of winter this past weekend. If it had snowed more we would have had a blizzard. Winds straight from the north 30 to 40 miles an hour. Some of the minor roads were closed. 8° this morning but blue sky + sunshine Another storm supposed to hit this weekend. I'm not ready for it.

Thank You for the stamps but I owe you more than you do me. What in hell are the Roses doing in Wisconsin - Miserable family. Yes, I agree Ineslove probably married the Czech + her sisters probably married his brothers!! + Rebecca the father! Well had best close + get this in the mail. I'm enclosing 3.00 + 1.00 worth of stamps for papers. Some person was in my wallet + took my ones!!

Dear Mary:

You would be so proud of me– I'm sitting here at my desk going through folders & actually organizing my info! Started yesterday & already have a garbage sack full of crap to throw out. No, the missing Rose link wasn't in any of the stuff I threw out– at least I don't think it was!

I'm enclosing a bunch of bits and pieces of info that I didn't know if I had sent to you or not. It would be interesting to know who the Nathaniel W. Rose was who enlisted in the Civil War. in the Preston West Va. Inf. Not on 1860 census or is he? So where in the hell did he come from – I know across the border from Fayette Co.! Probably living with the Indians! The letter was from a lady I wrote to about Van Scoy – Have you ever seen the publication called Cornerstones?

Note the editor is a researcher too.
& lives in Greene Co. Pa. & not that far from Morgantown W.Va. or Fayette.
Might be something to check into.

Thanks for all the goodies.

I wonder if John Overturf who died 1871 Greene Co. is the same one who sold the land to Jotham in Mo.
I have no idea who the John Rose age 46 was wh was living with good old Isaac Stumps. A little old to be farmed out by his parents unless he was simple minded! Must be one of ours! I do have record of a James I Rose of Morris Twp.
Greene Co. 1840 removed to Knox Co.
Illinois. Probably the above James father - Just kidding - I dont know who this one is either. I like the Ezekiel
Rose who married in Taylor Co.
Iowa too!

Must close & get back to work. Will send the info on Ezekiel Rose #2 children. Have a lot on those kids & dislike everyone everyone of them

Dear Mary:

Nothing like finding our Rose relatives in your own backyard. My next door neighbor is probably a descendant of Free love!!! If some of the Roses ended up in Oklahoma, surely some made it to Washington! The info was a lovely Birthday Present. How did you happen to hear from Anita Cooke? It seems like the John Rose History was passed to all his descendants so hope she has something more to offer. Thomas Marion was a good looking man. He looks normal - not what I had pictured Crazy Mr. John's kids to look like. He looks like ~~some~~ one of the pictures I have of one of my Ezekiels sons in Ohio. I think I sent you a copy of his picture. I've ignored Rachel Rose Lowell + Rachel Smith - Why do people think that what they read in a book is gospel + the same way with the Mormon Church info. I knew there was a reason why I never wrote to Rose Mary Nelson. I've read the letter 10 times + I'm still confused. You really do nice work + I'm really glad your such a lovely Cousin.

Congratulations on the new Grandson + how was the trip. I like his name. Joyce is really unusual.

I received some lovely Shores info from Wayne Co. Ky. Been trying to figure out what happened to David Shores in Wayne Co. On Tax List, + did married there but couldnt find him on the early Census. The dim wit died. Orphans Court Record 1815 (over) and names some children I didn't have. Do you have many Oklahoma County Histories or Biographical Books at your library & are they Indexed? Supposedly some of my Shores moved to Oklahoma. Do you have the 1860 printed Census for Tenn? We have it plus some 1860 Census Indexes & I can photo copy Nunnaley & various spellings for you. You probably all ready have the enclosed but just in case.

I sent Chris some Obits and she wrote a note to thank me plus told me about all your wonderful discoveries. From her letter "If we could just figure out about the daughters. However, Mary is busy working on it, so we will see." I'm sure somewhere in her info, she has something on one of them. Probably in the 4 scrapbooks of Obits she has. She also said they were going to try to get back to Monongalia Co. I wish she would try Fayette Co. Tenn.

Well had best close. Today I plan to work on my files & family books - the next 4 days. I'm tired of playing hunt & search. I've regained my enthusiasm & my memory seems to be coming back. That sounds like a dumb statement as far as the memory goes but it is true. I had to look up everything as far as family names & info. Have a Happy Easter property to Jotham in Scotland Co Mo & they were from Greene Co Tenn. Also Jotham Rose bought land from Abraham & Abigail Hixenbaugh of Appanoose Co. Iowa. The gal who is a descendant of Charles Rose & Emeline Hixenbaugh thought Abraham may have been her brother - which is likely possible but guess what Ruth Scudder Rose's mother's name was - You guessed it - Abigail - Isnt that nice - & we know that brothers & sisters did marry brother & sisters in the same family. I thought you needed to be confused some more - Both Abraham & Abigail are buried in Concord Cem Appanoose County - Also she wrote & said There was a John & Elizabeth Hixenbaugh buried in the Concord Cem. & John was born in Monongalia Co. West Virginia - Isnt that nice also! I think I will write to this gal & see if she has done any Hixenbaugh research, or if she could do some research on the above Hixenbaughs since she lives in Appanoose Co mainly to find out their children names. Maybe I really dont want to know!!!

I wouldnt get to concerned with Damned old Rachel saying she was born in Tenn. on the 1880 Census. At 84, her memory was probably a little cloudy - She should have known in 1850 & think Va is more likely Of course the census taker may have not been able to write Va - Apparently Rachel didnt know anything about her Rose Family - or if she did

She didn't pass it down to the Franks descendants. She knew that you and I were going to research the family & wanted to make it as difficult as possible. She, along with Rebecka, Hannah, Freelove & Mary are all probably rolling around in their graves laughing up a storm. They are all damned old ladies! Their brothers, Thomas, Hopkins & John & possibly Charles all died fairly young & they'd probably lived to be 100.

Back Again - Picked up the house, paid the Bills for the month. - I had to see how much was left over just using his retirement check & his salary check. I think I had better start Christmas shopping early. My dishwasher went out last Sunday - 140.00 to get it fixed. Just you wait & see - every thing will go.

I got the three ring binders (notebooks) last week. They are from Shearson Investment Co. so some have printed stuff on them but are in ~~but are in~~ good shape. Do you mind the printing? Don't even think about repaying for postage. I owe you ("for" Binder".. I might send U.P.S. rather than mail. So send me the Library's address. You sent it to me once but be damned if I can find it. Well guess I had better close. By for now

Dear Mary:

This is just going to be a little letter but did want to thank you for all the Harness info. I Think! That family is just as screwy as the Roses and the Conners. I did write to Barbara Black in Ohio to see if she would do some research on Adam + Susannah Harness. I found Adam Harness listed in 1840 Darke Co. but not in 1830 in any County unless they really fouled up the spelling of the name.

I really haven't been into the family stuff since July 4th. You might say we had fireworks here but not the firecracker kind. I guess you might say that 20 years of frustration resentment finally came out and now we are seeing a marriage Counselor. I get the feeling she thinks I'm a frivolous nitwit. I think it has done Dick a lot of good. He has lost a lot of weight but looks good. I told the Counselor that I would give it six months. I think I used up everything I had in the last 15 years. to make everyone think we had this lovely marriage. I care for him but whatever love was there died a long time ago. I've always put the family first but now I think it is time to think what is best for me. Yes, I could still live with him and do all the right things as long as there was no sex and he didn't touch me. but that isn't fair to him and I'm sure it would eventually lead to a miserable life. The kids had figured out a long time ago that I wasn't happy. and Korey even told Kelsey not to long ago — wondering why I stayed with Dick. Korey is my main concern as I don't want to do anything to hurt ~~and~~ him but I have been honest with him about everything and that I may get a divorce. He doesn't want to make the choice as to who he lives with and wants to know if he can live with Kelsey. Her life isn't that stable so that wouldn't work. I'm scared as hell at thought of being 45 and out in that big wide world again with not a whole lot of talent except being Susie Homemaker. My genealogy has been my escape valve. and I found you. I really think of you as a sister. I haven't told my family anything except you. and no one really knows what is happening. I guess the Catalyst in this whole situation was Kellys real father. I was not married in 1962 when I had Kelly. This was not the thing to do back then. I raised her for four years by myself. and did a damn good job of it. Dick did adopt her but when Kory was born. his interest in her went away to a degree. & her life was miserable. I wanted to tell her she was adopted when she started school but Dick said no. After that when I thought the time was right. she was always going through a traumatic experience. so anyway she did not know until last year. when she wanted to give us a 25th anniversary party.

June 28th. I went to Olympia to my sister-in-laws mothers 80th Birthday Party. She was like a second mother to me. Anyway Kelly had decided that she would like to meet her real father. and asked me to look him up. That is one of the hardest things Ive ever had to do. I did get a hold of him and we went to dinner - shouldnt have I know. It was like 25 years hadnt gone by and talked to him a lot easier than I ever did Dick. He was terrific about Kelly + had been looking for her. but none of my friends would give out any info and we had been on their side of the mountains for 15 years. He came to see her the weekend of the 4th and she has been to see him in Olympia. I think they are going to have a neat relationship and she is going to have the father figure she has always wanted and needed. She and Dick had a long talk also + cleared the air about a lot of things and they have a better relationship. So there is my whole sordid story- just like the Soap Operas. Are you sure you still want to claim me for a relative and do research? If not I will understand. At least I didn't farm her out like Grandpa Ezekiel did with his first set of kids. This is probably what Irre love did and she was banished from the family and I take after her!!!

To top off the 4th, my sister-in-law called that night to tell me my oldest brother had a massive heart attack. Couldn't have visitors until last week so went over. He looks good but his main problem is that his mitral valve is not working plus of the three main arteries going to his heart, only one is working + the other two are dead. His lungs keep filling up with fluid + they have to decide whether he can go through the operation for a new valve which is risky. It has not been a good month. Will keep you posted if you are interested. If you have any good advice, please write. Love Verna

Dear Mary:

I dont know where the time is going. Your letter was dated April 9th!! When your letter arrived, I really needed it, and the things you wrote did help as I was having a massive case of the "Guilties". I must be doing better as my fingernails are growing again, my hair is getting a shine to it + my skin is not as dry. There for a while, I felt like a dried up prune. My nerves seem to be calming down also. I filed for Divorce last Monday + picked up a copy of the papers last Friday. The papers will be sent after the 18th. I feel like Im heading into the unknown but I know Im a survivor. It has dragged out long enough + both Dick and I need to get on with our lives. Kelly has switched to be all for Dick which is fine but does hurt. But Dick may have lost Kory to a degree. I hope he and I can maintain some sort of friendly relationship for the kids sake. Kory wants to stay there and finish High-School and he has been picked a representative for his Class next year.

Work is going OK. In April for a Couple of Weeks I was working 9 hr. days. There is a lot to learn - mainly the Computer. + we are getting a new one at the end of this Month - It is a nerve wracking job and they are thinking about hiring another girl part-time. There are times I really miss being "Susie Homemaker" but maybe someday I will be one again.

It was nice of Prof. Steven Hill to finally answer your letter. The only thing I can't figure out is - is he related or descended from Charles Rose via son Thomas or who is he a Hixenbaugh Researcher? I wish I had my info here. You know Mary if the Rose info only comes once every 10 years, I'm not going to live long enough to find out what happened to Freelove! Do you think Thomas Rose just had the 3 kids - Jotham, Charles + Abigail? It sounds like Abigail should have been married before. but Charles Roses children + Grandchildren are so strange, who knows!

I had a call from the little lady in Mississippi researching Wm. Rousseau. She thinks she finally found him. In Wayne Co Tenn (1850) living with a Jobe family. His daughter Julia m. a Jobe. + Wm. Rousseaus name was spelled "Usseau" or something like that. Can you check it for me? He is in his 70's.

Well had best close - Have some more letters to write.

Dear Mary:

You can call during breakfast, lunch, or dinner anytime! Talking to you is more important than food. Besides I need to lose a few pounds according to the scales! I classified your call last night as my dessert! You really are a good researcher. Between the two of us, if we lived in the same town, we could put other so called researchers out of business and probably make good money.

After talking to you, I dug out my Rose Notebook and looked up the Overturf info I have. No James listed but they were from Fayette Co. Pa. + also Greene Co. John Overturf was the father of children I have info on + he married Elizabeth Kemley. This John was probably the son of either a Valentine or John Simon Oberdorf that became Overturf. Some of John and Elizabeths children moved to Licking Co. Ohio. Masontown, Fayette Co. Pa is the town they were from. There was an Overturf Family Book printed in 1980 by Dorothy Cunningham. + I think she lives in Ohio. Since Abigail didnt have any children by James, maybe that is the only Rose Overturf connection??? Also, I looked at the Land Records I have for Jotham in Scotland Co. + he bought + sold an awful lot of property! ~~You know~~ Has anyone every really sent for Thomas Rose's War of 1812 papers? The whole record? I have bits + pieces of info from

What Chris Rose copied from Land Bounty Application
I record what she typed from Land Application
"Memphis, Mo. 20 July 1853 forward land Warrant when it comes to Morgantown direct to Memphis, Scotland
Co. Mo. signed Thomas Rose. This tells me that Thomas Rose was in Memphis, Mo in 1853. His son Charles Rose was there in 1852. The first land record I have for Jotham is Feb. 11. 1861 - between him and John +
Sarah Overturf of Greene Co. Pa. We know that Abigail (Rose) Overturf Hixenbaugh married Scotland Co. there in 1856. I think the families may have all went to Scotland Co. at the same time. Now are you really ready for a harebrained idea. Look at the date Thomas was born ca 1784 - The birth dates of his known children are 1~~818~~ 1818 to 1825. He married late in life or was possibly married twice!! What I'm thinking is that maybe he had another daughter Sarah who married John Overturff. Jotham purchased land from ~~both~~ both John + Sarah Overturff + Abraham + Abigail Hixenbaugh. Could this be land inherited from father Thomas Rose + that he did get his Bounty Land Grant? Even if he died, the widow + children could apply for it. I find it odd that a John + Sarah Overturff of Greene Co Pa. owned land in Scotland Co. Mo. Were there any Overturfs in Scotland Co. 1850 or 1860? Appanoose Co?
Maybe worth checking. Boy do I miss the Yakima Gen. Library. Also you said there was no will for Jotham - or did you mean Thomas? I'm sitting here holding Jotham's will in my hot little hand. Filed and exhibited for Probate & record by W.T. Fowler this 30 Day July 1901. L. S. Myers Judge of Probate. Jotham died 14 July 1901. Will was made 27 May 1892. J. Moore & A.W. Sawyer were witnesses. The estate is divided between wife Elizabeth & "his only other legal heir William T. Fowler." Will send you a copy as it sounds like he may have had property outside of Scotland Co. I wonder if Elizabeth made a will & what happened to W.T. Fowler. It almost sounds like Wm. Jotham Fowler's wife Hannah Rose had died by the time he made the Will. as was son Thomas. I figured him for a possible Civil War Casualty.

Well I have been sitting here for two hours trying to get this letter written. Jerry is working so have all day to play with genealogy. I still can't say I feel real perky yet. Talked to daughter Kelly this morning & she has had the flu for about 3 weeks. Started with cold, chills etc Bronchitis & now Sinus problems. She will move into her mobile home the end of this month & is anxious to do so. I will be going over next weekend to see Kory in his play. Enclosing the Nunnally query. It was from Ky Ancestors so you may have it all ready. Well had best close. By for now - "Get Well"

Dear Mary:

I received your lovely Abigail Rose report. You really do nice work. and I do agree with you that she is the daughter of Thomas + Ruth Rose. and all your research fits together. and you have all the documentation. My thinking that Thomas Rose may have been married before and had daughter Sarah was just a wild idea. I do think that Thomas made it to Scotland Co. Mo. though. I did notice that Abigail + Abraham were married by A. Overturff or at least looks like that. It must give you great personal satisfaction to find a missing link. I'm very proud of you + I'm very glad your my Cousin + friend.

I think noticing Nehemiah Sexton as a witness for the two marriages was a great find + I'm surprised it wasn't discovered sooner. I'm surprised Chris thinks that Charles was related to John Rose or Isaac. Rose. When I was writing to her, she always felt Charles was from the Hunterdon Clan. I wonder what made her change her mind. Can't be because of the land thing. and nothing I have read on John or Isaac leads me to believe there was a direct family relation. I wish you and I could get into her computer - I'm sure the answer is there.

I did write to Linda Sue Zerts - desc of Charles + Emeline but haven't heard anything from her. She was single at the time when she first started writing to me - She probably married a Hixenbaugh! I find it hard to believe that she or someone in her family didn't know that Abigail was her Charlie's sister. (Linda) & she lived and grew up in Centerville.

I'm enclosing Jotham's will and a couple of queries. I wonder why the researcher didn't find the will. Of course the lady who sent it to me was a little strange.

Well tomorrow I start my new job - only 25 hrs a week & the bulk of the 25 hours will be weekends. It is in the Service Dept of a large grocery store - Selling lottery tickets, movie videos, Western Union etc. Come Sept, I hope I will be unemployed for good unless the bookstore thing developes.

Saturday, I go to Yakima again to see Kory Bowl & it is also the Mother & Son dance at the Highschool. & I also have to have a critical discussion as he calls it with Dick. I keep wondering if he will ever get himself straightened out. I'm letting him make me a Basket Case again. I'm not looking foreward to Kory's graduation. which should be a very happy occaison. & will do my part to make it so. As you said I feel like I have 3 children & the oldest one is the worst meaning Dick.

I did have a lovely surprise last weekend when I got home and didnt discover it until late Monday afternoon. Jerry had brought home an IBM Selectric Ball Type - self correcting Typewriter. Older type + has the wide carriage. What a dream to type on + I may make being a Typist yet! He has been working for the State + picking up used equipment + dropping it off at the Depot. + he found this typewriter. He mentioned when I got home last Sunday, he wanted to do some typing but couldn't get near the typing credenza attached to my desk as it was stacked so high. and I didnt even go into the Rec. Room until late Monday afternoon. What a lovely surprise. The next info I get, I will type it for you.

We have had lovely weather all week - in the 60's and everything is blooming. I need it about 80 so my blood will start circulating. Im sure it is stress nerves plus smoking doesnt help. but I seem to be cold all the time and I literally shake inside and outside. Then I have hot flashes at night sometimes + I wake up soaked. One extreme to the other.

Well had best close and go get ready for my Big Day tomorrow. We wear white Blouses with a Bow they furnish + also an apron - Black, Dark Brown, Dark Blue or Dark Green slacks + Black Shoes which I dont have any at the moment - not comfortable older ones for being on your feet all day. Most of the gals appear to wear the Black Leather Tennis shoe type which I can't stand. & I think they look dumb. My age is showing.

Dear Mary:

Two letters in the same month - you lucky person! I thought you might like to see a copy of the letter I received on Monday from the DAR lady who was helping our Cousin Carolyn Harshbarger join the DAR under John Rose. From the letter, the evidence they had was enough, and the DAR accepted it. The only evidence I had was "guilt by association". I wonder what evidence/proof this Glenda Thompson put together. I wonder what the problem is with the other desc. of John Rose - the one you wrote to and had a reply from + then never heard from again. I think her name was Carol Bruner. I know I sent her name and address to Michael Reeks but to my knowledge he never contacted her. I would think this Carolyn Harshbarger would know of her as they are from the same family. Your relatives are weird!! I will write to this Carolyn Harshbarger. I wonder if she knows why Elijah Shook received 1/7th part of the 80 acres Darke Co. Common Pleas Court Oct. 1857. I remember we hashed over Elijah Shook a lot trying to figure out why he received 1/7th part of the land. I don't think we ever came up with an answer but did we ever discuss the possibility that he was the ~~a~~ illegitimate son of John Rose? That thought just struck me as I was reading the petition. Of course it maybe a dumb thought as it is 3:00 AM in the morning! It was a dumb thought as I just looked at the 1850 Darke C. Census and there is none E. Shook. that fit the age bracket.

July 26th - Good Morning - It is only 4:30 am - Anytime I sleep past 2:00 AM it is a miracle. Well I am no longer unemployed - I went back to work Thursday and hopefully my sleep pattern will change. I am working for Goodwill Ind - (Thrift Store). They are in the process of opening a new store on my side of Town. I will be making their Sales Tags + in charge of verifying antiques and old Jewelry from their donations. The pay is not that great but it is 40 hrs. a week 8 to 4:30 - Monday thru Friday - Holidays off + paid for them. After 90 days Medical - my Medical would be about $79.00 a month with dental - That beats the $309.00 I now pay. Two weeks paid vacation after ~~the~~ a year. It is only a 10 min drive and I can wear Jeans/Slacks - Tennis shoes - T-shirts - as long as they are clean and neat. Full time jobs around here with Benefits are in short supply. I really didn't want to go back to being a waitress. I hope I like it as I want my last 7 or 10 years of working to be with no stress. I finally got my retirement check from Woolworths - 3 days before (over) they made the announcement they were closing their stores. The ones that had theirs rolled over into IRA's, have not heard anything.

Well my baby is 26 years old today. It doesn't seem possible. Those 26 years really whizzed by.

If this job works out, I am going to have a computer by next year for researching. My daughter Kelly had to learn how to use the internet at work so told her to practice on Genealogy. I had the internet address for the Indiana State Library. I couldn't believe what she found. She also browsed thru the Wilkes Co. NC. Gen. Web site ~~pg~~. and said they had lots of info - plus queries. One of these Saturdays in the near future, we are going to the Olympia Public Library and she is going to show me on their Computer how to use it. I, also, need to start using the LDS Library here.

Well had best close and get ready for work - I do have to work this Saturday and maybe tomorrow. and will have Tuesday off I think. By for now - Love Verna

P.S. Why does the name Shanck ring a bell with me in connection with the Rose Family? Were they from Monongalia Co. W. Va.?

The Christmas Stamp is to remind you that it is only 5 months away!

so sent her his name + the phone number I had. Did I ever send you his family sheets - I think there are 9 or 10 of them. I think he had Hopkins + Susannah as John's parents before I contacted him - but maybe not + maybe I was the one who put the bug in his ear. I did offer some suggestions. One of which was to check Miami Co. Records since he was married there. And maybe there just isn't any proof. Has anyone else joined DAR under Charles Rose since you were accepted as the first? I think you descend from the only safe + sane child of Charles Rose. My line is weird + crazy and the others are a little circumspect!

I need to pick your brain - What does the term Relinquishment mean to you when you see it in a Deed Book - I've usually seen it in connection with a widow relinquishing her rights of dower - giving up the property due to her remarrying - selling the property (putting a man in charge since they didn't figure women had any brains in those days) or the person was mentally unstable. Why would a nephew - son-in-law relinquish rights (not the wife). This was in Kentucky. Property being sold - wife died + money ~~f~~ goes to her heir??? Let me know your thoughts. Best close have bored you enough with my ramblings. Love Verna been busy making jam - Rasberry - Logenberry - + Wild Blackberry + freezing also. Tomorrow should be Rasberries again. The Wild Blackberries are precious but miserable to pick. They sell for $20 to $25.00 a gallon. So far I have frozen 12 quarts + made two batches of jam. I may get one more picking on Sunday. It is supposed to be nice this weekend. We have had 36" of rain since Jan. Even that is a little much for Western Wash. Summer is out there somewhere! The garden is waiting for sunshine. The only thing that is growing is my one zucchini plant - I am only allowed one!

I am still unemployed but need to ~~get~~ start getting serious about job hunting. The check book is getting a little low. Jerry has bronchial pneumonia - both ears are infected + plugged + can't hear anything. He went to the Dr. Tuesday + the prescription is not working so goes back today. I will be glad when he is well - need I say more!

I also, wrote to the lady concerning John Rose + Rhoda Crate - The DAR lady who was researching for a desc. I did find a bunch of GILBERT family sheets from a Robert Gilbert that I had written to in the 1980s. (over

Dear Mary:

I just wanted to let you know. I am giving up researching! These Computer Genealogists are driving me crazy. They are messing up a hobby I love dearly. Maybe I am not going to give up researching but I am not sure I am going to write any more letters to people regarding queries I find even if they are a direct "Cousin"! They can struggle for info as I have done for 20 plus years. The following is what did me in. I wrote to a lady in Ky - Found her query in the Helper researching Richard Womack who died 1819 Wilson Co. TN. I knew this Richard Womack was the father of Jane (Womack) Creighton who married #2 Philip Shores 1817 Wilson Co. TN and they had 5 children that I have info on. Now this lady descends from the above Jane's brother Elijah Womack. who lived and died in Wilson Co. TN. My thought when writing to her was that she might have a tid-bit of info on the Philip + Jane Shores family - the children or some Shores info. Just forget that but I did receive 11 pages of Computer printout - No note - nothing - not even a signature at the end of the 11 pages!! She did have Philip + Jane Shores listed and the names of their 5 children but no other info. I was nice and wrote her a note thanking her for her 11 pages.

I also have three McBride Cousins and they all have computers & all they do is E-mail back and forth and then write me for info. I know you can do wonderful things with a Computer like tapping into Libraries for records-and other places - Why dont they use them like they should be used instead of E-mailing letters and notes to save a .32¢ stamp! I just received a bunch of info on desc. of McBride family and ~~Im~~ not sure I'm going to send it to them. I sent part of it to two of the Cousins 6 weeks ago and havent heard a word. I also, wish some of these people who had computer would get a printer or whatever they need to make the computer print bigger - some I need a magnifying glass to read it -

Well now that I have vented my frustration on Computers and mad because I dont have one - probably a good thing as I would be on it all the time and in ~~ne~~ every Library that had an internet address that pertained to Genealogy. How was your trip? I hope you had good one. The trip to Reno was fun and made a donation to a few Casinos! My Bowling left a little to be desired!!! I did meet a lot of nice ladies from all over the U.S. Since I got back, I have

Dear Verna,

Got your letter on Hopkins Rose I had wanted info about for a lady for DAR papers. I went ahead and sent her papers in and tried to put together some evidence that I hoped they would accept that John Rose was s/o Hopkins. The Gilbert man you named is a cousin I believe of the lady who joined DAR. They had gone to Greene & Fayette Co.OH several times looking for some records,but not the correct ones found/survive.The DAR application papers were proven and she was admitted June 11th to NSDAR. I haven't rec'd the proven papers back yet for our Chapter files but am excited to see them and if they have any additional notes made on them. I was very happy when I heard they approved the info that was sent as I know the lady worked very hard to find other info., plus I also did. I want to thank you for trying to help with it and charts you sent. I am sending you some computer family info.that Michael Reck of Dayton who has been working on the ROSE families but didn't have the proofs needed either. Also I am sending you the lady who joined DAR on Charles Rose so maybe you & her can correspond with each other. She said she would like to hear from you.

I'm sorry for my delay in getting this to you but have had many problems also with family & my computer modems from a storm last week. Then got my car in our busy Mall area hit last wk. It is very small dents in doors but estimate very high. Not sure if Insurance will pay or not. Hope all of your problems are better by now. Thanks for writing & let Carolyn hear from you on your Rose line.

Dear Mary, 19 Sep 1993,

Well, it's been one quick summer. I finally got a two week break from my training and took a fast trip into WV. I didn't find a whole lot, but did get something that at least suggests that the Franks and the Rose families were familiar with one another.

Caroline Lewellen wife of Michael was the niece of Benjamin Lewellen and Rachel Rose. Caroline's father was Thomas Lewellen brother to Benjamin. Additionally, in some of the information you sent I noticed that Doctor Lewellen was requested to post bond for Rebecca in the administration of Charles' will. He didn't do it, but Doctor was in all likelihood the Doctor who fathered Thomas and Benjamin.

I didn't find any other information that supports Jacob Franks' wife being Rebecca Rose, but with the names of the children of both Jacob and his son Michael's families, it seems the most logical assumption to make.

My offer still stands on sending you any information I have on any of the names I currently have in my data base. I would also appreciate any other information on the Rose grandchildren and their lines that you would be will to share with me.

I have sent out a number of other inquiries, but haven't had much success with responses. We found some other lines while in Monongalia Co., WV and found a few historical markers. The children were once again fascinated that there is so much to learn that can be fun as well as educational.

The school year is off to a very good start. And, it seems that it will be a very good year. Look forward to hearing from you.
Sincerely,

Paul

Dear Mary,   20 May 1993,

Once again I want to thank you for all the information you sent our way. I have enclosed some money to cover postage and copy costs. It was very enlightening. The children are fascinated that so much can be learned from just taking the time and read.

I would be very grateful for any information on the rest of the Rose connection. I can enter it in the database and if I come across others who are researching the line, it makes it easier to share the information.

As soon as you tell me what names you are interested in from the list I sent last time, I will send a disk with all the information we hold on them. Most of the Franks information came from a book published in 1979 called "The Micheal Franks Genealogy". There are no more available, but I happened to find it at the Library of Congress.

I don't know much about the DAR Library, but I guess one of these days we should look into it. If you have been there, maybe you could tell us about what it's like.

I haven't been able to take the family on any recent research trips. I have been undergoing some intensive cross training at my job and it has kept me very busy. If we do come across anything of interest, we will pass it along for your benefit.

Sincerely,

Paul Cl

Hi Mary,

I find your listing showing the commonality of the names of William and Freelove's children with Rose relations quite interesting. I had not considered that angle. There certainly is a lot of similarity. I checked my Bowen line and Thomas, William's father, had an Elizabeth by his first wife, Agnes Crea/Cree, and a Thomas and a Mary by Elizabeth Spicer.

The information that Wilma Orcutt provided me is, as you say, sparse and the only source she has for Freelove Rose being the wife of William is a bible that belonged to her great aunt, Georgia Brewer, who she said passed away a few years ago. She says she got the information when she was 18 years old and that it lists Thomas Spicer as being married to Magaret Stansberry and that his parents were William Bowen and Freelove Rose.

I asked where the Bible might be and she throught it might be with a nephew of Georgia's in Colorado, but when she contacted him he said he had never seen it. Georgia apparently died in a nursing home in Englewood, Col. It's probably lost forever.

On a related matter, I'm pretty well convinced that William and Freelove had another daughter who was born prior to 1820. Checking the Pennsylvania census records, I found the following:

1820 Federal Census, Whitely Township, Greene County, Pa
Page 338 (Roll 33-98)
William Bowen
1 male 16-26 (William)
1 female under 10 (unknown)
1 female 16-26 (Freelove)

1830 Federal Census, Ohio County, (W)Va
Page 200, Line 25, (Roll M19-198)
William Bowen, head of household,
1 male 30-40 (William, born 1798)
One Female, 30-40 (wife, Freelove, born about 1800)
One Female under 5 (Elizabeth)
Two females 5 to 10 years (Minerva and Hannah)
One female 10-15 years (unknown)
One male under 5 years (Thomas)

The Unknown female does not show up in the 1840 census data, but she would have been 20 -25 by then and quite probably married.

I have a copy of the marriage license for Charles L. Bowen and Mary E. Riggs who wed Sept. 24, 1854 in Marshall County, VA (W.Va.) It, strangely enough, lists Charles' parents as William and Fraton Bowen. I have assumed that Freelove's full name was possibly Fraton Freelove or Freelove Fraton. Does this fit with any information you might have in your Rose files??

As I think I mentioned in an earlier note, Freelove Bowen is buried in Oak Grove Cemetery on Fork Ridge in Marshall County, WV. It identifies her as the wife of William and states she was 36 years old when she died 23 Feb. 1836. This would mean she was born about 1800 which seems to track the approximate birth date for Freelove Rose. For some time I thought that perhaps she had died giving birth to Charles, but later was able to establish his date of birth as 1834. William moved back to Greene County after the death of Freelove where he married Nancy Eneix in 1837. He is in the 1840 census in Greene County, PA and the 1850 Marshall County census.

I too have William and Freelove Rose in my files, without proof, although, like you, I'm pretty well convinced of the data's legitimacy. Hopefully, one of these days we will have the same success with this information as you did with Thomas Rose and Ruth Scudder. I hope it's not going to be 15 years, however. I'd be almost 85. :-))

Sometime in the next several months, I hope to get over to Greene County, PA and do some on site research. Maybe I can turn up a church record showing the marriage. The Bowen's were Baptists, but I don't know about the Rose's. I also want to do some more work in Marshall County and possibly find some death record for Freelove. My only problem is when I get back to my home town (Moundsville) there are so many people to see and visit that my research time suffers.

Mary, I'm pleased to find someone like you who is as interested in solving this enigma as I am. I look forward to working with you.

Hope your holidays are enjoyable. Ours will be. Our daughter and her family (a six and a four year old) arrive on Sunday for a week. It'll be great having "Santa" back in our house on Christmas.

Best regards,

Bill

I will be 86 in 15 years, so cannot wait too much longer to find the correct information concerning Freelove Rose..............

Have a few scattered records for the Goshen Baptist Church of, it seems, Greene Co. PA. A couple of the listings concern Abigail Scudder and her daughter Ruth who were received into the church. Ruth is the one who married Thomas Rose (Freelove's brother). Also, noted that on 27 Aug 1785 Thomas Bowen was received into the church. The "pastor", apparently well known, was John Corbley........hence, Corbley Bowen, born 22 Aug 1794, son of Thomas and Elizabeth. The records, in part, are on the internet and I reached what has been transcribed through "Google". The material that I have was published in the Cornerstone Genealogy Society quarterly over a period of time. Cannot remember who send me the copies, but it was many years ago.

The name Fraton Freelove or Freelove Fraton means nothing to me. I did note on, I believe, Ancestry that someone else has called her Fraton Freelove. Do you suppose she was a Fraton and not a Rose?? I have never seen a Fraton for a surname. Will continue to think and look for anything on Freelove and let you know if I find a thing.

Our children (three) will not be home this Christmas. All live a great distance and one grandson will be married on 4 Jan 2003. Everyone is saving the travel time for the big wedding.

Have a happy holiday and will talk later.

Does anyone have any information on a Charles Rose of Monongalia County, WV, whose daughter Freelove Rose was born about 1799, probably in Monongalia County. Charles will was probated Sept. 1816 and names Freelove as one of his daughters. I believe this is the Freelove Rose who married my great-great grandfather William Bowen and lived in Dunkard Township, Greene County, PA before moving to what is now Marshall County, WV. about 1830. She died in Marshall County in March 1836. Contact me at WCHAD@aol.com.

Thomas Bowen was born in 1747 in Wales and married Agnes Crea, by whom he had six children, the last of which is known to have been born in Greene County, PA in 1784. After Agnes' death, Thomas married Elizabeth Spicer Daugherty, widow of William Daugherty and a survivor of the Spicer Massacre of 1773. They also had six children, including William, my gggrandfather, who was born in 1798 and married Nancy Eneix. They lived in what is now W.Va. for a time (1850 federal census lists the couple and 12 children) but later moved to Illinois where they are both buried.

Many of the Bowen children remained in W.Va.

I hope this is of help. I have additional information on this family if you're interested. You can contact me at WChad@aol.com

Yes, Mary, the William you described in your message is my great-greatgrandfather. Your listing of children for his first wife is the same as mine. He married his second wife, Nancy Eneix, daughter of Brice and Leah Mace Eneix, on 22 March 1837 and they had 10 children. The first nine you have. The last, Isaiah, was born 22 Aug. 1853 probably in Marshall County, VA (now W.Va.)

Freelove Rose Bowen died in 1836 in Marshall County and is buried in Oak Grove Cemetery. Her tombstone lists here as wife of William.

I would like to discuss this line in more detail with you. You can contact me directly at Wchad@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you. Bill

Hi Mary,

I also have been in contact with Wilma Orcutt ... and recently. Her e-mail address is Orcutt1961@cox.net.

She also gave me the information that her Aunt Helen reportedly copied from Thomas S. Bowen's Bible which stated that he was the son of William and Freelove Bowen. Regretable, she reports the Bible is missing.

I am also convinced that Freelove Rose was the first wife of William Bowen, but have never been able to "complete the circuit". I have a copy of Charles Rose's will which names Freelove as a daughter along with your Alsey Rose. However, there is nothing to difinitively connect this Freelove with William.

However, we must remember that Monongalia County, WV is just a short distance across the border from Greene County, PA., which puts the two in close proximity. I have tried to check Greene County marriage records, but they do not go back to that far. I keep searching, but cannot find the "clincher."

I got in touch recently with Christine Rose, a certified genealogist, who is the overseer of the Rose Family Association Nationwide and a Rose Family Website (Rose Family Association Nationwide). Maybe you've previously found it.

Christine has Freelove as a daughter of Charles and Rebeckah (sic) but has nothing on their children.

I hope the additional information I sent you on the family was of help. If you have any questions let me know.

I look forward to working with you on this line ... and proving Freelove was indeed William's wife.

Hope your holidays are merry ... and happy "hunting" in the New Year.'

Best regards,

Bill

Hi Bill,
I work at the LDS Family History Center every Thursday afternoon (not an LDS member) through our genealogy society who helps staff the library. Found that Wilma Orcutt had entered the William Bowen/Freelove Rose info on the Pedigree Resource File, but has little on the family but her line Thomas Spicer Bowen through his daughter, Lovemia Bowen. Even this information is sparse.
I have belonged to the Rose Family Association since the 1980s and work with Christine often on the Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose family. As I recall, I mentioned to Chris several years ago that I "felt" that the Freelove who married William Bowen might well be the dau of Charles and Rebecca. I found the names of the children of William and Freelove quite interesting.........

Minerva - named for ??
Elizabeth - probably named for William's mother
Hannah - Freelove had a sister by that name
Thomas - Freelove had a brother by that name
Mary - Freelove had a sister by that name
Charles - Freelove's father and brother had those names

Freelove's brother, Thomas Rose, married Ruth Scudder in probably Greene Co. PA and their three children were born in that county before 1850 when they moved to Monongalia Co. VA where the Rose family had lived since 1796. The children of Thomas and Ruth moved to Missouri and Iowa after 1850.
I wish PA had marriage records, but most of the early marriages can only be found in church records. The Rose family marriages occurred, probably, in Greene and Fayette Cos, PA. I was fortunate that my ancestor, Alsey Rose, married James Conner in Monongalia Co. Va.....where she lived. Only one other child of Charles and Rebecca, John Rose married in Monongalia Co. Marriages for the rest of the children are not to be found..........
I have included William Bowen and Freelove Rose in my Rose genealogy for many years and show it "without" proof. I did the same with another line of Thomas Rose and Ruth Scudder, and bingo......several years ago a researcher that I had hired in Iowa found a death certificate for a member of that family which stated that his mother was Abigail Rose. She was the dau of Thomas and Ruth. My guess was proven correct after 15 years of research. I rather feel the same about Freelove and will leave the William and Freelove line in my Rose line until it is proven wrong, but will always show it as unproven.
Do you have any ideas on how to proceed with this William and Freelove research??
I have the 1850/1860 Marshall Co. VA census records and marriage records for that county that I abstracted many years ago. It seems unlikely that any deed or probate records would help concerning Freelove. The only records, as I mentioned earlier, that might be of help are church records in Greene Co. PA.
Let me know what you think.
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Mrs. Wilma P. Orcutt
P. O. Box 71
Otoe, NE 68417

Dear Wilma,

It was nice talking to you and receiving the names and dates of the family of William Bowen and Freelove Rose. I am excited to begin the research on these two in hopes Freelove is the daughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose. We know by the will of Charles Rose that they definitely had a daughter, Freelove. Now to prove that she is the one who married William Bowen.

I am enclosing a family group sheet for Charles and Rebecca and their known children and sending a copy of his will which lists the children. After I can be sure that this is the right Freelove, I will copy more papers for you. There is no sense in sending you a lot of material on my Charles and Rebecca if Freelove is not their daughter.

Have already started looking and seem to find some of the names you gave me in the 1850 census index for Marshall County, Virginia (now West Virginia). I will order the 1850 census for that county to see if they are possibly the right families. The names listed are:

Simeon Riggs
William Bowen
Stansberry and McGrath also listed in county

It will take a few weeks to get the film, but will let you know as soon as I find out anything. This will be great if this is the correct Freelove. I have looked for her for so many years and am delighted that you wrote to me.

Will close for now and write as soon as I have any news.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Chris,

Still running after Charles and Rebecca Rose of Monongalia County, WV - and still not having very much luck. I am sure of one thing...I will never give up on this family!

I had a letter in March from a Wilma P. Orcutt of Otoe, NE who says two of her ancestors are William Bowen who married Freelove Rose on 3 June 1819, but she does not know where. I talked to her by phone for an hour after I received the letter and she has dates of their six children's marriages, but no locations. I started looking and found William Bowen in Marshall Co. VA in 1850, but with a wife, Nancy who is younger and probably a #2. There were 12 children in the household and the first three are names that Mrs. Orcutt said belong to William and Freelove. The older children of William and Freelove are married and in the same county. I might mention that William Bowen apparently came from Greene Co. PA...you are right. Freelove's brother, Thomas Rose also lived in Greene Co. Now the big question - do you ever remember seeing the Bowen name in connection with Charles and Rebecca Rose? I would so like to prove some additional children for this group.

By the way, Helen Rose Moore gave Mrs. Orcutt my name. These Rose researchers are so great to be alert and help each other, don't you think.

I, today, wrote to the Llewellyn National Reunion Association who have their reunion every other year in various locations and sent a family group sheet on Benjamin and Rachel Lewellen. I asked if they had a genealogist for the group or if they knew of anyone researching Benjamin and Rachel. I feel fairly certain that Rachel (b. NJ 1795) may also be a daughter of Charles and Rebecca. Will be anxious to see if they reply.

I would like to find the Franks Family Assoc. if it still exists. It was formerly in Fayette Co., PA, but feel it is no longer active. I am sure that Jacob Franks married Rebecca Rose, but need proof that she was the daughter of Charles and Rebecca.

Both Jacob and Rebecca Franks and Benjamin and Rachel Lewellen lived in Monongalia Co. in 1850. Benjamin and Rachel disappeared and Jacob and Rebecca went to Fayette Co.

Must close. If any of these name ring a bell, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Ms Nunneley:

Your letter received regarding books for sale on this area. I did have them but turned my Quarterly Newsletter over to Mrs. Linda Stout, Route One Box 106_A Proctor, WV 26055 and I am not sure she has started printing the books yet.

Mrs. Helen Reynolds Box 217, West Alexandria, Pa. 15376 (phone 412-484-7555) did make a copy of all my books and runs them off on her copier to sell.

Mrs. Reynolds has all the census books, 1850-1900, cemeteries for three counties, and marriage records prior to 1900 for the three counties. These counties include Wetzel, Marshall and Tyler.

I bought my copy of the Marshall Co marriages from West Augusta Newsletter 2515 10th Avenue, Parkersburg, WV 26101-5829 it was $11.00 I inclose a page from their newsletter listing their publications.

I do have one copy ~~each~~ of the Tyler County marriages 1815-1852 by Mary Atkinson who gave me permission to copy it. This is the only one left. It sells for $8.00

I also have a copy of the 1850 Tyler census $8.00 I will include postage on both of these I sold them for more .

Linda's phone is 304-455-3263 Like I said, she might not be printing them yet. she took over the quarterly with the beginning of this year and is publishing them I just don't know about the books.

The Marshall Marriage book includes marriages between 1835-1889. The county was organized in 1834 so it includes them all through that period of time.

If I can be of further assistance just let me know.

Sincerely,

Ethel Briggs

Otoe, NE 68417

Dear Wilma,

Finally had a bit of time to look into the William Bowen/Freelove Rose family. I was able to locate William Bowen, but he seems to have a wife, Nancy. I would suppose that Freelove died before 1850. Do you have any such information?

On the 1850 census of Marshall Co., VA, the first three children listed fit names that you gave as children of William and Freelove, so I can guess that this is the right William Bowen.

I was unable to locate William Bowen and family after the 1860 census and wonder if they moved back to Pennsylvania or another state. HaVE not had time to think this out and look in other areas.

I have contacted a couple of people concerning William and Freelove and they have never heard of this marriage, so guess we will just need to continue researching to see if we can find some proof that William did marry #1 Freelove Rose.

I suspect that William Bowen came from Greene Co., PA and is a son of Thomas Bowen and his second wife, Elizabeth Spicer Daugherty. The brother of Freelove Rose, Thomas Rose, married a girl (Ruth Scudder) who was also, from Greene Co. It would then seem possible that Freelove could marry William Bowen in the same county.

Will be anxious to hear from you after you review the material I am enclosing. I would also hope that you will send your family group sheets for later members of this family.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mary R. Nunneley

Dear Chris,

Finally had some time to look into the William Bowen who married Freelove Rose (dau of Charles and Rebecca Rose of Monongalia Co., VA). I am enclosing what I found which is nothing...

Mrs. Wilma Orcutt of Otoe, NE (copy of her letter enclosed) knows nothing of this family, but what a great-aunt told her years ago. The information seems to come from a family Bible, since not locations and only dates are known.

I suspect that William Bowen is a son of Thomas Bowen and Elizabeth Spicer Daugherty (a second wife for Thomas). They were from Greene Co., PA. It seems possible that Freelove Rose could have married William Bowen from Greene Co., since her brother Thomas Rose married Ruth Scudder from Greene Co., and lived in that county until the 1840 census/to Monongalia Co. VA by 1850.

The 1850 census of Marshall Co. VA for the William Bowen family names what appears to be a wife, Nancy, but the first three children listed are names Mrs. Orcutt gave me for children of William and Freelove. I will guess that Freelove died before 1850 and old William took a younger wife who had several more children. Mrs. Orcutt's great-aunt must not have had those children recorded in the "Bible"?

Mrs. Orcutt did mention when we talked that a cousin was doing research on William Bowen through a child who married a Conner. If this is true, that child would be Lear/Leah Bowen who married William Conner and a child of the second marriage to Nancy.

I gather from Mrs. Orcutt that she is having much difficulty in her research. Family members will not give her any information and since she is a beginner, she does not know where to turn. I think the Thomas Spicer Bowen is a great-great grandfather. He died in 1893 and his wife Margaret in 1919. Mrs. Orcutt does not even know where they died. I am surprised that she can't find the information since it is rather recent.

Also enclosing a copy from microfilm, the Vanorsdall Cemetery in Fayette Co., Ohio. It lists a child, Hopkins Conner, d. 1822. This is surely a son of James and Alsey ROSE Conner and grandson of Charles and Rebecca Rose. I have been doing quite a lot of research recently on James and Alsey. I think my cousin Sherwood Conner of Ohio has made a number of errors on this family and hope to do some serious correcting on his work and the way it is shown in the Charles Rose report. I think if I lived in Ohio as does Sherwood, it would be rather easy to research this family who lived very near where he lives. Oh well...

Will close.

DEAR MARY:

I am doing research on the Rose Family. I am in hope you can help me. I recieved your address from Helen Rose Moore. She said you were researching the Charles Rose Family from Monongalia Co., W. VA.

I got my information from my Great-Aunt many years ago. It is real good on names and dates but no locations.

My Great-Great Grandmother was Lovernia Jane Bowen B.26 December 1854 in Vinton Iowa and md. William Henry Harrison Carmichael on 02 May 1872. She died 07 March 1934. Her parents were Thomas Spicer Bowen b. 12 May 1828 in Wheeling, West Virgina and md. Margaret Stansbery on 06 March 1851. He died 15 December 1893. His parents were WILLIAM BOWEN who md. FREELOVE ROSE on 03 June 1819. This is all the information I have on the Rose Family. Which is next to nothing.

Helen said she found Freelove Rose listed as one of Charles & Rebecca Rose's daughters in his will of September 1816.

I was wanting to know if you can confirm this or have any other information that could be of help to me on this family. Any help would be deeply appreciated.

I am enclosing a return envelope for you convience. I would like to hear about your Rose Family. HAPPY ANCESTOR HUNTING.

SINCERELY YOURS,

Wilma P. Orcutt

Dear Mary,

Thanks so much for the materials on Charles Rose. What a lot of work you've done. I do appreciate it and will treasure it. I'm very busy trying to organize my Rose materials to take to the reunion.

my family empathizes
(sp) completely with your family responsibilities – grandmother required a lot of care the last 15 years of her life.
Unfortunately it usually seems to fall on only one or two people.
I'll write a real letter
when I get back plus a completed family sheet on my mother's generation 1 at least that's one good thing the reunion has accomplished.

I look forward to working with you.
By the way, do you know
a good Penn. genealogist?
One Ohio Rose I know is Karen Starberg
P.O. Box 41 Herlong Ca 96113.
She is a desc. of Enos Rose family still in Ohio - she told me she might go back there this summer. I'm ashamed to say I've neglected my correspondence with her

EARLY SETTLERS OF BLOCK ISLAND, R. I.

[By J. D. CHAMPLIN, Jr. of Stonington, Conn.]

BLOCK ISLAND received its name from that of the Dutch navigator, Adrian Blok, who sailed through the Sound and visited it sometime during the year 1614. It was called Manisses, or the island of the Little God, by the natives, who were subject to the Narragansetts. It became tributary to the English about 1637, and in 1658 the general court of Massachusetts granted all their right in it to Governor John Endicott, Richard Bellingham, Gen. Daniel Denison and Major William Hathorne. These, in turn, disposed of it, in 1660, to "John alcock fesesion and company," for the sum of £400. The first settlements were made about 1662. I give below a list of freemen in 1684, copied from the records verbatim et literatim.

*Timothy Prout, who was one of the earliest settlers of Boston, and who had a son, Ebenezer, prominent in the affairs of Watertown, which he represented in the assembly of 1693, was probably the ancestor of Ebenezer Prout, of Middlesex, Conn., whose son, Ebenezer, came to Ewing township about the year 1700, and purchased the farm still in the possession of his descendants in the sixth generation. He died October 22d, 1754, and his widow, Elizabeth, January 30th, 1759. Their children were: Elizabeth, wife of Stephen Rose; Timothy, died January 24th, 1731; Joseph, died three days after his brother; John, killed by lightning while sitting in the door-way, August 9th, 1732; Mary, wife of George Ely, died 1736; Love, wife of Captain John Moore; Rebecca, baptized at Maidenhead; and Eunice.

EARLY MARRIAGE LICENSES IN MONONGALIA COUNTY.

Monongalia county was formed in 1776, and twenty years later, 1796, a considerable portion of the county records were lost by the burning of the clerk's office at Morgantown. Nearly all the marriage licenses in the county, earlier than the date of the fire, are missing. The book which contains the old lists, from year to year, is dated 1796, but it contains the records of a number of licenses as early as 1795 and 1794. These probably escaped destruction because they had not been returned to the clerk's office at the time of the fire. Below will be found a list of the earliest licenses on record in Monongalia county, giving the names of the parties married, and that of the officiating minister, or the justice of the peace who performed the ceremony:

Dear Anita,

I received your letter of 2 Mar 1986, concerning the Rose family. I am thrilled to hear from you. Sooner or later, those of us researching this family seem to locate another "cousin" who is interested.

The Charles Rose report seems definitely to be in error in listing the last child born to John Rose and Susannah E. Shrives as "Mariah". I do not know who gave the information, but it surely must be "Marion" for Thomas Marion Rose.

My ancestor was Elsie Rose (daughter of Charles and Rebecca) who married James Conner in Monongalia Co., VA on 31 Aug 1813. They moved to Greene and Fayette Cos. Ohio. It is supposed that the line of descent is:

Tormut Rose m Hannah George
John Rose m Mary Dodge
Ezekiel Rose m Mary Fidler
Charles Rose m Rebecca (Mulliner ?)
Elsie Rose m James Conner
John Conner m Alvina Popejoy
Ella Ann (Elsie) Conner m William Harrison Mitchem
Orrin Ometa Mitchem m Ella Adeline Hendricks
Mabel Inez Mitchem m Raymond Henry Metzinger
Mary Ruth Metzinger m Richard Dean Nunneley

I think there are still some minor problems to be solved concerning absolute proof that Charles was the son of Ezekiel and that this Charles is the one who married Rebecca Mulliner. I do not doubt that Charles was the son of Ezekiel nor that he is the one who married Rebecca Mulliner, but we just seem to be missing proof from the time of the will of Ezekiel in 1768, Hunterdon Co., NJ until we find our Charles Rose in Monongalia Co., VA in 1796. Charles Rose did serve in the Revolution from Hunterdon Co., NJ for he is listed on a muster roll of 20 Oct 1777 and signed a petition to receive his militia pay in Hunterdon Co., on 1 Nov 1784. This is the only tie to Hunterdon and no additional ties to Ezekiel have been found that I know about. If you do not have copies of his RW service, let me know and I will copy what I received from the NJ Archives and from a researcher I hired in Hunterdon County.

I think most of the material in the Rose report must stem from the biography of John Rose and Enos Rose and it seems to make up the bulk of the material concerning this family. Just cannot seem to make a lot of it "fit". For instance, Thomas is listed as a child of John Rose and Eda Boyce and he certainly is not according to other records. A great deal of work still needs to be done on these families. I spend a lot of time working on all of the group, not just my line, Elsie.

You kindly offered to copy some of your records for me and I would love to have the following that you mentioned:

John Rose's will (Sept 1850)
Census records (any that pertain to John Rose or his children)
Article on John Rose of Pittsgrove, NJ

LDS Church records on births/marriages on Block Island
Thomas Marion Rose - any information you have Meigs Co. History - biographical material on Enos and desc of John
Copy of the 1839 land record for John Rose

I was very surprised that Thomas and Sarah Rose had lived in Oklahoma. I work at the Bartlesville Public Library and after I received your letter, I checked the Museum at the library and found the enclosed biography of Thomas and Sarah, which you may already have. I also, found their burials listed in a Woods County cemetery book. If you do not have that, let me know and I will copy it for you.

Also, give me an idea what you have on Charles and Rebecca. I have several things I can copy if you need them, but no need to duplicate what you already have in your material.

Again, delighted to hear from you and will be excited to hear again. Enclosing $10.00 for copy costs and postage for the material you have offered to send.

Best wishes,

Mary

Dear Mary,

I noticed your query in the Rose Family Bulletin. I too am a descendent of Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner.

I too would like to find out more too. I have the Rose Family Report on Charles and Formut Rose which certainly gives a large of information but I would like to find more.

My ancester was Charles son John Rose who married first Eda Boyce in W.Va. than Susana Shrives. My great grandfather Thomas Marion Rose was born

2 Dec. 1849 He was the last child John Rose had - John died in July, 1850 age 67 of consumption in Meigs Co. Ohio. (He is on the 1850 Mortality lis

I am writing to another descendant of John - Karen Starberg She still has family living in the area - Meigs Co. Ohio.

I would love to find out more about the family when they were living in Pennsylvania Both Thomas and his half brother Enos told the census repeatedly that their father was born in PA. (about 1783) D~~ied~~o you have any data on them at that time?

The Rose report says they were perhaps in, Mercer or Fayette Co. I have seen a Charles and John Rose in Berks census Co. PA. I'll list what I have so you can see if you need any of it I'll be glad to share:

1. John Rose's will (Sept. 1850)

2. Census Records

3. Charles Rose's Will

4. Rebecca Rose's Pension application - Rev. War

5. Ezekiel Rose (Charle's father) will index Amwell, N. J.

6. an article on John Rose of Pittsgrove N. J. Ezekiel's brother

7. 2 articles on Tormut Rose (our emigrant)

8. LDS Church records on births and marriages on Block Island R.I.

9. Thomas Marion Rose - obit, death record, marr. license, Civil War service record, pictures, letters info on all of Thomas desc.

10. a Meigs Co. History that gives biographical material on Enos Rose + other desc. of John.

11. a land record John Rose 1839. (doesn't give much information doesn't even name his wife)

Since you are living in Oklahoma it might interest you to know that Thomas Rose and wife Sarah moved to Oklahoma in 1898. They settled in Woods Co. and many members of the family still live in the vicinity.

I am looking forward to hearing from you. I would like to take the family "across the water" and learn more about our Scottish roots.

Love,
Anita

the deed for the land given to each sufferer be recorded in the town where he originally lost his property. As an additional record, the names and amounts due each of the more than 1,800 sufferers were printed in the Ohio Land Laws for 1825.

The Fire Lands were set aside before any subdivision of the Reserve was begun, in fact before the Indian title had been acquired. The Fort Industry Treaty gave this title in 1805, and afterward the tract was cut up under the same general plan of five mile squares numbered to fit into the township and range system used in the balance of the Reserve.

With the exclusion of these lands under the jurisdiction of the states of Virginia and Connecticut, all other lands in what is now the State of Ohio were under the jurisdiction of the United States Congress in 1786.

Congressional Jurisdiction over the Northwest Territory

As a first measure to ensure the just disposition and sale of the lands in this Western Territory, the Congress enacted the Land Ordinance of 1785. This ordinance established what is known as the "rectangular system" of land survey. The United States Geographer was directed as follows:

> ". . . to divide the said territory into townships of six miles square, by lines running due north and south, and others running at right angles, as near as may be." 1

The ordinance further required that each township be divided into thirty-six sections and one was to be reserved for the maintenance of schools. A subsequent provision required that one section also be reserved for the maintenance of churches.

Ohio Company Purchase (1787). The Ohio Company's Purchase was a tract o land containing about 1,500,000 acres lying along the Ohio River. The tract wa purchased from the Federal Government July 24, 1787, by Manasseh Cutler and Winthrop Sargeant, who hailed from the neighborhood of Salem, Massachusetts They were agents for Rufus Putnam of the Ohio Company. The Ohio Company had been founded in Massachusetts for purpose of a settlement in Ohio. Under the provisions of the 1785 Land Ordinance, Section 16 in each township was se apart for the support of schools. Section 29 was set apart for the support o religious institutions. Also, two six-mile square townships were granted for th use of a college, and this is were the present Ohio University at Athens i located.

The contract required that the tract should be surveyed by a geographer, or an officer of the United States. The price was to be not less than $1.00 per acre, excepting the reservations and gifts mentioned, payable in specie loan office certificates reduced to specie value, or certificates of liquidated debts of the United States with a reduction of one-third of a dollar per acre for bad land. This was a privilege permitted in no other sales except those to John Cleves Symmes.

Not less than $500,000 was to be paid upon closing the contract, and the remainder was to be paid upon completion of the work performed by the geographer or other officer of the United States. Although this contract originally called for 1,500,000 acres, the company could not finance that amount and purchased only 964,285 acres, which were ultimately paid for and patented.

The Ohio Company's first purchase consisted of about 750,000 acres, which was paid for at the time of the purchase on July 23, 1787. The second purchase was for 214,285 acres and was paid for principally by army bounty warrants on May 10, 1792.

Unfortunately for the Ohio Company, owing to their lack of topographical knowledge of the country, the tract of land selected by them, with some partial exceptions, is the most hilly and sterile of any tract of similar size in the State.

In 1792, when the patents were issued, the whole number of shares in the Ohio Company was found to be 822 and each share was entitled to about 1,17 acres. Plans to divide the land upon that basis were adopted accordingly, and the amount to which each share was entitled, therefore, consisted of seven separate tracts, grouped in six divisions, as follows:

Division		Acre
First	One eight acre lot	8.00
Second	One three acre lot	3.00
Third	One house lot of (about)	.3
Fourth	One one hundred and sixty acre lot	160.00
Fifth	One one hundred acre lot	100.00
	One six hundred and forty acre lot or section	640.00
Sixth	One two hundred and sixty two acre lot or fraction	262.0
	Total	1,173.3

To accomplish this purpose a general plan was adopted for the subdivision throughout these two tracts.

Donation Tract (1792). The "Donation Tract" is situated in Washington an Morgan counties. In order to encourage the development of the land, and as protection from the Indians, the "Ohio Company" proposed to donate to eac settler 100 acres of "Ohio Company" land. Each donee was required to hav arms and ammunition and maintain, upon each tract thus donated, a man able t bear arms for a period of five years, after which the donee was to receive a dee for the land.

The Indians resented the settlements as encroachments on their rights. Th slender protection of Ft. Harmar at Marietta was further weakened by th transfer of troops to Ft. Washington, near Cincinnati. As a result, the settlers a Marietta were required to protect themselves and this expense was borne by th "Ohio Company."

The injustice and hardship of being compelled to assume the responsibility o the government was brought to the attention of Congress in 1792. To reliev the "Ohio Company" of this hardship, and to induce people with limited mean to settle in Ohio, Congress authorized the President to convey to the perso composing the "Ohio Company of Associates" the land now known as th "Donation Tract," sometimes referred to as the "Ohio Company's Thir Purchase."

The "Donation Tract" consists of 100,000 acres located off the northeaster corner of the "Ohio Company's First Purchase." Congress granted the land t them provided they obtain one actual settler upon each 100 acres within fi years after the date of the grant, and further provided that any part of the lan not thus settled should revert to the government after this five year period.

Charles Edward Banks, "Scotch Prisoners Deported to New England by Cromwell, 1651-52," Massachusetts Historical Society Proceedings, 61 (1928), 4-29 [Lancour No. 53A].

Colonel Banks' article deals with the same list as Lancour No. 53, but adds much history, and should be read by those interested in these Scots.

Early in September 1650 the Scots supporters of Prince Charles lost the battle of Dunbar to Cromwell's English forces, with the resulting loss of thousands of Scots killed and wounded, and thousands more taken prisoner, to be marched to England and then shipped to varying parts of England, Ireland, and the colonies.

In November 1650 a number of these prisoners were apparently sent to Boston in the Unity, arriving in New England early in 1651, no doubt. Sixty of these prisoners were sent to Lynn, to work in the iron industry, and the others dispersed. As the prisoners were sold as indentured servants at about £30. each, the average passage at the time being about £5., Colonel Banks has suggested that the owners of the Unity cleared a handsome profit of about £1,500. on the trip.

Court records reveal that one John Stewart, who died in New England, 21 April 1691, probably leaving no family, was a prisoner of the Dunbar affair shipped to New England as a result. One Thomas Home or Hume was sold to Henry Sayward of York for £30.

John Gifford, iron works manager, wrote in 1653: "For 62 Scotts dd and 35 only left on the works, 17 to Awbrey, 3 to commissioners; 2 sold and rest we desire to whom disposed of, which is 5 at 20 pounds £100:0:0."

The seventeen turned over to William Aubrey worked in Boston at the company warehouse. In addition to company employees at Lynn or Boston, George Thompson and Robert MacIntire later testified concerning the company's business in court.

Col. Banks has listed employees who remained at Lynn:

Adams, James
Archbell, John
Banke, John
Braband, Alexander
Burgess, Alexander
Clarke, John
Danielson, James
Darling, George
Downing, Micam
Dugle, Alexander
Dunsmore, James
Eaton, Alexander
Ennis, Alexander
Gourdan, James
Grant, Peter
Gualter, Thomas
Grimes, Alexander
Jempson, Andrew
Jourdan, William
Kelton, Thomas
Luddle, James
Mason, John Mackall, James
MacMallen, John
Mackshane, John
Mackwater, William
MacCallum, Micam
Meeme, Richard
Moody, Engram
Pardee, John
Rupton, John
Steward, John
Thomson, George
Thomson, James Taylor, James
Toish, John
Tower, Thomas

Col. Banks listed the following as being probable prisoners who settled in Berwick, formerly a part of Kittery, Maine:

Agnew, Niven
Barry, James
Cooper, Alexander
Furbush, William
Ferguson, Daniel
Grant, Peter
Gray, George
Gowen, William Hamilton, David
Holme, Thomas
Key, John
Maxwell, Alexander
Neal, John
Ross, John Taylor, John
Thomson, William
Warren, James

While Banks warned against taking the spelling of the surnames too literally, it might also be said that one cannot depend upon Banks to alphabetize carefully.

A few years later a number of Scots went to the town of York, including John Carmichael, James Grant called "the Scot," perhaps James Grant called "the Drummer," James Jackson, Robert Junkins, Micum MacIntire, Alexander MacNair and Andrew Rankin.

Early in September 1651 the English forces won another victory over the Scots in the battle of Worcester, and it was prisoners from this battle, not that of Dunbar, who were sent to Boston on board the John and Sarah, consigned by John Becx and others to Thomas Kemble.

It should be noted here that Col. Banks' transcription of the letter by Becx, Robert Rich and William Greene, when compared to the copy published in 1847 [Lancour No. 53], differed in not less than nineteen places, with the earlier copy apparently being somewhat more accurate.

At any rate, the John and Sarah is said to have left the Downes on 8 Dec. 1651, arriving in Boston before 24 Feb. 1652. Banks wrote further:

"For some reason not apparent all the documents in this transaction, together with a list of names of these prisoners, were recorded in the Suffolk Deeds, possibly for permanent record in case of litigation. While this is fortunate for historical purposes, yet this list is not to be accepted as a true record of their correct names. It offers the student in philology many puzzles left by the scribe in his attempts to spell out clan names of Gaelic origin, spoken in a dialect that defied reproduction in English.... The prefix "Mac" was frequently dropped and the remaining part of a name was Anglicized in a convenient phonetic substitute. MacLothlan became Claflin, Maggafasset is Fassett; MacGowen is Magoon; Saint Clair in Sinkler; Farrabas is Forbes; Graham is Grimes; Montrose is Munroe, and other like decapitations and alterations illustrate the manhandling which these historic names of Highland clansmen suffered in the offices of town clerks. Few would suspect that a family bearing the cognomen of Tosh living on Block Island were once possessors of the fine old Highland name of MacIntosh. The typical Highland prenomen—Angus—was written Anguish, which might be considered a true description of the mental state of the clerk after struggling with the rolling b-r-r-r of these clansmen. Here follows the official statement of the names of these Scotchmen."

Ship Passenger Lists Nat'l and New Eng. (1600-1825) Boyer 929.373 B795 @ GA ARCHIVES

The list of the passengers on the John and Sarah differs frequently from the list given in Lancour No. 53, although Banks cited that source as well as Suffolk Deeds, 1:5-6.

The names Dan: Mackwell, John Mackdonell, Daniell Macknell, P---------, ---ster Macknell, Patricke Mackneile, Semell Mackneth, Dan: Mackneile and James Mackneile, as well as that of George Hame, did not readily translate to Banks' copy of the list.

Banks suggested that names he read from the list should have properly read differently, as follows:

Banes [Bayne]
Benne [Bene; Benny]
Carmuckhell [Carmichael]
Coehon [Colquhoon]
Crag [Craig]
Cragon [Craigen]
Deugle [Dougell]
Hume [Home]
Kallender [Callender]
Mackurnell [MacConnell]
Mackalinsten [MacAllister]
Mackaine [MacKean]
Mackandra [MacAndrew]
Mackally [MacCullar]
Mackdoell [MacDowell]
Mackey [MacKay]
Mackendocke [MacIntosh]
Mackforsen [MacPherson]
Mackhoe [MacKee]
Macklude [MacLeod]
Mackrore [MacCreary?]
Micknab [MacNabb]
Monlow [Monroe?]
Querne [Queen; MacQueen]
Shume [Hume?]
Tooth [Touch?]

The 1847 reading differs with that of Col. Banks as follows (in part):

Col. Banks	1847 Reading
Benne, John	Beme, John
Broun, John	Brow, John
Camell [Campbell], James	Cannell, John
Cowe, Alester	Lowe, Alester
Deugle, Edward	Dengle, Edward

Tenler, John	Jenler, John

While Colonel Banks apparently did not make an effort to conform exactly to the original spellings in his transcription, in that he always spelled "Patrick" in the modern fashion, instead of occasionally "Patricke," it is to be presumed that his interpretation has merit. He lists a Samuel Shiva (?) [torn] not on the earlier reading. A Scot named Davison, not listed at all, apparently failed to survive the initial two day march from the Boston docks to Lynn. Banks went on to describe the unfortunate case of one Alexander Gordon, involved in a suit in October 1652.

"Some of these Scotchmen found their way to Block Island, after being freed, and became a respectable section of the early settlers of that island. Some had worked at Lynn, and others at the branch works in Braintree. They must have belonged to the Dunbar contingent. Their names are Alexander Innes, Robert Guthrie, Thormut (or Dermot) Rose, William Tosh, James Danielson and possibly a few others.

".... It is known that Boston, Charlestown, Cambridge, Dedham, Concord, Hingham, Ipswich, Reading and Salem became the homes of numbers of them, which there is much probability that a few went to Taunton to work in the iron bogs in that town.. A few are known to have gone to Connecticut, and as far as New Jersey when they had served their time."

James Claghorn entered the service of Barnard Lambert of Barnstable, then moved to Martha's Vineyard. His descendant, Colonel George Claghorn, built the Constitution. David Hume, who came in the John and Sarah, settled in Dedham and was called Holmes. Sixth in descent from him was Oliver Wendell Holmes, the poet. Daniel Black of the same ship was ancestor to Governor Frank S. Black of New York.

"A by-product of this somewhat discreditable, but none the less, picturesque, incident in our early history was the formation of the Scots Charitable Society organized in Boston January 6, 1657, "for the relief of Scotchmen." This date represents the proximate time when the prisoners from Dunbar and Worcester were finishing their terms of servitude. Those who had not formed local connections naturally drifted to Boston without employment and possessed of little of this world's goods. They were at first looked upon as aliens and classed in the public records with Negroes and Indians. A Scotch prisoner in New England in 1660 was the analogue of a European alien in 1860 and this society was formed to assist them. Among the charter members are found the names of some who served time in the Lynn Iron Works. A few Scotchmen who had come to Boston before the regime of Cromwell and his "Ironsides" were also founders of this benevolent society."

EARLY SETTLERS OF BLOCK ISLAND, R. I.

BLOCK ISLAND received its name from that of the Dutch navigator, Adrian Blok, who sailed through the Sound and visited it sometime during the year 1614. It was called Manisses, or the island of the Little God, by the natives, who were subject to the Narragansetts. It became tributary to the English about 1637, and in 1658 the general court of Massachusetts granted all their right in it to Governor John Endicott, Richard Bellingham, Gen. Daniel Denison and Major William Hathorne. These, in turn, disposed of it, in 1660, to "John alcock fesesion and company," for the sum of £400. The first settlements were made about 1662. I give below a list of freemen in 1684, copied from the records verbatim et literatim.

"At A Town Metting held the ninth of July In the year on thousand six hundred seventy 8 It was Concluded that the freemen of the Town ther names Should be Recorded In the Town Record :

Dear Eileen,

Received your nice letter with the invitation to attend the Rose reunion on June 8 in Tyler, Texas. I will not be able to attend, but would like to meet everyone.

I know Anita will let me know all about the gathering and any new genealogy news she obtains from the "cousins".

I am a descenant of Elsie ROSE Conner who was a sister to your John ROSE. They were the Children of Charles ROSE and his wife Rebecca who came from New Jersey to Virginia (now Monongalia County, W VA) about 1796. Both your John and my Elsie moved from Virginia to Ohio after their marriages.

Tell everyone at the reunion that an Oklahoma cousin says hello, and will be there in spirit.

Thanks much for the invitation.

Dear Anita,

I am still here - and did receive all of the good items. I have only had a little time to go over your mailing, but thank you so much.

Havedjust returned from Drumright, OK (about 85 miles away) after closing out my parents home. Mom died three years ago and Dad has been in a nursing home for over a year following a stroke. We had to sell his home and as the oldest daughter, I got the job of spending several days closing out a 60 year collection of everything. My sister who lives in Drumright was out of town for two weeks and the other sister who lives in Louisiana was unable to make the trip. I did not enjoy having the job to do alone, but it really came as no surprise.

I had a letter from Eileen Morrill and an invitation to the Tyler Rose reunion. Sure wish I could come, but it is impossible. I told her I would just have to rely on you to gather material on genealogy on all of the cousins.

Enclosing some material on Charles Rose. I hope it is new to your collection. I really do not doubt that this Charles is the son of Ezekiel and feel pretty positive that he is our Charles. I do not think we need any additional proof and if we do, I have no idea what it could be. We have Ezekiel's will naming Charles, various court documents pertaining to Charles in Hunterdon Co., NJ and Rebecca's pension application for the Revolutionary War service (pension application from Monongalia Co. VA), so this places THIS Charles in Hunterdon Co., NJ, and we know the Charles of Monongalia to be our Charles by his will naming his wife and children.

We still need to keep looking for material for all of the children of Charles and Rebecca. Finding any one of the children usually leads to information on our direct lines of John and Elsie. I still expect to find more of them in Ohio someday??

Must close for now and get this in the mail. Probably have more to copy later, but just wanted to get this in the mail before you left for the reunion.

Write soon -

As ever,

Mary

Hi -

Bet you had almost given up on me. When your very nice letter came - I ~~am~~ was right in the middle of the am. Cardiologist Convention and it's just been one thing after another since then! (I work part time for a marketing co. and Atlanta is hot for marketing right now.)

I hope this is the beginning of long happy relationship. I really am a hard worker even though my behavior doesn't seem to prove that statement.

I'm sending you most of what I have on my roses. I have sent for Hopkins' 1812 war record and Thomas *also Charles Rose's Rev. War Record.

Marion Rose's Civil War Record. You'll notice that his age is index wrong - it should be 14 not 24. My good friend Barbara Gi-Sert said in the civil war especially at the end a lot of young men lied about their age. Barbara is a pro- I have asked her if she would help us and she refused - She stays busy doing census films at the Atl. Fed. Archives. Anyway, she has several book cases on Pennsylvania and I think that maybe where we need to search.

Both Enos Rose and my Thomas always tell the census their father - John Rose was born in PA. I have not sent for the wills indexed I'm sending but I may - there just might be a clue there.

I think I have proven the link between John Rose and Thomas, don't you. As you can see - many mistakes on documents - I have no idea why my grandfather filled his father Thomas Death Certificate out so incorrectly. He was one of the younger children and I have a feeling "Job Decker" Susana's 2nd husband was German - that was the only father Thomas ever knew.

Anna Rich, our cousin who lives in Aline, Okla, has a picture of the family that includes Thomas - she's told me about it for over a year but hasn't sent it (!!) Annabel is quite old and not feeling well but I sure wish she would send me the picture - I would be glad to have it copied for her.

He is Jim Rose's son and a Morman. He really got me started. He told me where Thomas and Sarah were married and sent the gravestone photos I'm enclosing. I have written him and told him about you. He is quite old too (almost 80 I think)

As you can tell from the family sheets - two sisters married two brothers. My grandfather, John Charles Rose's first wife Anna Sandman died with the birth of their third child - Louis Walter. A sad story - she had the child everything fine Grandad had a older lady staying with her He left to go get a load of fence posts - and when he returned she was dead. Those children - Amos, Tom, and Lou always loved my grandmother dearly and called her "Mom". They are dead now - but all other family members are living and well. Both my grandmother and granddad lived to be 91 years old.

Ill send you more pictures if you like - there are many family stories also.

Look over this stuff - you may have questions.

I would love to have anything you have on Charles Rose - Monongalia Co. All I have as you can see is his will, pension file and the Rose Report. Have enc. $10 - if more is needed just tell me.

Love
Anita

According to John R. Stevenson, Anthony lived with Nehemiah Smith in 1652 on Long Island and soon returned to Old England. (From the testimony of Nehemiah Smith in 1679.) However Anthony must have returned soon because in 1658, he owned a house lot in the "North Sea' district of Southhampton , Long Island, and was practicing law in the New Haven Courts. In 1661 he was following his profession in Southhampton.
Anthony appeared in the list of the largest land allotments made in 1663. He acted as an advisor and attorney for the town of Jamaica in its various disputes with other towns. For this service, the inhabitants voted that he should have "Ye great hollow of ye southwest corner of ye little plains."
That same year, Director General Stuyvesant complained to Governor Winthrop that Waters, in company with John Coe and eighty horse and foot, put downcertain Dutch Magistrates and put others in their place.
In 1664 Governor Nichols appointed him "Clarke" of the Court of Sessions for the North Riding of Long Island. Anthony held that office until 1673, during which time he cared for the books and records which are now on record in the office of the Secretary of State in Albany.
In 1665, Anthony was a juryman in the Court of Assizes in New York for the trial of Ralph and Mary Hall, accused of witchcraft. the jury decided the evidence was insufficient to convict the accused couple. On February 5th of the same year, Anthony was one of the patentees of Jamaica to whom was confirmed the lands that he had purchased at various times.
In 1675 Anthony was chosen along with Mr. Oldfield to "goe down to Fort William Hendrick to appear before the general of the Dutch fieete there, on the behalf of the town as the Warrantreseaved from the two generals required, as if the town were all present."

ii. Jeremiah, b. ca. 1656, d. 2 Jan. 1723/24, ae. 67 yrs. An undated land entry in East Hampton reads: ". . . . . . . doth belong to the allotment of George Miller deceased who was father of aforsaid Jeremyah Miller." He m. Mary, dau. of John Mulford whose will dated 4 Dec. 1683, calls her "daughter Mary wife of Jeremy Miller." After 1696, he is called Lieut. Miller. His wid. d. 9 Oct. 1748 ae. 95. Her will names sons Eleazer, Josiah and Jeremiah. Eleazer, d. 1788 ae. 91; Josiah, d. 1770 ae. 81 and Jeremiah, d. 1756 ae. 66.

iii. George, b. say 1658, d. 30 Oct. 1712.

iv. Cornelius, b. say 1660. Proved a son by deed of 25 Oct. 1701.

3. Jeremiah^2 Concklyne (Ananias^{1}) was born ca. 1633, probably in Kingswinford, County Stafford or in Nottinghamshire. His ancient brownstone gravestone in East Hampton, L. I., reads, "Here Lyeth the Body of Mr. Jeremiah Conkling who dyed Mar. ye 14th 1711/12 in the 80th Year of His Age." During the later years of their lives, the East Hampton Concklynes of the second generation began to use the form Conkling which has been standard spelling of the name in Ananias' branches ever since. East Hampton Church records state that Jeremiah Conklin Senr. aged about 78 years died about nine in the evening of 14 Mar. 1712. Jeremiah Concklyne first appears in East Hampton records, 16 Nov. 1655, when he testified that he had been at Monchoneck (Gardiner's Island) the past winter, coming away about 17 March. Also, that about three weeks before he heard Anthony Waters say that "Mark Meggs or others might strike Mr. [Lion] Gardener as well as another if he stood to help the Dutchmen."

By 1658, he married Mary Gardiner, born 30 Aug. 1638, at Saybrook, Conn., daughter of Lion Gardiner, First Lord of the Manor of Gardiner's Island. This marriage automatically placed him among the important men of the town, a position he solidified by natural ability. From then on until his death, his name appears frequently in the records as a purchaser or seller of lands, officer or committeeman, witness, etc.

The will of Mary, widow of Lion Gardiner, dated 19 Apr. 1664, probated 6 June 1665, gives to her daughter Mary Conkling "my whole accomodations at East Hampton," and mentions Jeremiah Conckling as her son-in-law. On 7 Mar. 1694, John Gardiner of the Isle of Wight (Gardiner's Island) confirmed to "my Aunt Mary Conckling wife of Jeremiah Concklin quiet possession of all that alotment which did formerly belong to my honoured grandfather Lion Gardiner: lying and being in East Hampton."

Jeremiah Conkling was named among the seven patentees in the Duke of York's Patent to the Proprietors of East Hampton, 13 Mar. 1666. He also was one of the twelve trustees in Gov. Dongan's Patent of 9 Dec. 1686. The town tax list of 1675 assessed him on 193 pounds 10 shillings. In 1683, he stood Smith of Jamaica.

The compiler feels dissatisfied also with the family of John, not having seen sufficient record evidence for the statements usually made concerning this family group. For another John Smith who could conceivably have been husband of Elizabeth Mills, see page 69. The name Elizabeth is strangely absent in the family of John [No. 57, below], her alleged son. We frankly have seen no proof that the following children belong to John^3 [No. 12], but have found no other likely place for them, and tentatively follow the standard pedigree. Other children are sometimes assigned to John^3, whom we omit because they seem not to belong here and even circumstantial evidence for them is lacking.

Children:

56 i. John^4, b. (say 1685); d. 1722.
57 ii. Judith, b. ca. 1689; d. 25 Aug. 1712 ae. 23; m. Henry Ludlam, b. ca. 1690, d. at Jamaica, 9 Oct. 1752 in his 63d yr., son of John and Ruth (Carpenter) Ludlam.
58 iii. Phebe, d. before 1723; second wife of Henry Ludlam above.

13. Benjamin^3 Smith, born [say 1664], living at Jamaica in 1723; married (contract dated 3 Feb. 1686), Sarah Gale, daughter of Abel Gale.

Benjamin and Sarah Smith conveyed, 10 Sept. 1723, to their son, Ephraim Smith, weaver. No probate is found, and the family record is incomplete. Benjamin, Ephraim, and Benjamin, Jr., were members of Capt. John Carpenter's Company at Jamaica, 1715.

Children (probably others):

60 i. Ephraim^4, living 1723; not traced further.
61 ii. (prob.) Benjamin, d. at Jamaica between 17 July 1758 (will) and 14 Apr. 1759 (probate); m. Mary Thurston, dau. of Benjamin Thurston. Children:
  1. Nathaniel^5.
  2. Sarah.
  3. Mary, m. Benjamin Wright.
  4. Benjamin.
  5. John.
  6. Henry.
  7. Moses, incompetent, to be supported.

15. Samuel^3 Smith, born after 1668, living at Jamaica in 1748; married Hannah Denton, born 5 Aug. 1677, daughter of Daniel Denton.

He conveyed in 1748 to his grandson Waters Smith, son of his "only son" Samuel Smith. He was considered as possible father of a group of children baptized at Jamaica, but they are placed tentatively under No. 9, John Smith of Mespat family (see page 67).

Child:

62 i. Samuel^4, b. ca. 1701; d. between 9 Feb. 1775 (will) and 11 Dec. 1783 (probate); m. Elizabeth Waters, dau. of Anthony and Elizabeth (Whitehead) Waters. Children:
  1. Waters^5, d. at Jamaica between 30 Aug. 1773 (will) and 11 Dec. 1783 (probate); m. Deborah ———. No issue.
  2. Melancthon, d. at New York between 15 Aug. 1793 (will) and 2 Aug. 1798 (probate).
  3. Benjamin, d. at Jamaica between 13 Oct. 1784 (will) and 18 Mar. 1785 (probate).
  4. Israel.
  5. Samuel.
  6. Mary, perhaps m. Stephen Field.
  7. Elizabeth, m. William Forbus.

27. Timothy^3 Smith, born at Milford, 6 Nov. 1669, died there 2 Mar. 1739 in his 71st year (gravestone); will dated 1 Dec. 1739, proved 24 Mar. 1739/40; married Elizabeth Wilkinson, born 30 May 1674, daughter of Edward and Rebecca (Smith) Wilkinson.

Children, born at Milford:

63 i. Rebecca^4, bp. 29 Mar. 1702; m. 29 May 1735, Jacob Brownson (Bronson) of New Milford and Cornwall, Conn., son of Samuel and Lydia Bronson.

64 ii. Timothy, b. 6 Feb. 1703/4; bp. 6 Feb. 1704; d. s.p., not mentioned in father's will or in distribution of his brother Benjamin's estate; but he is prob. the Timothy Smith who m. at Milford, 29 Oct. 1729, Abigail Camp, prob. b. 1 Mar. 1696/7, dau. of Lieut. Samuel and Rebecca (Atkinson) (Canfield) Camp.

65 iii. Daniel, b. 19 Oct. 1706; bp. 20 Oct. 1706; d. 1762.

66 iv. Lydia, b. 30 Sept. 1710; bp. 30 Sept. 1710; m. 21 Nov. 1734, Timothy Botsford, b. 3 Apr. 1708, d. 1774, son of Timothy and Mary (Peck) Botsford.

67 v. Benjamin, b. 2 Apr. 1714; d. 22 Sept. 1749 in 36th yr. (g.s.); estate distributed 13 May 1757; m. 16 June 1747, Mehetable Botsford, b. 17 Oct. 1715, dau. of Samuel and Hannah Botsford. Children:
  1. Aaron^5, bp. 7 Aug. 1748; d. before 1757.
  2. Comfort, bp. 1 July 1750; d. before 1757.

68 vi. Ebenezer, b. 22 Sept. 1717; d. 31 Aug. 1750.

31. Samuel^3 Smith, baptized at Milford, 18 Feb. 1682/3, died there in 1769 (will 18 Jan. 1764, proved March 1769); married Margaret Fowler, born at Milford, 4 Oct. 1698, died 20 Aug. 1750, aged 53 (gravestone), daughter of William and Anna (Beard) Fowler.

Children, born at Milford:

69 i. Margaret^4, bp. 18 July 1725; d. at Milford, 2 June 1756 in 38th yr. (g.s.); will 2 June 1756; m. 30 May 1754, Joseph Emes, whose will 22 June 1769 was proved July 1769.

TRIAL OF WYANDANCH

January 25th, 1658.

"Waiandanch, Sachem of Meantaquit, Plt., hath entred an action of Damage against Jeremy Daily defendant.

"Mr. Lion Gardiner testifieth that hee was at the Iland when my son and Goodman Daily came over, and I heard that the Great Cannow was coming, and I went Down to meet them, and made a noise for them that were in the house, to follow me, and I mett my sonn and Goodman Daily coming up, and I asked them whie they puled not up the canow, and they said it was time enough, and I called them to goe to gett it up, and we all went, and could do nothing, and then we went agen, and she was full.

"John Rose testifieth, that when the canow was brought into the South harbor, my Brother, Anthony Waters and Goodman Daily, did mend the canow, by putting 2 pieces into the side of her and upon that account they were to have the use of her, when their time was out, to carrie over their things.

"The verdict of the Jury--they find for the Plt. 10s. Damage, and court charges.

The Court charges is œœl 1s 0d.

OATH OF TOWN OFFICERS

The Oaths of the Officers of the Town were very minute, and pointed out their duties. The Oaths are generally very solemn; sometimes however the forms were singular, and expressed in the extreme quaint style of the day. The following was at an early period, the Oath of the Constable:

"You, being chosen eonstable of this Court, Doe swear, by the name of the Great, Ever-Living God, that you will faithfull put in execution all such warrants as shall be entrusted unto you for to execute, during this year for which you are chosen, in case you stay among us, soe well as you can, soe helpe you God."

And again:--

"At a Legall Meeting of ye freeholders and Commonalty of ye Town of East-Hampton, April ye first, 1718, Cornelius Conkling was chosen Town Clerk, and sworn as followeth:

"You, Cornelius Conkling, Do swear that you shall safly keep all ye Books and Records delivered to

Copy of the original Indian deed, for the Town of East-Hampton

APRILL the 29th, 1648.

This present writing testifieth an agreement between the worship'll Theophilus Eaton, Esquire, Governour of the Colony of New Haven, And the worship'll Edward Hopkins, Esquire, Governor of the Colony Connecticut, and their asotyats on the one parte, And Poggatacut, Sachem of Munhansett, Wayandanch, Sachem Meuntacut, Momowetow, Sachem of Corchake, Nowedonah, Sachen of Shinecoke, and their asotyates, the other Part. Allsoe, they reserve libertie to fish in all convenient places, for Shells to make wampum. Allsoe, if the Indyans, hunting of any deare, they should chase them into the water, and the English should kill them, the English shall have the body, and the Sachem the skin.

The Address drawn up at a General Training, in June, 1682

"To the Honorable the Governour, under his Royal Highness the Duke of York, The Humble address of the Inhabitants of the Towne of East-Hampton, upon Long Island, Sheweth:
"Wheras, at the time the Government of New-Yorke was established under our Soveraigne Lord the King, by Collonell Richard Nicolls, and those Gentlemen sent in Commission with him, Wee the Inhabitants of this Towne, soe well as the rest of the Island being required, sent our messengers to attend their Honours, and then, both by word and writing, wee were promised and engaged the Enjoyments of all privileges and liberties, which others of his Majesties Subjects doe enjoy, which was much to our content and satisfaction: Alsoe, afterwards being required by these, his Majesties Commissioners, to send up our Deputies to meete at Hempstead, and there the whole Island being Assembled in our Representatives, wee did then and there, uppon the renewal of these former promises of our freedom and liberties, Grant and Compact with the said Colonel Nicolls, Governor under his Royall Highness, That wee would allow so much out of our Estates yearly, as might defray the charge of Publicke Justice amongst us, and for killing of wolves, &c.
"But may it Please your Honour to understand, that since that Time we are deprived and prohibited of our Birthright, Freedomes and Priviledges, to which both we and our ancestors were borne; Although we have neither forfeited them by any misdemeanor of ours, nor have we at any time beene forbidden the due use and exercise of them, by command of our Gratious King, that wee know of; And as yet neither wee, nor the rest of his Maje tie's subjects uppon this Island, have been at at any time admitted since then, to enjoy a Generall and free Assembly of our Representatives, as others of his Majesties Subjects have had the priviledge of; But Lawes and Orders have beene imposed uppon us from time to time, without our consent, (and therein we are totally deprived of a fundamental Privilege of our English Nation,) together with the obstruction of Trafficke and Negotiation with others of his Majesties Subjects, So that wee are become very unlike other of the King's Subjects in all other Collonyes and Jurisdictions here in America, and cannot but much resent our grievances in this respect, and remaine discouraged with respect to the Settlement of ourselves and Posteritie after us. Yet all this time payments and performance of what hath beene imposed uppon us, hath not beene omitted on our parts, although performance of our premised Privileges aforesaid, have been wholly unperformed; and what payments from yeare to yeare, this many years, hath been made by us, Hath been made use of to other purposes than at first they were granted for and intended by us; Soe that wee cannot but feare, if Publicke affairs, of government shall continue in this manner as they have been, but hope better, least our Freedomes should be turned into Bondage, and Antient Priviledges so infringed, that they will never arrive to our Posteritie. And wee ourselves may be justlie and highly culpable before his Majestie, for our Subjection to, and Supporting of such a Government, Constituted soe Contrarie to the fundamentall Lawes of England; it being a principal part of his Majestie's Antiente and Just Government, to rule over a free people, endowed with many Priviledges above others, and not over Bondmen, oppressed by Arbitrary Impositions and Exactions. These things Considered, we cannot but humbly request your Honor to weigh our condition in the Ballance of Equity, with seryousness, before you proceede to any Action of your owne, whereby to assert the proceedings of your Predecessors in Government, which wee now, with all Christian moderation doe complaine of. And for the redresse hereof, an Addresse as we understand, hath been made to his Royall Highnesse, by a late court of Assize, in behalf of us and our Neighbors in this Colloney; Soe that we are not without hope your Honour hath received Directions to ease us in these our grievances, by the Remedies humbly represented by us, and petitioned for by the Inhabitants of this Island, to the last Court of Assize that did sitt att New-Yorke, to which as yet, no satisfactorie answer hath beene made. If therefore your Honour may bee an Instrument under God, and his Majestie our Soveraigne Lord the King, to relieve us, and the rest of his Majestie's good subjects upon this Island in our grievances, and bee a meanes to helpe us to the free Enjoyment of our Birthright Priviledges, which the fundamentall Constitution of our English National Government doth invest us with (which as we doubt not, will bee very pleasing to his Majestie, and all your Loyall Superiors,) Soe your Honour may bee assured it will firmly Engage and Oblige us, your humble Petitioners, and our Posteritie after us, to have your Prudence and Justice in Honourable Remembrance, as the first Restorer of our freedome and priviledges, to our great Contentment. But, Sir, if it shall fall out otherwise, which God forbid, and wee are very unwilling to suppose, and that your Honour should, by reason of Counsells and Sugestions, pursue a contrary course to our humble Desires, soe as to continue or augment our grievances, then wee request your Honours Pardon and Excuse, if in our conscience to God, and in Honour and Submission to his Majestie, our most Gratlous Soveraigne, we prostrate our Selves, and our State and Condition, before the Throne of his unmatchable Justice and Clemencie, where we doubt not to find Relief and Restauration, and can doe no less, in the meane time, but Resent our forlorne and bereaved Condition. So, Sir, as our prayers are Continued for a happy and glorious Reighne to his Sacred Majestie the King; and alsoe our prayers shall be for your Honour, that you may be a blessed Instrument under God, in your Wisdome, Justice and Equity over us: And humblie make bold to subscribe ourselves his Majestie's poore, depressed, though Loyall Subjects and your most Humble Servants.

Long Island Wills and death notes, 1665-1707
Whereas ANTHONY WATERS, late of Jamaica, upon Long Island, died intestate. His widow RACHEL WATERS, is appointed administratrix, April 15, 1675.

In the court record 1658, John Rose call Anthony Waters "my brother". Was this because he was married to his sister? And was his sister, Rachel Waters, administratrix of the estate of her husband, Anthony Waters in 1675 ??

Keep looking for all things Rose.

Hi Mary...I am so glad that you are working on this group - you are an excellent researcher, and your instincts are great. You get a real feel for the families, and that is important. I don't know if I told you that Dorothea (desc. of Tychicus) has an apartment in D.C. and gets there usually monthly, and works in the DAR library there while there. I think between the two of you, things are going to happen!

I really need to get to LI again. There are more records there. The branch through the son Jonathan is just not clear enough, and looking at more records may help. Of course, in that area Town records are important too, and they could hold answers. Never enough time!!

I keep reading and re-reading the Robert and Dorothy (   ) Rose of LI report and then go to the Long Island research report. The one thing I just cannot see is what happened to the land in the following:

> Deed from Jonathan Rose of ye southside of Brook huven, yeoman, 160 acres for 400 pounds to: Sam'E: Rose, Ephraim Rose, Thimothy Rose, Esekill Rose dated 10 June 1720. On the same date, Robert Rose conveyed, for 50 pounds, interest in land running on the line of said Robert Rose, adjoining a parcel of 15 acre lots now in the possession or occupation of Jonathan Rose to the same grantees.

Why does this not show up in later grantor indexes?? No do any further abstracted records, apparently, even mention Samuel, Ephraim, Timothy or Ezekiel. What happened to this land?? Somewhere, in some record, this land was sold or listed in an estate or something !!! Since these are the names so important to a possible connection to Hunterdon Co. NJ or other locations in NJ, we must find out about this land.

Also, you note this information conceming the deeds under 14, Jonathan 3 Rose (Jonathan 2, Robert 1) my page 27, the Robert and Dorothy report of 1993. Unless Jonathan 2, married Jane Nearon Williams on 26 May 1682 had an earlier marriage before 1682, a son Jonathan 3 would be at the most, age 38 in 1720. Was Jonathan 3 deeding land to his brothers, Samuel, Ephraim, Timothy and Ezekiel? Same with Robert's deeds...........I would presume the grantees would have been of age and so, not the children of Jonathan 3 since his max age (by marriage of Jonathan and Jane) could only have been, as mentioned 38. The inclusion of these deed transactions under Jonathan 3 Rose is confusing to me........help.

Christine,
Oh my gosh........I just "bought" a DNA test, or so it seems from this forwarded e-mail. My surname is not ROSE, but by golly I am a Rose and get to help with this wonderful new genealogy tool !!!
I guess I just wait for the invoice and hope they send the kit to Arthur Rose of Block Island and not to me.
I am so glad that you called him and glad that Eleanor changed his mind for him. How long does it usually take for the test once they receive the returned kit?? I can hardly wait to see if I am related to Tormut or still related to nobody we know (as yet).
I am very excited............

DAVISSON/SMITH

Searching for birth record of Elizabeth Davisson supposed to have been born 8 Aug 1769 per cemetery stone who married Watters Smith b 15 Jul 1767 - d 23 Mar 1849 per cemetery stone. Elizabeth's death date on cemetery stone is 26 Jul 1839. Elizabeth and Watters marriage was c 1793.

RESPONSE, 1ST: I've looked through everything I have and couldn't locate Elizabeth. I found Waters' family in "Gen. of NJ Families," with him married to her, but that was it.

2nd QUERY

I very much appreciate your search for Elizabeth Davisson's birth documentation. You may have uncovered an important link. I would be very interested in the Gen. of NJ Families to which you referred. I do not have documentation of Watters' (Waters') Smith (15 Jul 1767-23 Mar 1849) and Elizabeth Davisson's (8 Aug 1769-26 Jul 1839) marriage. I would like to know more about this publication and where I might locate it. Are there footnotes referring you to their sources of documentation or is this publication considered documentation of sorts? Any information you could furnish would be very helpful.

RESPONSE, 2ND:

"Genealogies of NJ Families" is a two volume set of books containing data taken from the Genealogy Magazine of NJ. It has become quite popular with gen. libraries and is also now on CD, supposedly complete. Pages 750 to 787 in volume I contains workups on various Smith families in NJ, including the one producing Waters Smith. Waters' data comes from a Bible record; he is the son of Thomas & Sarah (Green) Smith. The family was from Maidenhead, Hunterdon Co., the father being born there and subsequently dying in Monmouth Co. Since this traces the family all the way back to NY origins in the 1600s you might want to obtain a copy. If nothing else, the NJ Gen Soc. will photocopy them for you for a fee. You might also be able to obtain a copy of the Bible record showing his birth.

Christine,

Have been going over the report I just received concerning Robert and Dorothy Rose of Suffolk Co. LI, NY. I noted that you still do not assign a name to their daughter who married Anthony Waters. You cite a MANN article as saying that "the eldest Rose child was a girl and that by October 1654 she had married Anthony Waters".

I have spent several days on the internet......looking. Many, many people are researching this Anthony Waters and almost all have listed his wife as, Rachel Rose.

Some list her parents as Robert Rose and Dorothy Conkling............

I found the following:

> http://www.longislandgenealogy.com/1665-1707.html
> "Whereas ANTHONY WATERS, late of Jamaica, upon Long Island, died intestate." His widow Rachel Waters, is appointed administratrix. April 15, 1675.

Several people list the children of Anthony and Rachel Rose Waters. One man, Paul D. Schenck, on GenForum/Waters site states that their son, Jonathan Waters who married a Deborah ? died about 1761 in Hopewell, HUNTERDON Co. NJ.

Let me know what you have on this unknown daughter of Robert and Dorothy Rose and if I can add anything, I will send what I have copied on Anthony and family.

I found Anthony Waters served on a jury ye 2d of October 1665........this pertained to the trial of Ralph and Mary Hall for witchcraft. Also, found the following:

> New Haven Colonial Records, Vol. II, p. 349-50, shows that ANTHONY WATERS, attorney for John Concklin, Tho. Osman & Tho. Rider, inhabitants on the land called Hashamommock, plainteifs, entred an action of the case agains John Budd, Senior, for breach of an ancient order made for ye preservation of good neighbourhood, 28 May 1660...........NOTE..quite lenghthy, but, Hashamommock was in Southold, Long Island.

People keep posting that the Rachel Rose who married Rev. Joseph Powell is the daughter of Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler.....we know this is not the case. Do you know the parents of Rachel who married Rev. Powell ?? Her grandson, William Bishop (born 1792) stated that his grandmother (Rachel Rose Powell) was born in Berkley Manor, now Morgan Co. WVA.
Thanks much,
Mary R M Nunneley >>

Hi Mary: That has been and still is one of our "mysteries." Some thoughts on this:

There was a Rachel Rose born 1742 who married Rev. Joseph Powell. She is said in his obituary to be of Welsh ancestry. They lived in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. One of their daughters married David Bowen Jr., a brother of Rebeckah (Bowen) Rose. Since John and Rebeckah (Bowen) Rose named a son Powell Rose, it seems possible that Rachel (Rose) Powell (who was about nineteen years older than John Rose who m. Rebeckah Bowen) was either an aunt, or an older sister, or at least related in some manner.

That's all I know!

RUNNING THE LINE — 1766

by Brian Tucker

April 19, 1766 — Mess'rs Mason and Dixon set the Crownstone for mile marker 125 to mark the boundary between Pennsylvania and Maryland. If this was not the first major boundary line run using celestial navigation, it was certainly one of the most controversial and hotly contested, at least on this continent.

It is the evening of Saturday, April 19, 1766. Mason and Dixon and their workers have just finished setting the crownstone for mile marker 125 located just east of Big Tonoloway Creek. In the right foreground, Jeremiah Dixon enters the day's events in a journal while getting advice on the terrain ahead from Captain Shelby, the ex-trapper and frontiersman in the candy stripe capote. (Capotes were coats made from Hudson Bay point blankets that were used primarily for trading with the Indians. The number of points determined the blanket's quality and its value in hides. They came in a variety of colors including candy stripe as depicted — red, yellow, blue and grey. Also, patterns varied greatly as each was usually homemade according to the owner's tastes and resources.) Charles Mason is holding the telescope. He is checking the progress of the axemen who are just returning to camp at the far right. They were employed to cut a vista through wooded areas. The vista was from 20 to 25 feet wide and must have resembled closely the fire breaks and power line trails we see today in most mountainous areas.

The men all wear coats and jackets because even though it is late April the weather has been cold and damp. Just prior to this they were beset with a week of rain, and in just two days from now they will have 4 inches of snow on the ground. J. Dixon has his sextant case open and ready on the trunk beside him, even though there is scant chance for a star sighting. Most of the men are armed even while working because the lands they are rapidly approaching are still in dispute with the Indians, and they are waiting for Sir William Johnston to conclude negotiations for permission to continue the line. Also, there is constant harassment from landowners as timber is cut and livestock disturbed. Very few people are happy about the survey; settlers fear loss of property as it is bisected by the line. Only seven more of the stones that are in the wagon will be used because "Sidelong Hill" in the background will prevent further travel by wagon, and they are too heavy to carry. Some of those left over will later be found as door steps, lintels and foundation stones in barns and houses.

Some artistic license has been taken, but we feel we have captured the essence of the event and the painting is as historically accurate as the information available would permit. The original marker still exists in a fencerow, overgrown with briars and undergrowth. The large trees of the virgin forest are no longer there. We assume they were oak, but they might have been chestnut, beech, white pine or any combination thereof. In the interest of art, many things have been left to the viewer's imagination. Fallen and cut trees, wagon loads of supplies, equipment used in the survey, etc. are not shown because there wasn't room on the painting to show these and still have the marker appear prominently. We hope you will enjoy this pictorial rendition of what it was like to be in southern Fulton County (then Cumberland County) in 1766, and will be inspired to delve more deeply into the history that surrounds us every day. The Mason and Dixon Line is an especially fascinating story.

HISTORY OF THE MASON-DIXON LINE

In 1632, King Charles I of England gave the territory of Maryland to Sir George Calvert, the first Lord Baltimore, and specified the northern boundary as the 40th parallel. In 1681, King Charles II gave the territory of Pennsylvania to William Penn in payment of a debt, and set the southern boundary as the 40th parallel until it intersected a circle 12 miles distant from the center of New Castle. However, it was soon discovered that a 12-mile circle from New Castle was still 13 miles south of the 40th parallel, so the line did not close. Eventually, the two sides agreed to run a line 15 miles south of the southernmost edge of Philadelphia, but other conflicts remained unsolved for 82 years. Some argued for measuring up hills and down valleys rather than horizontal; others claimed the circle from New Castle should be 12 miles in circumference rather than 12 miles radius. In 1763, Proprietors of both colonies agreed to petition the Royal Astronomer of England to recommend impartial scientific astronomers who could solve these problems and mark an accurate survey line.

On August 4, 1763, a contract was signed with Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon of England. Mason had a long record of distinguished service at the Royal Observatory at Greenwich. Both he and Dixon had been on two expeditions to Africa and India to observe eclipses. They arrived in Philadelphia on November 15, 1763, and kept a daily journal for 58 months until their work was completed in 1768. The survey cost $75,000 for labor and other expenses and was shared equally by Maryland and Pennsylvania. Dixon died in England in 1777, but Mason later brought his wife and 8 children to America where he died in 1787 at Philadelphia. A few selected entries from their journal:

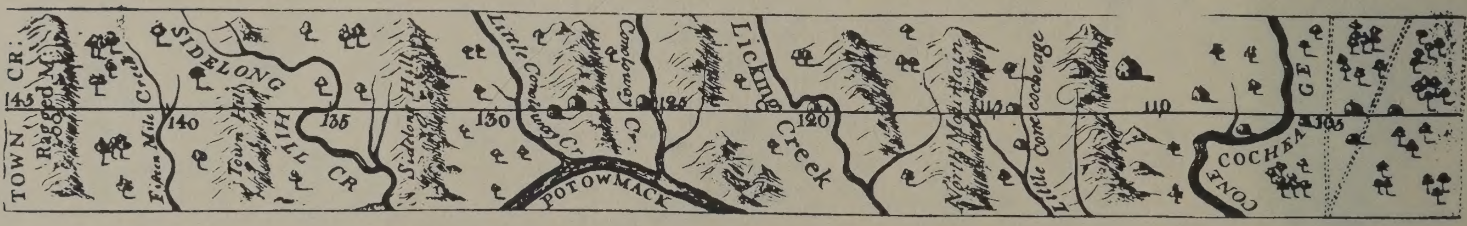
June 23	Engaged ax men, etc. The whole company including Steward, Tent keepers, Cooks, Chain carriers, etc. amounting to 39. Two waggons, eight horses, etc.

[By the end of 1765, they had surveyed as far as North Mountain, the border between Franklin County and Fulton County today.]

1766
March 15	Left Annapolis and proceeded for the North Mountain to continue the Line.
21	Received our instructions to proceed with the Line to the Allegany Mountain.
April 4	At 118 miles 63 chains crossed the Head of little Licking Creek running into Conecocheage.
7-10	Rain [daily]. Waiting for the Waggons and Tents which were prevented arriving by Weather.
14	Mr. McLane came with the Waggons, Tents, etc.
15	Snow and rain.
16	Continued the Line.
17	At 121 miles 61 chains crossed a Road leading from Fort Frederick to the little cove.
18	At 122 miles 67 chains crossed Great Licking-creek. At 123 miles 6 chains Mr. Brown's House 6 chains North.
19	Continued the line.
20	Sunday. [It appears Sunday was always kept as a day of rest from work.]
21	At 126 miles 71 chains crossed the 1st branch of the Conoloways. Snow fell all afternoon.
22	Continued the Line. In the morning, the Snow 4 inches deep in General.
26	At 134 miles 54 chains the foot of Sidelong Hill. Here we could proceed no further with the waggons.



By 1767, Mason and Dixon were entering territory where Virginia (now West Virginia) met the Pennsylvania line, and permission was needed from the Six Indian Nations to continue. The surveyors requested 5 or 6 Indian representatives to accompany them, but between 100 and 150 showed up at first. The survey line was finally stopped at mile 230 by the Indians in order not to cross a major warpath.

The stones used by Mason and Dixon as permanent markers were cut of white linestone and brought from England. They were about one foot square and five feet long, with two feet set in the ground. A stone was placed every mile until Mason and Dixon reached mile 132 in Fulton County where they decided the terrain was too mountainous to continue taking the wagons loaded with stones. Westward from mile 132, they piled mounds of earth and rocks to mark each mile; the original unused markers were abandoned. Many were discovered in the Clearspring, Maryland, area when the line was resurveyed early in the 20th century, and used to replace missing or broken markers.

Most mile markers have only the letters M or P on opposite sides, but every fifth marker shows the coat of arms of the Proprietors and are called crown stones. The crown stone at mile 125 is the original one placed by Mason and Dixon in 1766; it has never been reset, but has sunken into the ground until the "crowns" are now at ground level. The marker is along a fencerow at the top of a very steep hill west of Timber Ridge Road.

Recreation

More than 70 percent of the land area in Fulton County remains unspoiled forests and woodlands. Another 25 percent is crop and pasture land. By anyone's definition, the county is strictly rural; population density is less than 25 persons per square mile. That leaves a lot of room for recreation.

It's open season on fun in Fulton County year round. Cowans Gap State Park, set in a cleft along the crest of Tuscarora Mountain, offers a variety of outdoor activities: hunting, fishing, swimming, hiking, camping, interpretive nature programs. Boating on the park's 42-acre lake is limited to non-gasoline powered watercraft.

Set like a jewel atop Meadow Grounds Mountain in the heart of Fulton County, is Meadow Grounds Lake. This 208-acre lake operated by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission is stocked regularly, and the fishing is first rate. (Gasoline powered boats are prohibited on the lake.) In addition, hiking trails in the area, especially when trekked in the Fall with the countryside cloaked in Pennsylvania's famous "flaming foliage," rank among the most beautiful in the state.

The numerous waterways in the county provide ample opportunity for stream fishing. In Spring, anglers from all parts of the state find their way to famous Little Cove Creek in search of the elusive rainbow trout. Canoeists will find Licking Creek, a tributary of the Potomac River, offers exciting whitewater adventure.

Hunting is excellent. Nearly 50,000 acres of State Game and Forest Lands, plus another 140,000 acres of private woodlands, yield a fine harvest of deer, small game and fowl.

Winter sports are not forgotten. Ice fishing and ice skating can be enjoyed at Cowans Gap and Meadow Grounds. The Bureau of Forestry maintains seven snowmobile trail systems in the county, and sledding enthusiasts are legion on Fulton County's scores of perfect hills. Skiers have but an hour-and-a-half drive to their choice of slopes.

But the best thing about recreation in Fulton County is the environment — clean, unspoiled and naturally beautiful.

Community Services

Community service is an integral part of life in Fulton County. It is not ironic in an area where neighborly barn-raisings are still a part of everyday life that publicly funded services are among rural Pennsylvania's best. Some years ago, perceiving the need for special programs for its increasing numbers of elderly residents, the county government played a pivotal role in establishing and maintaining a state and federally funded pilot project to aid the elderly. The Fulton County Office of Human Services is today the primary vehicle for delivery of services not only to the aged, but to all segments of the local population.

Medical services are centered in McConnellsburg, where a full-service hospital, the Fulton County Medical Center, provides 24-hour emergency treatment, intensive care, maternity services — even long term care in an integrated nursing home facility. The hospital is staffed by doctors who are also general practitioners in the local community.

The county's three volunteer fire companies, located in Hustontown, McConnellsburg and Needmore, provide emergency ambulance service as well as fire protection.

Media serving the community include two locally published weekly newspapers, an area daily with a Fulton County Bureau and radio station WVFC (1530 AM) broadcasting dawn to dusk from McConnellsburg.

Educational opportunities are varied. Three public school systems — one in each geographic region — provide compulsory education for children and offer a variety of evening classes for adults. A publicly funded pre-school day care center is located in McConnellsburg. Two parochial schools, St. Stephen's Catholic School and Fulton County Christian School, offer alternatives to public education. In addition, the Sharon Mennonite Bible Institute near Harrisonville is a non-denominational post-secondary school offering courses in Biblical study.

The Pennsylvania State University Agricultural Extension Service office in McConnellsburg dispenses more than just practical advice in farming and gardening. The Extension Service has created special programs to promote and coordinate community affairs. A useful aid for newcomers is a pamphlet published by the Extension Service listing local charities, civic clubs, churches, public service offices and other handy information.

Shopping and Jobs

Fulton County is an agricultural community principally involved in dairy farming, and commerce has traditionally existed here to serve the modest needs of the farm family. Even today, villages throughout the county are centered on the "general store," and in some cases, too, the grist mill.

But with the coming of manufacturing industries in the 1960's and 70's, new businesses have flourished. These new businesses clustered around McConnellsburg, the center of industry and population. Here can be found supermarkets, the latest fashions and appliances, car dealers, pharmacies — everything, in fact, required by the modern household. In addition, shopping malls in nearby larger cities are less than an hour's drive away.

Fulton County is still completely rural and unspoiled in its natural beauty. Because of this, and the fact that the county is criss-crossed by two interstate highways (I-70 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike), tourism has become an important new industry. Restaurants and motels dot the interstates and other highways (primarily U.S. Routes 30 and 522), and, again, are concentrated in and near McConnellsburg. Service stations are plentiful and convenient. The general increase in tourism has spawned its own specialized industry, and there is now a thriving trade in gifts and crafts, many of the items unique and locally produced.

Jobs have become more plentiful with the growth of manufacturing industries. Factories in the county produce industrial machinery, clothing, hardware and applicances. Industries are attracted by the stable, hard-working labor force, a favorable tax structure and the willingness of the community to welcome and assist compatible new industry.

A favorable balance has been maintained between job-producing industries and environmental protection. There are no smokestacks to foul the air and spoil the landscape. Industries that have located here are "clean," and they have demonstrated their desire to preserve the natural beauty of Fulton County.

A Brief History

Although Fulton County was formed in 1850 from the eastern section of Bedford County, its history dates back to the early 1700's. The first settlers are believed to have arrived in the valley of the Tonoloways in southern Fulton County about 1735. Later, groups settled in the Great Cove and in northern areas of the county on land that had not yet been secured from the Indians. The Pennsylvania colonial government was forced to burn some settlers' cabins in 1750 to temporarily pacify the Indians. Five years later, the Indians unleashed their wrath on the settlers in what became known as the "Great Cove Massacre." This helped prompt the building of a chain of forts along the frontier, including Fort Littleton in 1755. In the same year, the famous Forbes Road was opened through the northern end of the county.

The area enjoyed steady growth, and by 1850 the citizens of eastern Bedford County were ready to petition for the formation of a new county to better serve the residents. Fulton County resulted. McConnellsburg, first settled in the 1760's, was named the county seat, and in 1851 the existing court house was built.

The 1860's saw county participation in the Civil War with many residents serving in Union regiments. McConnellsburg residents witnessed the first Confederate soldiers killed on Pennsylvania soil during a skirmish in 1863 and the last Confederate camp north of the Mason-Dixon line in 1864.

Several skilled Fulton County craftsmen are known to have made the famous Pennsylvania long rifle, often mistakenly called the "Kentucky" rifle. George Diven, a farmer and wagon maker in McConnellsburg, was recognized by Westinghouse Air Brake Company and others, as the inventor of the friction brake.

Fulton Countians are aware of their heritage and have made efforts to preserve the best of their past. Three major historic restorations took place in the Bicentennial year. The local bar association restored a turn-of-the-century law office in McConnellsburg, residents of the village of Amaranth restored a one-room school, and the entire county participated in the restoration of a renowned old hostelry, the Fulton House in McConnellsburg. July 4, 1976 dedication ceremonies capped the three-year, $100,000 Fulton House project. The east section of the building is now the home of the Fulton County Historical Society.

Individuals interested in looking further into the history of the county are welcome to use the Society's Historical Library on the second floor of the Fulton House. The Historical Society has listings of local historic structures, including two that are on the National Register of Historic Places, the Fulton House and the McConnell House, home of the founder of McConnellsburg.

FULTON COUNTY

Cradled in the slopes and valleys of the Southern Allegheny Mountains in Southcentral Pennsylvania, is Fulton County, a provincial county of farmers, merchants and factory workers. There lingers among its people a spirit of independence born of a generations-old struggle to survive in a region cut off by rugged mountains from urban conveniences. A sense of pride there is in the pioneer heritage of this county and in the traditions that have survived.

Even before the nation's Bicentennial celebration and the advent of the search for ''roots,'' the people of Fulton County began to take a close look at their own unique traditions. What they found was a culture as steadfast as their mountains and as unspoiled as their sky and streams. The people decided there should be a celebration of their heritage — an annual event to preserve and promote the traditions on which their culture is based. The Fulton Fall Folk Festival is that event.

Every geographic region and all segments of the community participated to create the first annual Folk Festival in 1974. It was a tremendous success. Thousands of visitors came from more than a dozen states and three foreign countries to share in the celebration. Every year since, on the third weekend of October, the people of Fulton County have joined together to make the Folk Festival a better, more rewarding experience.

Many groups and individuals in the county have gained a measure of renown because of their activities during the Folk Festivals. In 1977, the ladies of the Green Hill Sewing Club were invited to boil apple butter — the traditional Fulton County way — at the Festival of American Folk Life in Washington, D.C. Two gentlemen from the Hustontown area were also invited to the national festival, to squeeze apple cider on their antique wooden presses. Needmore farmer Don Hill, who annually rides a 2,000-pound steer in the Fulton Fall Folk Festival parade, has been invited to participate in other parades in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia.

The Folk Festival itself draws distinction from the fame of some of its participants, most notably two-time national muzzleloader champion Clarence Bender, the Kelso family, whose antique auto restorations have won prizes throughout the East, and grandmother Betty Berkstresser, whose handmade quilt was judged best in Pennsylvania at the 1978 State Farm Show.

Each year the Folk Festival seems to grow. Spurred by the success of others, more and more community organizations are taking the time to trace more of the county's history and to recreate the best of it for the Festival. Why not plan to visit Fulton County during the next Fulton Fall Folk Festival? There's a lot to learn, to see, to do... and to remember.

Dear Historians;

I haven't access to the "Index of New-Jersey Wills", therefore I'm hoping you will assist me just a bit.

I wish a copy (or even just the date of the writing) of the will of Ezekial Rose who died 1768, Hunterdon Co., Amwell Township, I'm told. He was born 17 July 1705.

I'm attempting to prove or disprove that his daughter, Rachel, was my ancestor. My Rachel married in Hunterdon Co. 1764 to Rev. Joseph Powell.

Enclosing $4.00 deposit plus SASE. More will be sent if, required.

Thank you —

Perhaps these dates are too early for your records, but will you please check your "Family Name Index" for Joseph Powell and Rachel Rose? They were supposedly married in Hopewell, Hunterdon Co., in 1764. Rachel was born somewhere in New Jersey in 1742. For a number of years I have been trying, without success, to establish her parentage.

Thank you.

Enoch James and Sarah his wife, 50 acres in Monongalia to John Rose. 8 June 1798. All of Harrison Co. VA. BK OS 1, p 491

NOTES:

Joseph Powell and Rachel Rose were married in Hunterdon Co., NJ in 1764. (I have not seen proof for this and info received from a researcher on this family. mn)

Charles Rose and Rebecca (Mulliner?) Rose purchased their first land in Monongalia Co. VA in 1796 from Joseph and Mary Hunt of Bedford Co. PA.

Joseph Powell will, Bedford Co.-1800 (proved 1804) names wife, Rachel and all children. Wits: John Stillwell, Jacob Hart and John Hart. The Stillwell and Hart names are old Hunterdon Co., NJ family names. AND, a NJ marriage: Mary Mulliner of Hunterdon Co. m. John Stillwell of Sussex on 21 Feb 1769.

Now a question--are Rachel Rose Powell and John Rose, BROTHER AND SISTER. There is 19 years between their birthdates, but there are 20 years between Rebeckah Bowen Rose and her brother, David.

This is an old list, but we do have members interested in the ROSE family

Dear Chris,

Thanks for the Bowen material (last Nov.) and the great new Monongalia Co. report.

I can't seem to connect the Bowen material to William Bowen (probably of Greene Co. PA) who married Freelove Rose, dau of Charles of Monongalia Co. VA., but it did seem to ring a bell--Joseph Powell who married Rachel Rose and their possible connection to John Rose and Rebecca Bowen. I ordered a booklet (copy enclosed) from the Fulton County Historical Society trying to prove that Rachel is not the dau of Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ as some people think.

Rachel born Berkley Manor, Morgan Co., VA (per grandson - page 11). Rachel, b 1 Sep 1742, would have been born in what was Frederick Co. VA if grandson is correct:

Morgan Co...1820 from Berkeley and Hampshire
Berkeley...1772 from Frederick
Hampshire...1753 from Frederick
Frederick...1738-43 from Orange and Augusta

John Rose married Rebecca Bowen---he must have been of the Bedford or Franklin area. Their children's names are quite interesting: Powell Rose, Rachel Rose, Robert Rose, etc. John Rose purchased land from Enoch James and Sarah, his wife (she was Sarah Bowen, sister of Rebecca Bowen Rose). See enclosed material from a book I begged from the author by long distance several years ago. It was out of print and his last copy. It is not fully indexed and rather hard to use. One must really read to find the names. It does show John Rose and Enoch James as neighbors and living in what is now Marion Co., WVA.

Back to Joseph and Rachel Rose Powell---in 1770 (see page 15 of booklet) a Johanna Rose was a member of the Tonoloway Baptist Church. She was called Hannah in a membership list of 1769 (page 47). Is johanna Rose the wife of Robert Rose of Hampshire Co. VA (formed from Frederick)? And yes, Robert did purchase land in 1769 near Tonalaway Lick--I then began to wonder if Joseph Powell might also be found in Hampshire (Frederick area). He was a landowner in the same general area of Robert Rose (north side of the Potomac (see enclosed copies of Mason-Dixon material and VA Northern Neck surveys).

Per the will of Tychicus Rose of Washington Co. PA in 1793, he recommends that his children be brought up Baptist. An interesting recommendation considering the Johanna Rose of membership in Joseph Powell's Baptist church of Tonoloway.

The John Cesna (Cessna) of page 16 in the booklet who was a Signer along with Joseph Powell married #1 Sarah Rose, #2 Elizabeth Hall per DAR Patriot Index, Vol 1, pg. 121.

You wonder about my Charles Rose of Monongalia Co. VA and a connection to

John and Rebecca Bowen Rose--I still can't find it. Charles and Rebecca Rose of Monongalia did purchase land from the Hunts of Bedford Co. PA. Joseph Powell did study for the Baptist ministry in Hopewell, which was in Hunterdon Co. NJ and I believe is now in Mercer Co., but I just seem to be unable to see how they connect.

Oh yes, when I ordered the Joseph Powell booklet from Fulton Co. Hist. Society, they send a list of their members - 420 - and said some were researching the name Rose. How can you tell from a list of names!! Guess I will send $5.00 and join for a year to see if anyone contacts me. They did indicate on my application that I was interested in the name Rose. I had mentioned in my order that I was most interested in Rachel, wife of Joseph Powell.

I have written to a researcher in Appanoose Co., Iowa and have hopes she will be able to find something to prove that Abigail Hixenbaugh, w of Abraham is truly a daughter of Thomas Rose and Ruth Scudder. Their marriage is not in Appanoose Co. Their first son was born in May, 1857 per the 1900 census. They married sometime after 1854 (the birth of last child by wife #1 Mary). I hope she can find an obituary (1910). Will pass on anything I find to update Thomas 2, Charles 1.

Wnclosing $2.00 for current catalogs of reports (census, county and family). If it is more, please let me know.

As ever,

[illegible]

As for my personal estate I allow it to be sold at public vendue as soon as convenient after my decease, but not until all my daughters now living, Mary John, Owen Denham, Sarah James, and Rebecca Rose, may be notified, in order that they may attend, if they see proper and the whole of said estate to be equally divided between my afore said daughters.

I ordain and appoint my son, David Bowen and my grandson above named to execute this my last will and testament, disallowing all other wills by me made, confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

Hi Tom,
Just saw your query on GenForum concerning Joseph Powell and Rachel Rose.
If you do not have the following, I would suggest you order the booklet of 48 pages:

Joseph Powell 1734-1804, Delegate from Tonoloway
(by) Fulton County Historical Society, Inc.
P. O. Box 115
McConnellsburg PA 17233

I got a copy in 1990 and it was $4.00. It is a very good story of his life and tells about his wife, Rachel and their children.
Hope they still have it in print, because it will be most helpful to you.

Dear Mrs. Kinneley,

I realize this is not an ideal time for genealogical work but—.

I know you are a descendant of Ezekial Rose, N.J. (I was sent a copy of your letter to N.J. archives some months ago when I requested a copy of Ezekial's will.) I'm still searching for the ancestry of my Rachell Rose b 1 Sept. 1742, N.J. She married Joseph Powell 1764 in Hunterdon Co. (Hopewell). N.J. Had two children by the time Ezekial wrote his will so evidentally she wasn't the Rachel mentioned in it as he gives her name as Rose then. She d. 8 Sept. 1804. Her husband was a Baptist minister, chaplain in Rev. They d. in Bedford Co. Pa. There are various Rachel Rose's but so far none fits mine.

Do you have any data that would help me?

SASE enclosed.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Elms:

Though it has been quite a while since we last corresponded, I am still uncertain if there is any connection between your Rachel Rose Powell and my Charles Rose. Since Ezekiel named his married daughters by last or married names in his will of 1768 and Rachel would have married Joseph Powell four years prior to Ezekiel's will, I feel she might not be his daughter, Rachel Rose, as listed in the will. However, her birthdate of 1742 certainly puts her within the age range of some of Ezekiel's other children. Did he still call her Rachel Rose because, unlike his other married daughters, she had left to go to PA?

Ezekiel willed only personal goods to Rachel Rose and Jerusia Rose, which may indicate that they were still minors. Jerusia did not marry until 1772, and research has not shown as yet, who Rachel married (unless it is Joseph Powell).

I still watch at all times during my research on this Rose family for some connection, but have found nothing.

Hope your holidays are good and keep in touch about our research on the Rose families.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunnelley,

Hoping your mother is improving. Thanks, especially for troubling yourself to reply so promptly under those circumstances.

It would be great if we could prove that my Rachel & your Charles were brother and sister - So much is known of that line. When I first heard of the possibility of Ezekial Rose being my Rachel's father the problem was then brought up of his will giving her unmarried name and that of another sister, Jerusia. (The latter married Jacob Quick of Amwell, N.J. 28 Mar. 1772). In data from another Rose descendant had that Charles' wife, Rebecca, was probably a Mulliner and that they married 13 Jan. 1781.

Have you a copy of Ezekial's will? Possibly it was written before Rachel's marriage 1764 to Joseph Powell. The data I have has his death as 1768. Know where? Maybe we could obtain a copy. I'll check on that.

Yes, I have the DAR papers for Rev. Joseph Powell. Thanks for those of Charles Rose. From Baptist church records Rev. Powell wasn't born in Northampton Co. Pa, but Penepac, Philadelphia Co.. Some try to show his father as the Moravian, Rev. Joseph Powell, but I researched the latter thinking that to be true but came to the conclusion it isn't. Haven't learned the parents of my Joseph Powell.

I also have DAR papers of Allen Rose if you'd like a copy - although I don't know what good it would be to you -

Thanks again - loads. Wish I could help you -

Sincerely,

Dear Letona,

How exciting is the news of Rachel Rose. I would so much like to have copies of the material Mr. Benne, Platte City, MO, sent to you. Let me know the cost to you for copies and I will gladly send it.

A lady, Mrs. Louise Petterson of NY was researching the Rachel Rose/Tunis Swick family years ago, but since she was born in 1897, I wonder if she is still living. Also, another lady was doing research recently (within a couple of years) and I have misplaced her letter and the information, but will still look for it.

The lady from NY lived in the same town where Rachel Rose Swick is buried and gave the following information:

Rachel Rose born 1 Jan 1743, NJ, died 5 Feb 1817, Interlaken (formerly Farmer Village), NY. Buried at Covert Cemetery between Lodi & Ovid, NY in Seneca County. She married #1 John Peatt and #2, Tunis Swick. They lived in NJ, VA, again NJ, and moved t to New York in 1797, where they settled in Covert, Seneca County. Their issue:

John Swick	b	27 Apr 1763
Benjamin Swick	b	3 Dec 1764
Rachel Swick	b	3 Mar 1768
Masey Swick	b	3 Apr 1771
Martin Swick	b1	9 Apr 1773
Capt. Tunis Swick, Jr.	b	8 July 1775	(served in the War of 1812)
Barbara Swick	b	23 Feb 1779
Elizabeth Swick	b	25 Dec 1781
Andrew Swick	b	27 May 1784
Hannah Swick	b	20 Jan 1787

Mrs. Petterson did not name any children by Rachel Rose and John Peatt (Piatt) had children the first child of Rachel and Tunis was born when Rachel was only 20, it seems unlikely.

We know that Mary Fidler married Ezekiel Rose, for she was named in her father's will in Hunterdon County, NJ on 8 Oct 1759. Her father, John Fidler, Sr., names a daughter, Mary Rose and the executor of his estate was "my son John, and my son-in-law, Ezekiel Rose (others were named, also). I really know nothing about the Fidler family, so would really like to see what Mr. Benne sent.

Happy to receive your letter so soon and will look forward to hearing again.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley
